Brother Knights and Fellow Parishioners,

We received our checks to distribute from the donations received during the Tootsie Roll Drive. The donations benefit those who suffer from intellectual disabilities. Our State Council gave 20% of our collections to Special Olympics. The remaining 80% was divided by the two charities of our council's choice: Spirit Therapies and Paradise Ranch. Once again, thank you to all who participated in collecting and donating. I will present the checks to the respective charities in February.

We are always greatly appreciative to all council members and parishioners who support our charitable events. We are in the midst of our Seminarian Raffle Ticket sales event. The proceeds benefit our Seminarians throughout the state. Please contact a council officer to find out how to get tickets to sell. The State goal is to raise over $38,000 to give to Bishop George Leo Thomas to support our Seminarians. The drawing will be pulled at our State Convention here in Las Vegas in mid-May.

As always, your efforts are greatly appreciated. May God give you strength and protect you from all evil!

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On the weekend of January 22 and 23, 2022, our Diocese will take up a collection for the Church in Latin America and in Central and Eastern Europe.

This collection enables us to share and strengthen the faith of those who live in poverty in the remote Andean regions of Peru as well as to our brothers and sisters in Armenia who have experienced religious persecution in their history and are coping with difficult circumstances isolated from their Catholic heritage.

Your support in this collection for the Church in Latin America and in Central and Eastern Europe helps provide the means for rebuilding churches, strengthening seminary programs, and offering religious education to children and families. In this New Year 2022, please be generous in your missionary outreach to our brothers and sisters in the faith, living in these diverse parts of the world.

Thank you, and may the Lord bless you for your generosity and faith.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Bishop of the Diocese of Las Vegas

The Conversion of St. Paul Feast January 25th

St. Paul, named Saul at his circumcision, a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, was born at Tarsus, the capitol of Cilicia. He was a Roman citizen. He was brought up as a strict Jew, and later became a violent persecutor of the Christians. While on his way to Damascus to make new arrests of Christians, he was suddenly converted by a miraculous apparition of Our Lord. From a fierce persecutor he became the great Apostle of the Gentiles. He made three missionary journeys which brought him to the great centers of Asia Minor and southern Europe, and made many converts. Fourteen of his Epistles are found in the New Testament. He was beheaded in Rome around 66 A.D., and his relics are in the Basilica of St. Paul

Outside-the-Walls near the Ostian Way.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Gracious God, when we think that all roads are blocked, and we fall into despair, we always find you there. We find you creating a new path before us, one that we did not expect. We thank you because your creative paths open up unforeseen possibilities. Help us to always find you, who lead us yet by a more excellent way. We pray through Jesus Christ our Lord, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, that you will always lead us back to you. Amen.

Liturgical Catechesis

By: Bill Freeman, Director of Music & Liturgy

In last week's bulletin, we talked about the impact of song lyrics and why it is so critical that the songs we sing at Mass are Catholic. Just as we expect our priest's homilies to be filled with Catholic teaching, and not ideas that are schismatic or heretical, schismatic or heretical song lyrics have no place in a Catholic Mass. Over the past two weeks, we have talked about the Holy Father's recent motu proprio that calls for stricter adherence to the liturgical documents promulgated from Vatican II.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, or GIRM, is one of those books. The best analogy that I can make about what the GIRM is is that it is essentially the "playbook" or "script" of the Mass. The GIRM stipulates precisely how Mass is to be celebrated, the order in which it is to be celebrated, and what is permissible. The Catholic Mass is filled with symbolism that has transcended the last 2000 years. This symbolism is greatly lost when it has never been explicitly taught to the pew going Catholic during the formative years or, as is the case in many parishes, is greatly deviated from.

