GOSPEL MEDITATION
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God's compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed. God asks us to do the same ... feed people. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them?

When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, "why?" and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person's current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn't work like that.

Prayer for Fathers

*For those who have fathered us into birth, for those we call "father" who have shown us the face of our Father in heaven,
for expectant fathers and those whose arms ache to
cradle their own,
for fathers who have borne the pain of losing a child,
for fathers who have laid down their life for their children:
May the one who is Father and Lord of all be their guide
and their peace.
For all fathers, living or dead,
those nearby or those distanced by miles, disease, or division:
May they all be embraced and strengthened
By the loving arms of God, the Father of us all.
Amen.*

Sunday, June 19th is the last day to sign up for The Feast of the Sacred Heart on Friday, June 24th. The sign up sheet is in the gathering area. The evening will begin with Mass at 6:00 p.m. followed by dinner. The parish is providing hamburgers, hotdogs, toppings, chips, potato salad, baked beans, dessert, and drinks. The Knights have volunteered to cook for us. If anyone would like to provide an additional side dish it is welcomed but not necessary. Bring your $$ as we also hope to have a few fund raising activities - 50/50 Raffle, M&M jar guess, and cake/pie sale.

The weekend of June 25th and 26th we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters.

Sacred Heart welcomes all new members to our parish family. Please fill out a registration form that is available in the gathering area or contact the office.
