4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." - Jn 10:27-28b

Fourth Sunday of Easter

We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our finances. Sometimes the challenges are of our own making. Perhaps we've developed patterns of sin in our personal lives or our family relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps more poignantly, how do we now view God's relationship to us?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' words to us are encouraging ones. "No one can take them out of my hand." Did you catch that? In case you didn't, Jesus reemphasizes the point again a few verses later. "My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand." God's grip of providential care and mercy is so strong that nothing can separate us. We might think things take us out of God's hand - life circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith - but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father's hand, and we can't take ourselves out! We can't remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance.

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might take us from God's hand, we can turn back to Him. God is always inviting us to follow Him hand to hand to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

A Mother's Prayer

Thank you, Lord, for bringing my children into my life. Help me guide them and teach them through example to lead lives of wisdom and strong, loving faith. Please let them learn to serve you always in thought and deed. And remind me, Lord, to always be there for my family as you are always there for me. Amen.

Announcements

Mother's Day is Pro-Life Sunday - May 12th, 2019.

Birthright of Tulsa and Go Life Mobile Medical team-up for the diocesan Pro-Life Sunday second collection. Together, they offer life-affirming solutions to struggling pregnant women and parents of little ones. Go Life provides free ultra sounds, pregnancy tests and confidential counseling. Birthright provides free pregnancy tests, baby essentials and parenting classes. Honor and help nurture life this Mother's Day with a financial donation & prayers. Brochure with remittance envelope will be available in the gathering area during the month of May if you would like to mail your donation.

The Fatima Ladies will be collecting diapers, new and gently used clothing, sizes newborn to 5T, during the month of May. Items will be distributed to Birthright of Tulsa and Catholic Charities.

We would like to recognize all graduating seniors at 10:30 Mass on May 19th. Please contact the office or Chris Lawson to make sure we have your name.

Holy Family Cathedral School is entering their 120th year and are focusing on the fundamentals: Is it Good? Is it True? Is it Beautiful? Everyone is invited to see the difference between child-centered learning and test driven learning, hear the difference between engaged learning and passive learning, and feel the difference a faith-filled community makes in the life of a child. Holy Family offers an enriched learning environment, incorporating the arts and advancing classical culture. Schedule your tour today at 918-582-0422 or leslie.southerland@myhfcs.org

Rachel's Vineyard will have a retreat June 21 - 23, 2019. Flyers and additional information are posted in the gathering area.
