LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

ST. JOHN VIANNEY MINISTRY FAIR

You are invited to "Come and See" our Ministry Fair on January 22nd and 23rd, in the Social Hall after each Mass.

Come and have a look at the present ministries and their services to our parish and prayerfully consider responding to the call of service.

Meet and greet dynamic folks who are involved and will provide information on where you can possibly affiliate.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesdays from 9am to 12 Noon

Confessions - 10 to Noon

Our Music Ministry would love to purchase handbells and a mounted bell to enhance our Liturgical Services. We already have an anonymous donor who will match up to $2,000. Our goal is to raise $10,000 for a handbell set of two octaves and a mounted bell. Please consider donating to our beautiful Music Ministry online by going to sjvsedona.org and clicking Donate. Or you can drop off cash or a check to our parish office Monday - Friday from 8:30am - 4:30pm.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

We will have our first meeting on January 17, 2022 at 6:00 P.M., in the Social Hall.

A meal will be provided by chef Father Ignatius. We have a lot to discuss and we need your presence. We welcome Knights of Columbus members from another council if you want to find what we do or if you have questions about the Knights.

Grieving with Great Hope

Are you suffering from a great loss? Types of loss may include: spouse, parent, child, marriage, job, pet, health, safety, etc. You are not alone! Please join the SJV Grief Ministry for a seven-week workshop, Grieving with Great Hope. We'll meet from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on consecutive Tuesday's, 2/8/2022 to 3/22/2022. During each session a member of the Grief Ministry will share his or her own loss and coping skills. We will then meet in small groups for sharing and support. There will be opportunities for reflection, spiritual rituals and fellowship. We are here for you; God bless you on your grieving journey.

Comments from our most recent Grief Workshop:

"The workshop was amazing. Thanks for everything." "The grieving process was addressed well." "I felt very comfortable and felt the staff was wonderful - I will miss my Tuesdays." "Looking for healing and fellowship; both were addressed." "Excellent agenda." "Every session brought different emotions."

To register: (online) see Flocknote Grief Ministry page for registration form; (email) griefministry@sjvsedona.org or (registration forms) are in the SJV Church hall Grief Ministry bulletin board; return to Maria Mendoza, parish secretary.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

- Jn 2:1-3

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Local businesses and sponsors that advertise on bulletins need you now more than ever before. Please encourage and remind others to show their support during this time.

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Every day, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them a reason to believe and to trust.

PRAYING FOR THE LIVING AND THE DEAD - THE SEVENTH SPIRITUAL WORK OF MERCY

Prayer is one of the most powerful ways we can support others. Joining together in prayer for the living and the dead entrusts us all into God's care.

- Request a Mass intention for a friend or family member who is going through a tough time.
- Request a Mass intention for a friend or family member who has passed away.
- Keep your own book of prayer intentions, writing down the names of those whom are kept in your prayers.
- Ask a friend or family member if there is any way in which you can pray for them.
- Through prayer, entrust your cares and concerns for those around you to God.