Prior to serving as Pope, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI served as the head of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. The oldest congregation in the Roman Curia, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith is responsible for promulgating and defending Catholic doctrine including liturgical abuses. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI brought his experiences from his prior assignment into the papacy. In his 2007 apostolic exhortation Sacramentum caritatis, he wrote:

THE EUCHARISTIC CELEBRATION IS ENHANCED WHEN PRIESTS AND LITURGICAL LEADERS ARE COMMITTED TO MAKING KNOWN THE CURRENT LITURGICAL TEXTS AND NORMS, MAKING AVAILABLE THE GREAT RICHES FOUND IN THE GENERAL INSTRUCTION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL AND THE ORDER OF READINGS FOR MASS. PERHAPS WE TAKE IT FOR GRANTED THAT OUR ECCLESIAL COMMUNITIES ALREADY KNOW AND APPRECIATE THESE RESOURCES, BUT THIS IS NOT ALWAYS THE CASE. THESE TEXTS CONTAIN RICHES WHICH HAVE PRESERVED AND EXPRESSED THE FAITH AND EXPERIENCE OF THE PEOPLE OF GOD OVER ITS TWO-THOUSAND-YEAR HISTORY.

We can see from this, and Pope Francis' recent comments, that both men feel strongly about following the books promulgated by the Second Vatican Council. In last week's article, I shared how as a parish we have started to become more thoughtful, prayerful, and reverent in our communal celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. One way that we have done that is by singing the antiphons at all of our liturgies. The GIRM gives four options for what can be sung during the entrance, offertory, and Communion. Three of these four options are antiphons.

So what exactly is an antiphon? Antiphons are said to have originated with Pope Celestine I around 432 AD. Since the Council of Trent (1545-1563), the antiphon has been shortened to be sung before and after the Psalm. Over the past year, I've had a lot of people tell me that they feel like we're singing a lot more Psalms, which has really increased their spiritual experience at Mass and improved their knowledge of this sacred Scripture, and they thank our parish liturgy team for making this a reality. I often joke with them that David's Psalms are the original "praise and worship" songs. In all seriousness, the reality is that we are simply doing our job and what the Holy Mother Church asks of all of us, especially those in a position to affect change.

One common misconception is that antiphons are strictly chants. While the Second Vatican Council through the Constitution on Sacred Liturgy and subsequent teachings from Vatican II explicitly tell us that chant is the most suitable form of music for the Catholic Church, Vatican II purposefully opened the door to allow other forms of music to coexist alongside chant. The actuality of what happened is that the primary form of musical expression, chant, and organ, have largely been discarded - contrary to Vatican II. This has resulted in several generations believing that Vatican II "banned" these things or that the Church mandates that only "feel good" music be sung (often cited by those leaving the Church for some other Christian denomination), which is categorically false and a gross misrepresentation.

While chant is the primary form of musical expression, it is most certainly not the only form. The antiphon collection we currently use has texts from both the Roman Missal and the Graduale Romanum, two of the four options listed in the GIRM, and uses a metrical refrain with a "classical" sound with chanted verses. Basically, the same stylistic format of the Responsorial Psalm that we have been singing for years. There are some newer collections coming out from "contemporary-style" and other "traditional-style" composers that we will be integrating in the coming months.

As a music team, we wanted to be very deliberate in our introduction of antiphons. We knew that for some the move would be substantial. We knew that for others, it might be completely unwanted. We also knew that for others, it would be very welcome. Ultimately the move came about as we realized that our parish had much room to grow in coming more in line with Vatican II.

This coming Easter will be our second anniversary of using the antiphons - in one way or another - at most of our Masses. As we move into year three, expect new sounds. We'll be singing the same old texts, but with different music that will allow us more variety. If you are someone that prefers the more "solemn" and "traditional" sound, please know that our 4 PM Mass on Sunday will continue in much the same way that it has been.

By virtue of our Baptism, we are all called to exit our comfort zones and strive to become better disciples of Christ. As a member of this parish family, I'm just glad and grateful to be along for the ride beside you.

Over the coming weeks, you will notice that we will be introducing a new Ordinary of the Mass. What is the Ordinary? These are the parts of the Mass that we use (almost) every week: Gloria, Gospel Acclamation, Sanctus, Memorial Acclamation, Great Amen, and Lamb of God.

