Dear Friends,

Now that our Faith Formation Programs have officially started and all other groups have begun, everything is back to normal here in our community. It is great to see so many faces around the property each day. We have so many opportunities for people of all ages to get involved.

Being active in your parish community is how discipleship is shown and how we help one another and help our own spiritual well being. I hope you all explore and take advantage of what we offer here.

Next month is our Parish Festival called MORE Festivities. It is an annual event, formally known as the Parish Picnic. We changed the name to fit the event a little more accurately since we are not having it at a park this year. As I’ve mentioned before, we are hosting the event on property to save money. The planning committee has some fun things lined up and as always, it is a perfect community builder that we encourage everyone to take part in. It is important to have participation and support from all parishioners whether it is through volunteering, donating and/or attending the event. There has been some question as to why even bother to have an event if we need to watch our spending, but the simple answer is that community building is vital for our home; our parish. In the past, the event has paid for itself. My hope is that this year, it will do the same. I believe that we should come together to celebrate in good times and in bad times, so I see this Parish Festival as a great opportunity to do just that. I am personally looking forward to it, plus the weather should be really nice by then! MORE Festivities will take place on Saturday, October 12th, beginning with Mass at 4:30 PM in the Church...food and fun activities to follow.

Twenty-three years ago on September 26th, Bishop Walsh dedicated this church. A lot of parishes choose not to mark the occasion, but the anniversary of when a parish is consecrated is an impressive occasion. I was actually at the dedication of St. Thomas More. At the time, I was the official photographer for the Diocese and I actually took some of the photographs that are on display in the Community Center. I still remember part of the homily that the Bishop preached that day. It was very good and it really spoke to what this community is all about. I remember the Bishop leading everyone into the church, and step-by-step the building was consecrated for use in worship. The walls of the church are anointed with chrism, the same oil used for baptism, confirmation and for anointing the hands of a priest. The altar is also anointed and incensed—only then is cloths and candles put on the altar, to be used in the Sacrifice. "The anniversary of a church’s dedication is celebrated with the rank of a solemnity." - Roman Pontifical, Rite of Dedication of a Church (27). This means, on Thursday, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Anniversary of the Dedication of St. Thomas More. The annual celebration of a parish’s dedication outranks even most Sundays of the Church’s liturgical year. The true beauty of the Church, of course, is with the capital letter, "C," i.e., the baptized members of the Mystical Body of Christ, of which our church building is an important symbol and has an important function. It is here in this building that we are formed to be the Church living and receive His saving Sacraments. Jesus is the Head and we, the baptized, are the Body (see 1 Cor. 12:12-26). Be who you are called to be – Jesus Christ! To mark the occasion, the staff and I are thrilled to invite everyone to join us for Mass at 8:30 AM on Thursday, September 26th, followed by a breakfast reception in the Community Center.

Yours In Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita
Pastor

If this sounds like something for you, contact Jane Stofferahn at 702-458-2138!

BLOOD DRIVE UPDATE

Just over 70 individuals signed-in to donate blood and 58 total units of blood were collected. This means 174 patients had access to immediate support for their treatment. Of the persons who were able to donate: 12 were first time donors and, we also have 3 blood donor parishioners who have donated just over 50 units of blood at St. Thomas More blood drives since 2009. That equates to 12.5 Quarts of Blood to support life for over 150 persons EACH. WOW! May God bless ALL donors for your Good Samaritan Actions.

PLAYBILL: 1857 Lower Manhattan’s Five Points. Two families. The Capulets: based on the historical gang The Bowery Boys. The Montagues: based on their historical rivals The Dead Rabbits. A daughter and a son from opposing gangs. Their iconic journey of young love blossoming within their community of violence. This production breathes new life into this always relevant, always contemporary tale. Conceived and directed by Department Chair of Performing Arts, Elena Ferrante-Martín, our story is enhanced by stimulating costumes and lighting, stirring music, and intensified fight sequences. Additionally, Romeo and Juliet’s decisions to gain strength in order to take action against the anger and hatred surrounding their worlds are guided by their heavenly souls, which, beautifully enhance the production through music and dance.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. "How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty." This parable isn’t advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers over-charged and skimmed off the top.

Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we’re responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? "No servant can serve two masters." These week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"No servant can serve two masters." We struggle with where we put and give our allegiance. Who has the ultimate authority and claim over us? While our minds want to answer "God," our lives often reveal other conflicting allegiances. Because we are made in the image of God, we are not given a ticket of entitlement or privilege. On the contrary, we are given a level playing field where we are one among many and called to live just and trustworthy lives. To serve God is to serve others and to see the primary purpose and focus of our lives as being good stewards. As God lifts up the poor, so too do we. As much as we want the world and God to serve our own self advancement, we have to resist this temptation at all costs. Injustice has no place in the kingdom of God.

This program is presented as a Catholic Vision of Human Sexuality and is a very important subject. It is in response to the wishes of the Catholic Church, the Pope, our bishops, doctors, counselors and others who work with youth, that our children be taught a reverence for the precious gift from God. The program is very special in that it concentrates on the partnership of parent and teacher to present the various parts of the program in a well informed and supported framework. Your participation is an essential part of the program. We ask you be conscious of all the secular elements of our society that so strongly influence our children’s views of sexuality, relationships, commitment, etc. This program will counteract the negative elements and nurture a positive and discerning self-concept in all of our students.

We are taking sign-ups until 12/15/19 (there is no cost). Please contact Cheryl Schwarz; Director of More Youth, at cheryls@stmlv.org or call her direct line at 725-205-0606.
Patients who feel supported experience less pain.

Studies show that when you feel encouragement from your doctor, it actually helps reduce pain. It’s a scientific fact that reminds us why humankindness is at the heart of everything we do at Dignity Health - St. Rose Dominican.

Dignity Health - St. Rose Dominican, the only not-for-profit, faith based hospital system in the valley, has proudly provided healthcare services to southern Nevadans since 1947.
