Dear Friends,

I have noticed many of our parishioners receiving communion in many different ways. When we were in Catholic school or in the faith formation classes (religious Education or CCD) good sisters or our teachers taught us how to receive communion. I wanted you to pay attention to General Instruction of the Roman Missal adopted for the United States of America. It tells us “When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister. The consecrated host may be received either on the tongue or in the hand at the discretion of each communicant. When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood.”

If you wish to receive Holy Communion in the hand, this is how you do it. When your turn comes, bow your head before the sacrament as a gesture of reverence. The minister shows you the host and says “The Body of Christ.” You answer aloud and in a clear voice: “Amen.” Then place your left hand, palm up, on the right, and the host is placed on it. You take a short step to the side, stop for a moment, and with your right hand reverently take the host from your left hand and place it in your mouth. Then proceed in the same manner (reverently) to receive from the cup.

“When receiving in the hand, the communicant should be guided by the words of St. Cyril of Jerusalem: “When you approach, take care not to do so with your hand stretched out and your fingers open or apart, but rather place your left hand as a throne beneath your right, as befits one who is about to receive the King. Then receive him, taking care that nothing is lost.”

That is the very reason we should not reach for the host with thumb and forefinger; the image of the throne is lost, and the degree of reverence is not the same. Keep your hand clean. Don’t have tissues or other things in any hand or cover your palm with the sleeve of your shirt or sweater. I hope this helps clarify the correct manner. Please do not make a sign of the cross before or after receiving the communion.

I hope you have all saved the date for our Parish Picnic (October 13th). Right now, we need donations for the raffle and we are looking for volunteers to be a part of the Picnic Committee. If you are interested in either one (or both), please contact Lisa at 702-361-3022.

Yours In Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita
Pastor

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Prince of Peace wants to set the world on fire? This Sunday’s Gospel can sound more intense than what we may be accustomed to. It’s a passage of contradictions. Jesus so clearly prays for unity, yet here he speaks of division. Why would our God who comes as an offering of love speak so frankly about causing relationships to be torn apart?

The sobering truth is that Jesus is divisive. We see this throughout the Gospels, as the Pharisees critique him, the Romans condemn him, and not everyone in the crowd is enthusiastic about his words. Jesus has not come for the purpose of dividing, but what he does is so radical that it upends the status quo. And it doesn’t end with his preaching and miracles! “There is a baptism with which I must be baptized.” Jesus isn’t talking about his baptism at the Jordan River, which has already occurred, but the passing through the waters of death on the Cross and rising again to new life in the resurrection. This is divisive stuff! Christ’s spiritual fire turned the “fathers” - the Jewish people and Pharisees - against the “sons” - the common people. Not everyone wants the Gospel Jesus is preaching. Not everyone wants to be set on fire with the desire to love others. Some prefer to put on a warm sweater and curl up in front of the TV.

In living and loving as Jesus did, we, too, might ruffle some feathers. In disciplining our teenage child for sneaking out, we may cause some division (temporarily, we hope!). In standing up to gossip and the spread of cruel rumors in our workplace, we might cause division. In emphasizing the dignity of both the desperate mother and the unborn child, we might cause division. Not everyone wants the Gospel Jesus is preaching. Not everyone wants the Gospel we are invited to live. But that’s no excuse not to live it.

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our baptismal rite instructs the parents and godparents of the newly baptized children, “May they keep the flame of faith alive in their hearts.” Faith has often been associated with fire. While fire can be useful and welcomed as a source of light and warmth, it can also be devastating and destructive. The Gospel is very much like this. On the one hand, Jesus speaks of healing, liberty, mercy, and forgiveness. On the other, he challenges the secular mindset and ideology, risks opposition, and pushes people out of their comfort zones. We are more attracted to things that make us feel better about ourselves. Equipped with the flame of faith, are we willing to see the bigger picture and risk popularity and self-preservation in favor of the kingdom of God?

95 catechists have already said “Yes” to these questions and 7 additional catechists are needed.

Our Parish Family Needs You!!!

If you have taught and want to teach again or if you have never taught before but feel this ministry is one that you might be interested in, please call Juliann Dwyer at 702-361-8840 regarding these volunteer teacher openings. The church depends on people who are willing to share their faith, time, and talents with the youth of our parish. We have openings on Sunday, Tuesday afternoons from 4:00-5:00 PM and Home Catechesis.
UPCOMING BLOOD DRIVE SUNDAY
SEPTEMBER 8TH, 2019

Why should I give blood? Who needs it?
Many have need for human blood and blood components. For instance, the new born baby, the cancer patient, the surgery patient, the burn patient, and of course the accident victim. Giving of yourself in the form of a blood donation for another person is one of the greatest gifts we, who are at least 17 years of age (no upper age limit) and are reasonably healthy, can give to another person. The summer vacations and Holidays put a great strain on the blood supply especially here in southern Nevada.

So, if you can, please make a donation in our STM Community Center on Sunday, September from 7:00 AM to 2:00 PM. It only takes less than one hour to help save a life.

Thank you,
Parish Social Ministry

CELEBRATE WITH US....
September 26th will mark the 23 year anniversary of the dedication of our church. We will celebrate with Mass at 8:30 AM and then a reception in the Community Center after.
