KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Fellow Parishioners and Worthy Brother Knights, It seems like we just celebrated Memorial Day and two weeks from today is the 4th of July holiday. We are very appreciative that we can be together with family and friends to get back to the more "normal way of life".

Please try and support our Knights of Columbus council fireworks booth located in the Albertson's parking lot on Charleston West of the 215.

The sale will be July 2-4. The majority of the revenue will go to support our council's charitable contributions to our Parish and other local charities. All of the products sold are approved by the State of Nevada and are safe if used properly.

We all are very eager to celebrate and enjoy time with family and friends. Let us give thanks to our Lord for all the blessings we have received after many challenging months of Covid-19 restrictions. It is a great pleasure to see so many fellow Parishioners return to participate in person at Mass.

Last month our council had elections for the next fiscal year and Sam Franco will be our new Grand Knight. Sam has done a great job and done much to help our council and Parish. He is a perfect example of what a Knight of Columbus does to help all people.

He will take over as the contributor of this column starting in July.

Thanks to all for your very kind words over the past two years. Your support and prayers are very much appreciated.

Our Parish continues to grow and all new Parishioners are very welcome.

May the Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of us.

Personal Development Session in English: Michael Ruzicki

Making Disciples: A Way of Life, Not a Parish Program

September 18, 2021

We have been commissioned by Christ to cooperate with the Holy Spirit and make disciples of all nations. Before this can be done, our parishes must dedicate themselves to evangelize the evangelizers. When ministry to converts is relegated to an "RCIA team," we fail to live up to the vision that the Church has placed before us. In this session, we will examine the parish's role in nurturing a shared sense baptismal responsibility. About the Speaker

Michael Ruzicki is the Training and Events Manager at Liturgy Training Publications. He is the author of "Guide for Training Initiation Ministers: An Introduction to the RCIA" (LTP, 2018) and "Signs and Symbols of the Liturgy: An Experience of Ritual and Catechesis" (LTP, 2018) and serves as the director of music ministry at St. John Berchmans Parish in Chicago. Michael was also a team member of the North American Forum on the Catechumenate.

"If Joseph was so engaged, heart and soul, in protecting and providing for that little family at Nazareth, don't you think that now in heaven he is the same loving father and guardian of the whole Church, of all its members, as he was of its Head on earth?"

VENERABLE POPE PIUS XII

Just as Jesus and Mary entrusted themselves entirely to the care and protection of St. Joseph as the head of the Holy Family, so too can we follow their example. "Jesus, living under the roof of St. Joseph and being his Son, gave us a personal example of total entrustment to St. Joseph" (Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC).

We may be familiar with consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary, in particular the method popularized by St. Louis De Montfort which consists of 33 days of spiritual preparation. In recognition of the emphasis the Church has placed on St. Joseph in recent centuries, Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, has introduced a similar Consecration to St. Joseph complete with 33 days of readings and prayers leading up to a prayer of consecration recited on a feast day connected to St. Joseph.

What does it mean to consecrate yourself to St. Joseph?

What does it mean for a person to be consecrated to St. Joseph? Well, it basically means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely into his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God. The person who consecrates himself to St. Joseph wants to be as close to their spiritual father as possible, to the point of resembling him in virtue and holiness. Saint Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his undivided attention, protection, and guidance.

- Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC

Pope Francis has declared December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021 the year of St. Joseph.

Please join Fr. Bob, Fr. Cam and the Office Staff as we do a Parish wide Consecration to St. Joseph starting September 30, 2021 and consecrating on November 1, 2021, All Saints Day.

You can either order your books through Fr. Calloway's website which is Shop Mercy.org, or order through the Church office at a discounted price of $12.00 no later than August 1, 2021.

Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Ordinarily the Church observes the day of a saint's death as his feast, because that day marks his entrance into heaven. To this rule there are two notable exceptions, the birthdays of Blessed Mary and of St. John the Baptist. All other persons were stained with original sin at birth, hence, were displeasing to God. But Mary, already in the first moment of her existence, was free from original sin (for which reason even her very conception is commemorated by a special feast), and John was cleansed of original sin in the womb of his mother. This is the dogmatic justification for the feast. In the breviary St. Augustine explains the reason for the observance in the following words:

"Apart from the most holy solemnity commemorating our Savior's birth, the Church keeps the birthday of no other person except that of John the Baptist. [The feasts of the Immaculate Conception and of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin had not yet been introduced.] In the case of other saints or of God's chosen ones, the Church, as you know, solemnizes the day on which they were reborn to everlasting beatitude after ending the trials of this life and gloriously triumphing over the world.

"For all these the final day of their lives, the day on which they completed their earthly service is honored. But for John the day of his birth, the day on which he began this mortal life is likewise sacred. The reason for this is, of course, that the Lord willed to announce to men His own coming through the Baptist, lest if He appeared suddenly, they would fail to recognize Him. John represented the Old Covenant and the Law. Therefore he preceded the Redeemer, even as the Law preceded and heralded the new dispensation of grace."

In other words, today's feast anticipates the feast of Christmas. Taking an overall view, we keep during the course of the year only two mysteries, that of Christ's Incarnation and that of His Redemption. The Redemption mystery is the greater of the two; the Incarnation touches the human heart more directly. To the Redemption mystery the entire Easter season is devoted, from Septuagesima until Pentecost; and likewise every Sunday of the year, because Sunday is Easter in miniature.

The Christmas season has for its object the mystery of God-become-Man, to which there is reference only now and then during the remaining part of the year, e.g., on Marian feasts, especially that of the Annunciation (March 25) and today's feast in honor of the Baptist. In a sense, then, we are celebrating Christ's incarnation today. The birth of Jesus is observed on December 25 at the time of the winter solstice, while the birth of His forerunner is observed six months earlier at the time of the summer solstice. Christmas is a "light" feast; the same is true today. The popular custom centering about "St. John's Fire" stems from soundest Christian dogma and could well be given renewed attention. St. John's Fire symbolizes Christ the Light; John was a lamp that burned and shone. We Christians should be the light of the world.
