Dear Friends,

I would like to start by apologizing for publishing the wrong parish picnic date in last weekend’s bulletin. That was the original date scheduled, but shortly after we sent our bulletin to the publisher, we changed the details for the picnic. The correct date is Saturday, October 12th. To save money (since it does cost to rent the park), we decided to have our event on property. We are excited to start planning more details with our committee of staff and volunteers and we will post more information soon. In the meantime, please keep that date saved.

As the “new guy” here, I feel like some people may be assuming things, hearing things or just questioning things that I am saying, doing or even thinking. I believe in open communication within the staff and community as a whole. As I’ve stated in a previous bulletin, my door is open. If you hear a rumor, but it did not come directly from my mouth or my writing, please do not assume it is really from me and that it is true. I would love to answer questions, address concerns or just chat openly with anyone that wants to. I am not a fan of gossip and believe in going straight to the source. I’ve read a lot of great advice and facts about gossip through scripture and a general audience address that Pope Francis gave at St. Peter’s Square. I would like to share some points that jumped out at me the most.

In the beginning, gossip seems to be something enjoyable and fun, like a piece of candy. But at the end, it fills the heart with bitterness and it also poisons us. Sadly, some people thrive on this and look for opportunities to destroy others. Gossip always has a criminal side to it. There is no such thing as innocent gossip and nobody deserves to be gossiped about. Instead, the Pope encourages us to pray for that person and if necessary, speak to that person so they may be able to seek remedy for the problem. Don’t tell everyone else. Proverbs mentions that a man who lacks judgment derides his neighbor, but a man of understanding holds his tongue. A gossip betrays a confidence, but a trustworthy man keeps a secret. It is the Holy Spirit who renders us capable of living Divine love and following the greatest commandment: Love God with all your heart, and love your neighbor as yourself.

The Pope calls us to make a serious examination of conscience. In a Christian community, division is one of the greatest sins because it is the work of the devil. God, instead, wants us to develop the capacity to welcome, to forgive and to love each other, to be ever more like him, who is communion and love. Let the words of Jesus resound in our hearts: “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God” (Matthew 5:9). Let us ask sincerely for forgiveness for all the times in which we have caused division or misunderstanding within our communities, knowing well that communion is not achieved except through constant conversion. What is conversion? It is asking the Lord for the grace to not speak ill, not to criticize, not to gossip and to love everyone. It is a grace which the Lord gives us. This is what it means to convert the heart. I pray this inspires everyone not to think before slandering others. Like our mothers always said, “If you can’t say something nice, don’t say anything at all!”

Yours In Christ,
Fr. Bede Wevita
Pastor

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Have you ever seen a celebrity? Have you ever met a political representative? Did the encounter leave you with newfound acting or musical abilities? Did it give you a grasp of the intricacies of the latest city ordinance or controversial law? Talents, expertise, and skill are hard-won traits, not rewards that spread by contact. Our life of faith is also not so easy.

“We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets!” In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus notes that it requires moral strength to enter the kingdom of God. It’s not mere proximity to righteousness that saves. Rubbing elbows with the righteous is not the same as being truly holy ourselves. Unfortunately, we can have this attitude in many areas. It’s easy to see who may seem “first” in the eyes of the world. This occurs in our workplaces and among our public figures. It can also happen in our schools, local parishes, and the larger Church. For some of us, the temptation to have the popularity and prestige rub off on us can be fairly strong. If only we are in the right place with the right people, surely others will associate us with what they possess!

But salvation is worked out in each individual life. It is our task not merely to show up, but to be transformed. And the truly transformed may not be everyone we expect. “People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south … some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.” Some who seem first in reputation now may be last in the kingdom of God. Others who appear now on the furthest fringes of society — but better imitate the lowly holiness of Jesus — will be first in his kingdom. What are your concerns? Proximity and reputation? Or prayerful righteousness?

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Developing healthy relationships with others requires discipline. This is also true of our relationship with God. As Christians, we are called to be like Christ. This does not just happen randomly or when it is convenient for us. It happens when we spend time with Christ every day and strive to be and think like him. This is no small task. It entails a willingness to see things, people, and God differently. Abandoning our self-focused needs and desires and putting on Christ is a challenging discipline to follow. However, if we choose to enter through the narrow gate of discipleship, we will find peace, live virtuous lives, and understand what it means to be saved. Resting and being cradled in God’s lap and enjoying His presence is where we really desire to be, even though we have to give up some things in order to do so.

UPCOMING BLOOD DRIVE SUNDAY
SEPTEMBER 8TH, 2019

Why should I give blood? Who needs it?
Many have need for human blood and blood components. For instance, the newborn baby, the cancer patient, the surgery patient, the burn patient, and of course the accident victim. Giving of yourself in the form of a blood donation for another person is one of the greatest gifts we, who are at least 17 years of age (no upper age limit) and are reasonably healthy, can give to another person. The summer vacations and Holidays put a great strain on the blood supply especially here in southern Nevada.

So, if you can, please make a donation in our STM Community Center on Sunday, September from 7:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

It only takes less than one hour to help save a life.

Do you have graphic design skills? Do you want to be a part of history at St. Thomas More? If so, we would love to see what you got! We are looking for a new logo! We would ideally like to incorporate STM (since that is what we commonly say in reference to our community anyway), the slanted cross on the outside of our church building, Saint Thomas More and this specific part of Saint Thomas More’s infamous quote—“God’s First.” We ask that you submit a digital design to amandad@stmlv.org no later than September 1st, 2019. Once we have all the submissions, our staff will vote on a design.

ATTENTION 55+ SINGLE SENIORS

Seven Magic Mountains! Lenten Soup & Rosary Dinner! Court Whist Card Party! “Mama Mia” Broadway Show! Clark County Museum! Japanese hibachi dinner! Greek cuisine lunch! You missed the above activities and we missed YOU!

Come and join us at our next gathering on September 3rd at 10:00 AM in the Community Center. We have just begun! If you have any questions, please contact Carol at 702-606-3900.
Patients who feel supported experience less pain.

Studies show that when you feel encouragement from your doctor, it actually helps reduce pain. It’s a scientific fact that reminds us why humankindness is at the heart of everything we do at Dignity Health - St. Rose Dominican.
