GOSPEL MEDITATION

March 31, 2024

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

—Father John Muir LPI

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

“Could you not keep watch with Me for one hour?”

- Mt. 26:40

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration is our response to Jesus’ love for us. We become a part of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration by committing to spend a quiet holy hour of prayer in His Eucharistic Presence once each week. This unites us all together, giving thanks to Our Lord for all He has done for us.

Adoration is available for the public Monday-Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The Lord will bless you, as He does all of his faithful Adorers.

Come and spend time with Jesus!

For the People of the Parish

Our homebound Eucharistic Ministry is looking for volunteers. Our Parish services several homebound parishioners that are ill and/or elderly who are unable to attend Mass in person but still wish to be able to receive communion. We are asking for volunteers to help one Sunday a month for a few hours to distribute our Lord. We are all called to help others, and this is a great way to do so. If you feel the calling to volunteer, please reach out to
