Dear Friends,

I cannot believe that the summer is already winding down and that school is starting tomorrow. Our staff will keep the students, teachers and administrators in our prayers this week. We will be doing a blessing for students this weekend at our 5:30 PM Sunday Mass. It is also the first Life Night for our High School Teens. I look forward to seeing all of our young people and kicking off a fresh semester.

You have probably noticed by now that we are observing silence during Mass. The reason for that is that sacred silence is part of the celebration and it is to be observed at the designated times. Its nature, however, depends on the moment when it occurs in the different parts of the celebration. For in the Penitential Act and again after the invitation to pray, individuals recollect themselves; whereas after a reading or after the Homily, all meditate briefly on what they have heard; then after Communion, they praise God in their hearts and pray to Him.

After being here for a month, I have come to realize the need for help in our community. After discussing this with the Pastoral Staff, we decided to start preparing a small food pantry. Each weekend at all Masses, there will be a donation bin outside. The first weekend of the month will continue to be manned by the Men’s Club and the food will be donated to St. Therese Center. The other weekends will go to help the need in our own community. We will accept food and other household items such as toiletries, laundry items, baby items, etc. This will begin immediately. Other details are still being worked out at this time, but please feel free to contact Cheryl Schwarz, our Director of Outreach Ministry, at 702-361-8840 with any questions you may have or to drop off donations during the week.

I am excited to be planning a new Bible Study that will begin on September 3rd. The study will occur every Tuesday excluding Holy Days or Holidays (notice will be given ahead of time). The study will focus on the upcoming weekend readings. It will begin with the Paschal Mystery and then the composition of the Lectionary and Liturgical Year. The sessions will be offered twice each Tuesday in the Community Center. The morning session will start at 9:30 AM and the evening session will start at 6:30 PM. There is no charge. You do not have to bring anything specific with you to attend, but I ask that you familiarize yourself with the readings. To sign-up, please contact Sheila Rafanello at 702-361-8840.

Lastly, I ask you to save the date for our upcoming Parish Picnic. It will take place on Sunday, October 13th. More details will be discussed soon.

Yours In Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are asked to be vigilant until our Master returns. Even though our faith tells us that Christ will come again and that our purpose and destiny is an eternal one, it is hard not to lose heart, grow weary, and become distracted. Remembering the stories of our faith and what God has done throughout history is one way of remaining fresh and focused. Celebrating, recalling, and making real and tangible again what God has done is what our community does liturgically each time we gather. As the author of Hebrews reminds us: Faith makes real what we hope for and is the evidence of things we cannot see. Let us take this time once again to remember and participate in what God has done and continues to do.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Tickets booked, packing list double-checked, itinerary set - how do you know you’re prepared for a trip? Being ready requires plenty of practical preparation. Do we give the same care to our spiritual preparedness? “Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom,” Jesus tells us. In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus reminds us to have the right attitude for the gifts and callings he wants to give us!

Clear out your clutter! “Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” Jesus reminds the disciples that earthly standards of security and success will wear out in time. If our lives are structured around values that don’t align with the kingdom of God, we’ll miss opportunities to receive God. If we’re so concerned with our child’s success in sports that we miss Sunday Mass for their tournaments, we’re missing out receiving the sacraments and building a consistent community of faith. If our quest for the promotion takes us away from family commitments, we won’t be able to fully receive the love intended in our closest relationships.

Set faith-based priorities. “Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.” Our conflicting commitments can cause any routine to slip from time to time. All the more reason to make sure faith is a priority. Pray as a family before meals. Bring your children regularly to the sacrament of confession. Make room in the schedule for faith enrichment activities offered by your parish. Volunteer once a month. "At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." When will the call come to care for an ailing parent? To take on a new leadership position? God speaks to us through the circumstances of our lives. He calls each of us to greater love, sometimes in very concrete ways. This week, take some time to consider: Will you be ready?
