THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks the disciples "Why are you lacking in faith." In our life's journey, we also must learn to believe in God's presence and to trust in his care.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to continue show God's love and care to others by assisting individuals and families by providing food and funds for utility and rent bills. Thank you!

Dear St. John Vianney parishioners,

I am looking forward to our Parish Clean-Up Day on June 26. Upon further reflection, after receiving some input, and due to the hot weather, we are going to begin that day at 6:00 am, but if you want to arrive at 7:00 am or 8:00 am or even later that is not a problem. Others have asked do I need to bring anything? If you have lawn and garden tools that you want to bring and if you bring a pair of clothes to wear that would fine, otherwise we will provide them. We will also have projects for various skill levels and we will help you pick one that fits you. Even if you simply come and socialize and cheer on the workers that is fine too. Personally, I am looking for to it and I pray that it is a blessed day for all involved.

Just a quick reminder, last week we distributed Bishop Olmsted and the Diocese of Phoenix's new statement regarding the removal of the dispensation to miss Sunday mass due to the pandemic and this takes effect on July 1. There are a number of exceptions to this rule and if you still have questions about it please let me know and I can help you. Bishop Olmsted's full letter can be found on the Diocese of Phoenix's website:

https://dphx.org/bishop-olmsted-announces-lifting-of-mass-dispensation/

In the Gospel this Sunday (Mark 4:35-41), we see Jesus falling asleep in the boat with the Apostles during a storm. There are times in our lives when we can be tempted to think that God has fallen asleep or has forgotten about us. Whether it is due to a death in the family, a serious accident or illness, seeing family and friends walk away from the Church, or whether it is enduring a long pandemic and all the sufferings that it entailed. It is easy in such times to believe lies such as: "God has forgotten about me," or "I am on my own and no one can help me," or "this suffering is never going to end." The truth to counter these lies is that: "God cares very deeply about me especially when I am suffering," "God is with me and He has put others in my life who are willing to be with me," and "the sufferings of this life are temporary and rewards and blessings of the life to come are eternal." There is need to reject and renounce the lies in our life and to receive and embrace the truth that will set us free to love and be loved and to live an abundant life. It comes down to a choice. Do I want to live in the darkness of the lies that the world, the flesh, and the devil present to me?, or Do I want to live in the light of the truth that will empower and strength me when I'm tempted? My hope and prayer for you and your family is that you will choose to live in the truth.

Prayer of Faith – Heavenly Father, please forgive me for doubting You during times of suffering. Forgive me for believing the lies instead of the truth. Please give me the grace to choose You even when I don't feel like it. Help me to choose You when I feel like I am in darkness, or trapped in despair and discouragement. Jesus, You are the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Come into my life and my heart Lord Jesus with Your light, Your love, Your grace, and Your blessing. Amen.

God bless you – Father Ignatius Mazanowski, Administrator of St. John Vianney

20 de Junio de 2021

Estimados feligreses de St. John Vianney,

Espero ansioso nuestro Día de Limpieza Parroquial el 26 de Junio. Después de recibir algunos comentarios y debido al clima caluroso, he reflexionado y decidido comenzar ese día a las 6:00 am, pero si quieren llegar a las 7:00 am o a las 8:00 am o incluso más tarde, eso no es problema. Algunos han preguntado si necesitan traer algo. Si tiene herramientas de jardineria y ropa adecuada sientase libre de traerlas, de lo contrario aqui se le proporcionaran. También tendremos proyectos para varios niveles de habilidad y lo ayudaremos a elegir uno que se adapte a sus necesidades. Incluso si simplemente viene a socializar y animar a los trabajadores, eso también está bien. Yo personalmente, lo estoy esperando y estoy hacienda oracion para que sea un día bendecido para todos los involucrados.

Solo un recordatorio rápido, la semana pasada distribuimos la nueva declaración del Obispo Olmsted y la Diócesis de Phoenix con respecto a la eliminación de la dispensación para faltar a la misa dominical debido a la pandemia y esto entrara en vigencia el 1 de Julio. Hay una serie de excepciones a esta regla y si aún tiene preguntas al respecto, hágamelo saber y puedo ayudarlo. La carta completa del Obispo Olmsted se puede encontrar en el sitio web de la Diócesis de Phoenix:

En el Evangelio de este domingo (Marcos 4: 35-41), vemos a Jesús dormirse en el barco con los Apóstoles durante una tormenta. Hay momentos en nuestra vida en los que podemos sentirnos tentados a pensar que Dios se ha quedado dormido o se ha olvidado de nosotros. Ya sea por una muerte en la familia, un grave accidente o enfermedad, ver a familiares y amigos alejarse de la Iglesia, o si está experimentando una larga pandemia y todos los sufrimientos que conllevó. En esos momentos es fácil creer mentiras como: "Dios se ha olvidado de mí", "Estoy solo y nadie puede ayudarme" o "este sufrimiento nunca va a terminar". La verdad para contrarrestar estas mentiras es que: “Dios se preocupa mucho por mí, especialmente cuando estoy sufriendo”, “Dios está conmigo y ha puesto a otros en mi vida que están dispuestos a estar conmigo” y “los sufrimientos de esta vida son temporales y las recompensas y las bendiciones de la vida venidera son eternas ". Es necesario rechazar y renunciar a las mentiras en nuestra vida y recibir y abrazar la verdad que nos hará libres para amar y ser amados y vivir una vida abundante. Todo se reduce a una elección. ¿Quiero vivir en la oscuridad de las mentiras que el mundo, la carne y el diablo me presentan? ¿Quiero vivir a la luz de la verdad que me empoderará y fortalecerá cuando sea tentado? Mi esperanza y oración para usted y su familia es que elija vivir en la verdad.

Oración de Fe - Padre celestial, perdóname por dudar de ti en momentos de sufrimiento. Perdóname por creer las mentiras en lugar de la verdad. Por favor, dame la gracia de escogerte incluso cuando no me apetezca. Ayúdame a escogerte cuando me sienta en la oscuridad o atrapado en la desesperación y el desánimo. Jesús, Tú eres el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida. Ven a mi vida y a mi corazón Señor Jesús con Tu luz, Tu amor, Tu gracia y Tu bendición. Amén.

Dios los bendiga - Padre Ignatius Mazanowski, Administrador de St. John Vianney

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into unchartered waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"?

"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" - Mk 4:38c-39, 41

Join Immaculate Conception Parish for "The Search", a video series for anyone looking for meaning in life and for the answers to life's deepest questions. This program examines the great big story of everything -- life and death, sorrow and happiness, science and faith and the beauty of the cosmos all of which point to one big (and perhaps surprising) conclusion: that Jesus Christ and His Church have the most satisfying answers to the questions and desires of the human heart. Series begins on Thursday, June 3rd at 1:00pm and meets every Thursday thru July 15th in the Parish Hall. Call the Parish Office at 928-634-2933 for more information or to reserve your spot.
