THE CATHOLIC FAITH EXPLAINED

This weeks topic: A Love that Lasts: Discovering Authentic Love

There now seems to be a free-for-all idea of "love"—personally decided and self-centered—that often leads to heartbreak and unhappiness. Is that what God intends when he is called "Love" by the writers of the New Testament? What does it mean when we

PRESENTATION: ANOINTING AND FUNERAL MASS PRE-PLANNING

What does the Church teach about Anointing? Who can be anointed? Anointing vs Last rites vs Extreme Unction, what changed? How do I plan a Funeral Mass?

We plan for all the important moments of our lives: marriage, buying a home, retirement...planning your Funeral Mass is no different. Pre-planning is simply the way we should plan for the last important matter — the day that will represent our legacy to those we leave behind. Making funeral arrangements in advance is an act of kindness, gives peace of mind, and an opportunity to express your wishes.

AN ACT OF KINDNESS

It's an act of kindness — of prudent generosity — if we can face these difficult decisions now and settle them simply. This reassurance, comfort and peace of mind help diminish the stress of decisions made in grief and provides for a true and lasting gift to loved ones left behind.

PEACE OF MIND

The death of a loved one comes with many difficult tasks for grieving family members. They face a long list of choices that require immediate attention. They have to make hard decisions when they are also experiencing overwhelming sadness. With pre-planning your Funeral Mass, you'll know that when the time comes, family members will find comfort in having the details decided on in advance.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS YOUR WISHES

Arranging your Funeral Mass involves details that are unique to every individual. What readings do you want read at your Funeral Mass? Do you want a Rosary? We're here to help make these decisions as simple as possible right now.

WE WOULD LIKE TO INVITE YOU TO COME TO A PRESENTATION ON ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND PRE-PLANNING A FUNERAL MASS.

Saturday, March 26th

11:00pm | St. Joseph Hall

Q&A and Refreshments after presentation.

Why is the Annunciation celebrated on March 25th?

The Solemnity of the Annunciation is celebrated nine months before the Nativity of the Lord, a feast which came about earlier historically. The Annunciation recalls the day when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Mary and revealed God's will that she become the Mother of the Son of God, and she accepted. At that moment, the "Word became Flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14).
