Dear Parishioners,

In the spirit of responsible stewardship and transparency as your pastor, I am pleased to present to you the Statements of Expenses and Revenues reporting the financial activity of St. Thomas More Catholic Community for the year 2018-2019 and the proposed budget for the year 2019-2020 in this bulletin. I am happy to announce a surplus for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2019. As you can imagine, this was not easy to accomplish, and did not come without the great sacrifice of your generosity. Mindful of the call to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted, your generous response to that call accomplished this in the parish community that we call our home.

Past Year
During this past year, we have continued to serve the Lord, proclaim his Word, celebrate the sacraments and bring more people to Him. During the period of July 1st, 2018 through June 30th, 2019, our average Sunday Mass attendance was 3,156. We maintained an average of 6,569 active families registered in this parish and had 1,059 students registered in faith formation classes. Also during this past year, we had 213 baptisms (3 of whom were converts and received their sacraments during the Easter Vigil), 19 marriages, the preparation of over 20 couples for marriages elsewhere, and helped with several annulments so that all these marriages could go forward without obstacle. We also had 114 Confirmations, 163 First Communions, and 65 Funerals.

Present year
Our average weekly collection for the last year was $31,873.00. Based on that, we set a goal for this year’s weekly collection as $32,971.00. As a result there is a deficit of $136,975.00. This we may have to take from our savings in order to balance the budget. In order to maintain, we need $35,657.00 a week from the weekly collection.

In the savings account, we have $386,225.00. In the checking account, we have $337,050.00. Out of which $133,000.00 is allocated towards the air conditioners and $55,000.00 for the new microphones. That leaves us only $149,050.00.

Faith Formation and Youth Ministry (Life Teen and More Youth) programs are thriving. Last week, we added a lectionary-based Bible study program. Over 65 parishioners participated in the diocesan conference this year. We are offering two welcome home programs this coming year for returning Catholics and those who have not completed their initiation (Confirmation and Eucharist). We started our own Outreach Ministry with a food pantry. We added more controls to weekly collection counting and are also changing finance controls as recommended by last year’s audit of the parish. Now a third party; an outside professional Accounting Firm, is preparing monthly and annual reports and doing all the bank reconciliation, as well as putting in place all the necessary controls. We are adding the second confessional in the coming weeks and also our church and chapel are open for extended hours. Last week we installed new microphones in our facility, which were required by the Federal Government. Soon we will be installing two 50-ton air conditioners in the church.

Dreams For Our Future
In two years, we will be celebrating our 25th anniversary of the dedication of the worship space (church). There are a few other things I would like to eventually see happen that will add beauty to our parish buildings and grounds and enhance our worship experience if maintained properly. These include a new sound system, audio visual equipment with projection screens, new carpeting, pew cushions and kneelers for the church, sacred vessels and additional vestments for priests and deacons. Perhaps also adding more trees on our church grounds would be a more aesthetically pleasing landscape for us and all who visit here. Also, it would be wise to see our parish offer additional programs for our community such as the following: parenting classes, a funeral ministry program, media literacy classes, new marriage preparation training, marriage enrichment programs, more retreats for all and parish missions. Adding formation programs for all and providing opportunities for our parish leaders to participate in national programs would also be advisable so that they can, in return, lead many closer to God.

Also, there are over 50,000 Catholics (21,173 families) who live in our parish boundaries. Only 6,569 are registered with us and even fewer are attending the Masses at our parish or elsewhere. Somehow, we need to reach out to them and welcome them back to our church. This is a grave responsibility to all of us.

You will see in the parish report that again this year we need to receive an average of $35,657.00 in the offertory each week to meet our budget expenses without borrowing from our savings. It is unfortunate that our expenses are higher than our income at the moment. That is why I came to you two weeks ago asking for your help. If you have not increased your contributions yet and somehow you are able to sacrifice a dollar or more to your weekly contribution, I ask you to please make that sacrifice. In that way, not only can we meet our budget, but also do more.

Since we are currently cutting back to the bone in many areas, we hope this will solve the current financial crisis. But if we continue to fall behind in financial support from the community, the only other way to trim down spending in an attempt to balance our budget would be to make a reduction in programs/ministries that have been available to our parish. This is not the path to spiritual growth! It would only serve to hurt our faith community.

I would like to thank the members of the parish Finance Council and the Pastoral Council for their hard work. Many mornings and evenings they sacrifice family time to advise the Pastor on financial and pastoral matters. Please know I am very grateful.

Most importantly, I would like to thank you all for your commitment to St. Thomas More Parish. The generosity of many parishioners has allowed this faith community to continue the mission of Christ by proclaiming the Word of God, celebrating the sacraments, and exercising the ministry of charity.

We continue to be ambitious for the Lord. He has told us “to teach...and baptize...” and to celebrate his memorial feast. We also must continue to give honor to His Holy Mother; Mary, as well as, feed the hungry, cloth the naked, visit the prisoners and care for the sick. Those who are supporting members of this parish are helping to fulfill the Lord’s commands. I encourage you to be generous with your time, talent, and treasure as together, we seek to follow the path that God has put before us. I am very grateful to all of you who have shown your kindness in this parish. This vibrant church community gets stronger every year, and the commitment of your time, talent, and treasure are vital to its success.

May the Lord Jesus bless you and keep you and those who are most dear to your heart in His loving care.

Yours In Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita
Pastor

May our community embrace them and may our word and example be a reflection of God’s love for them.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain?" In this Sunday’s Gospel, we learn the context for the forthcoming parables about the lost and found. A great mixed crowd surrounds Jesus. The religious elite are present, along with all manner of local lowlifes. The Pharisees seem a bit upset that this wasn’t the lecture series they were hoping for. Why would Jesus welcome sinners?

Jesus responds as if it’s the most obvious thing in the world. "Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep... rejoice because I have found the coin that I lost... let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine... was lost, and has been found!" Each of the parables features a dramatic example. Of 99 sheep, one has gone astray. Of 10 coins, one has gone missing. The welcomed son has previously been a covetous scoundrel. Jesus’ point to the Pharisees is clear. If the Gospel really is "good news," if our faith really has the power to save, why wouldn’t we want everyone drawing near? Why wouldn’t we do everything in our power to eke out that possibility for every single person, no matter where they have wandered? After all, if this message is not of value to everyone, why is it of value to anyone?

Our Christian faith is not a matter of rule adherence for the perfectionist elite. In our own ways, each of us is the lost sheep, the prodigal son. There is no one who "has no need of repentance." The Church is a mixed crowd. And we are mixed people. And the Gospel has good news for each of us today! There is no one Jesus doesn’t go after, no one he does not catch sight of "while... still a long way off," no one to whom he does not run to embrace and welcome home.

Today is Catechetical Sunday

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART.

This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.

Prayer For Catechists

God of our fathers and mothers, today we mark Catechetical Sunday, the day we recommit ourselves to teaching and forming disciples to continue your work in this world.

In the beginning, you created man to please you and offer you companionship. We turned away from you without knowing the great love you had for us. Help us to recapture that understanding of your love for us and for creation.

Give us wisdom to hand on to the next generation that love you freely give us.

We ask all that is good to come upon our catechetical leaders and the people whom they lead to the faith.

We ask all this in the name of the primary teacher of the faith, Jesus the Christ.

Amen.
Patients who feel supported experience less pain.

Studies show that when you feel encouragement from your doctor, it actually helps reduce pain. It’s a scientific fact that reminds us why humankindness is at the heart of everything we do at Dignity Health - St. Rose Dominican.
