June 14, 2020 • Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

GOSPEL MEDITATION

It is no wonder that followers of Christ are called the Body of Christ. After all, sharing in the same spiritual food and sacred meal, they become what they eat and reveal the Divine Image. There is so much power for healing in the community of believers. Through the Eucharist, Christ becomes as present in those who have partaken of his Body and Blood as he has the elements themselves. The very presence of God touches the depths of the human soul and visits a part of us that no human being can ever hope to explore. We are God's. The sacred Eucharistic meal is a celebration of intimacy, the reunion of two loves in constant search of and longing for the other.

The community of believers receives the power and the presence to touch and heal in the name of the One they have welcomed within. It is now within their grasp to change the way life is lived and to more intentionally put into practice the Beatitudes that the Divine Guest has revealed. We are asked to be like Christ and work to create a world of sufficiency, where the greed of some no longer creates the want of others but where all of God's children can find a home and a place at the table of life. The One who makes a home within calls us to live a life that transforms. We are changed ourselves and now become agents of change for others. We are the Body of Christ. God is with us. We have been nourished.

Sadly, many are afraid to try. We know what we are called to do, but we struggle with feelings of doubt as to whether God really is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do our systems have to change? Is it possible that we somehow missed the mark when we put all of our social networks in place and established the business of our lives? Perhaps we have to radically rethink our approach and that can scare us. We might have to give something up or change, and we don't want to. As long as want, injustice, division, prejudice, and scarcity still exist, there is tremendous work for the Body of Christ.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Are you one of the folks that dream about food? As a foodie, I think about food all the time. Not just about eating food but how it tastes, feels, and looks on a plate. The different ways of cooking it and the different colors, sizes and tastes. The crunch of a salad and the creaminess of a pudding makes my mouth happy. In the Gospel we hear how Jesus is the bread of life. Do we feel the same way about the Eucharist as we do about the bread baking in our oven? Do we hunger for the wine turned in to the blood of our Savior the same way that we look forward to the Cabernet with a good steak? God has given us amazing food and drink to keep our physical bodies alive. But He has also given us himself to fill our spiritual bodies. If we genuinely believe in the Eucharist, that it is truly the body and blood of Christ himself, should we not hunger for that spiritual food more than the food that fuels our bodies? I am thankful for the food that fills my belly, but I am blessed and moved by the body and blood of the one who saved me and will give me eternal life. - Sue Ann Williams, Parishioner
