La Infantita María

Father Dino Candelaria presented La Infantita Maria, to the Legion of Mary last month. She is celebrated in Mexico City as the Divine Infant Mary since the 1800's. In 1840 a nun, named Sr. Magdalena de San Jose, from convent San Josede Gracia, was praying and our Blessed Mother appeared to her as a newborn baby laying on clouds and dressed as a queen. and asked her to celebrate her birth. Sr. Magdalena asked the mother Superior if an image could be made, it was, and then Sr. Magdalena took the Infantita to Rome and spoke to Pope Gregory the 16th . He approved the devotion. There have been many miracles starting with a blind child, who was healed after the offerings of prayers. The original Infantita dedicated in the convent in Mexico City and is celebrated on the September 8. We are honored to have been given this Infanti-ta Maria and we can ask her prayers for any of our needs whether for ourselves or our family and especially children.

Family Prayer to Infantita Maria

O adorable Infantita Maria, given to us by the Father as the most wonderful gift, we gaze upon the sweetness of thy holy face, and appeal to thy most tender heart. O blessed Child of God, bless parents and grandparents with thy mercy and compassion, watch over our infants, keep our children innocent, and guide our teenagers in the faith. O most holy Virgin Babe, grant us thy graces of purity in mind, body, and spirit which flow from the beauty and power of thy Immaculate Conception. O little Queen of Heaven, fill our souls with deep gratitude for God's blessings, and grant perennial joy to our hearts to gladly pray, fast, and give alms to those in need. O Mother to be of Jesus, arise in us a renewed commitment in our vocation to follow the Lord and teach us that love can stand with steadfastness at the foot of the cross. O Immaculate Little Lady, keep safe, protect, and comfort expectant mothers and babies who lie the sacredness of the womb and await to be born into families with great love. O miraculous Infantita Maria, arouse in us a greater devotion to thy holy infancy, that through thy miraculous intercession we will always honor and defend the sanctity of human life at every stage. Amen

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 25, 2024

The Nativity of the Lord

In one of my assignments as a priest I was asked to provide administrative oversight to a rather large Church operation with massive financial, legal, and personnel challenges. When I began, I felt overwhelmed and unqualified. Someone said to me, "You are totally unqualified for this work." The unfeeling truth of it stung. Reeling and upset, I reached out to my predecessor, who said, "Your job is to bring Jesus into every situation. Let everyone else be the experts in all the other stuff." It was so liberating. My lack of qualifications actually became an asset because it grounded me in the truth of Jesus alone and not in my own skill.

Do you ever feel unqualified to be a messenger of Jesus to the world? The shepherds in the Gospel account of Jesus' birth were part of a scorned and despised class in those days, not unlike prostitutes and tax collectors. They were not competent and respected citizens. And they are the ones who are approached by angels and invited to see Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. They ignore their lack of qualifications and announce what they've seen and heard about the newborn king.

So, it goes with us. When it comes to the things of God and angels, we are as incompetent and unlikely as shifty shepherds. Until, that is, we behold the glory of the newborn king, which we do in the Christmas liturgy. May the revelation to us of Christ's birth this Christmas overwhelm our insecurities and make the likes of us the most unlikely heralds of our king.

—Father John Muir

Thank you, Mil Gracias, Merci Beaucoup!

To the volunteers who helped set up tables and then put them away for the Arts and Crafts Fair.
To the volunteers who worked in the kitchen to make those yummy breakfast burritos, Frito pies, and nachos. To Robert Wilcox who donated a sterling silver cross for us to raffle and make $200 on it. To the Vendors who brought their goods for all of us to view and ponder on what to spend our money on. Thank you all for your participation in buying their goods, and making them profitable. In total the Fiesta Committee made just about $2000 on the table rentals, food and raffle, less some food expenses!
