2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Altar Flowers

We are pleased to be working with Blooms on a Budget, who are delivering a fresh floral arrangement every week. If you would like to sponsor a weekly floral arrangement, there is a sign-up sheet in the Parish Office. Here, you can offer the arrangement as a memorial for a deceased loved one, or as an honorarium for someone who is still living. Your memorial/honorarium will be printed in that weekend's bulletin. The offering is $60 for each arrangement (one arrangement each weekend), which will remain in front of the main altar all week. Thank you for helping us beautify the sanctuary each week and give glory to God!

"Notice how the flowers grow. They do not toil or spin. But I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of them" (Luke 12:27).

The Altar Flowers this weekend are placed in memory of Frank & Rose Dimuzio

We've made online giving easier!

Visit the parish website (smgaz.org) and click "donate". It's convenient for you, and helps the parish to plan more easily knowing regularly scheduled gifts are arranged.

You may sign up for continued giving, or make a one-time gift. It's flexible to meet your needs and circumstances. You may also mail or bring your offering envelope to the parish office. Your continued support is vital to the operation of the parish facility, ministries & staff, and we are grateful.

The Catholic Women of Phoenix

The Catholic Women of Phoenix are pleased to announce the 11th Annual Diocese of Phoenix Catholic Women's Conference featuring Noelle Mering, author of Awake, Not Woke, Kathleen Beckman, author of A Family Guide to Spiritual Warfare and Cari Donaldson, author of Pope Awesome and Other Stories. Our theme this year is "One Life is All We Have" based on a quote from this year's patron, St. Joan of Arc. For more information call 602-471-1944 or email info@cwphx.org. Tickets are on sale now at cwphx.org.

SMG St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him.

Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

Our pantry is in need of large (4-5) diapers, and as always, paper goods. Thank you for your generosity.

If you know of anyone who needs help of any kind, please, let us know (480-948-8380, ext. 50). We'll do our best to help. Thank you.

Calling All Cursillistas! It's a new year, and time to renew old friendships. We will have a parish grouping on January 29th at 9:00 am in John XXIII. We'll pray together and find out how we're all doing after the past year. So bring your stories of prayer, study, and action (or just relax and listen to others). Let's help the Spirit move within our group.

Please RSVP to Phil Ondrei by Wednesday, January 26th, at apondrei@aol.com, or by phone at 480-951-5047.

See you there, and De Colores!

Knights of Columbus Council 11007

We're back!

We are Fraternal men sharing our love of God, Family, the Church and country. Due to health concerns we have been inactive for nearly two years and are now re-engaging and developing objectives for the coming year. In the past we produced The St. Patrick's Day dinner, The Oktoberfest dinner, continue to be an integral part of the Guadalupe Outreach program, collaborated on projects with our Youth Ministry and much more.

We invite all men of the parish over 18 to join us at our meetings the second Monday of the month at 6:30pm in Piper II. Come share your ideas and be a part of our future here at SMG. The commitment is just one hour a month.

For more information email Grand Knight, Sean Daley - seanaz2nv@yahoo.com.

Inviting all single Catholic men and women between the ages of 19 and 27 to consider participating in our upcoming formation programs. The men's is entitled Viri Virtutes (Men of Virtue) and the women's is Feminae Fide (Women of Faith). We understand the challenges you are facing today if you want to be rooted in your Catholic faith. Our Catholic anthropology gives us a rich and hopeful understanding of masculinity and femininity - often very much at odds with the views presented in today's culture. But swimming upstream is not impossible when you know how to navigate the waters and if you are doing so with others.

With that in mind, these 12-week programs are designed to help you develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ, what is God's plan for men and women, some practical help on how to live your life in a virtuous and fruitful way and to be open to God's vocational plan for you. It will also be an opportunity to meet and befriend other like-minded Catholics.

Viri Virtutes begins January 20th. For course description, schedule and how to register, visit ViriVirtutes.com

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18 - 25

God of every nation, creator of every human life, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Word of God, has been made manifest in human history by becoming one of us and one with us. Born in a stable, born in homelessness, he is our King and Lord. The Magi bore witness to the Light of hope coming into the world as they faithfully followed the star, coming from foreign lands in the East, until arriving in Bethlehem of Judea.

The solidarity of God with created humanity in this gift of Epiphany calls us to a life of solidarity with the homeless, the refugee, the weakest and the rejected. We are all human beings worthy of redemption and prepared by that redeeming love to the glory of your Kingdom. Help us, O gracious Lord, to do this in unity and peace.

As we who bear the name of Christian, from the days of the church at Antioch, hold a special place in our hearts for the ancient Christian communities in the land we call holy, remind us to continually respond to our baptismal promises to you, who said through your Spirit at the Jordan, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Help your Church, merciful One, to be a light for unity within itself and a beacon of hope for all humanity. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit reign as One God for ever and ever. Amen.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 7-8a, 9-10a and c

Reading II 1 Cor 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Gospel Jn 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." and Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.