We will be using Fr. Ricky Manalo's Mass of Spirit and Grace. Fr. Ricky Manalo, CSP, Ph.D. is a Paulist priest and a liturgical composer, currently teaching at Santa Clara University in the Bay Area. As a priest of Filipino heritage, he is known for pioneering and popularizing Asian Catholic liturgical music in the United States with his hymns. He studied at the prestigious Manhattan School of Music.

This particular setting was selected because it can be done up with organ and orchestra or in a more contemporary piano and guitar style. It also shares similar harmonic and rhythmic structure to Tony Alonso's Mass of Joy and Peace, which is the primary setting that we use aside from the Latin chants found in the Roman Missal. The 4 PM Sunday Mass will continue to use the Latin chants found in the Missal.

We used his multilingual intercessions that included English, Spanish, Tagalog, and Latin from this Mass during the Christmas season. To learn more about this Mass, and listen to a recording of it, please visit our website.

While many parishes choose to only use Latin chants during Advent and Lent, we use the Latin chants found in the Roman Missal seven days a week at our weekday and 4 PM Sunday liturgies. We just started on this journey with Fr. Manalo's piece, and will be using it until at least Palm Sunday and possibly until Corpus Christi in June. The 4 PM Sunday Mass will continue to use the Latin chants found in the Missal.

We appreciate your patience and grace as we make this transition.

For a synodal Church

Pope Francis has called the world Church into Synod. Preparations for it begin now and will culminate in the Bishops of the world gathering in Synod at Rome in 2023.

The theme of this synod is "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission" By convening this Synod, Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium. Following in the wake of the renewal of the Church proposed by the Second Vatican Council, this common journey together is both a gift and a task." The objective of the current Synod is to listen, as the entire People of God, to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church.....the whole Synod Process aims at fostering a lived experience of discernment, participation, and co-responsibility. Synods are a time to dream and "spend time with the future". We are encouraged: to express an innovative outlook; to be inclusive; to keep an open mind; to listen to each and every one; to capture an understanding of journeying together; and, to value and involve the role and vocation of each member of the Body of Christ.

ADSUMUS SANCTE SPIRITUS

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

- This prayer has been prayed for hundreds of years before Councils, Synods, and other meetings of the Church. It is attributed to Saint Isidore of Seville (c. 560 - 4 April 636).

Saints of the Week

St. Frances de Sales - January 24

His ardent love of God and souls, his great kindness, rare wisdom and sure teaching made St. Francis exceptionally influential in bringing about conversions and in guiding souls in the spiritual life. He won back to the faith more than 70,000 heretics, thus restoring to the Church a great part of the Chablais, which had been ravaged by Protestantism. He was St. Jane de Chantal's spiritual director, and with her founded the Order of the Visitation. He is the author of Treatise on the Love of God and Introduction to the Devout Life. St. Francis died at Lyons in 1622.

St. Timothy and St. Titus - January 26

St. Timothy, born in Galatia in Asia Minor, was baptized and later ordained to the priesthood by St. Paul. The young Galatian became Paul's missionary companion and his most beloved spiritual son. St. Paul showed his trust in this disciple by consecrating him bishop of the great city of Ephesus. St. Timothy was stoned to death thirty years after St. Paul's martyrdom for having denounced the worship of the goddess Diana.

St. Titus, a convert from paganism, was a fellow laborer of St. Paul on many apostolic missions. St. Paul later made him bishop of Crete, a difficult charge because of the character of the inhabitants and the spread of erroneous doctrines on that island. St. Paul's writings tell us that St. Titus rejoiced to discover what was good in others and drew the hearts of men by his wide and affectionate sympathy.

St. Thomas Aquinas - January 28

St. Thomas Aquinas is the Dominican order's greatest glory. He taught philosophy and theology with such genius that he is considered one of the leading Christian thinkers. His innocence, on a par with his genius, earned for him the title of "Angelic Doctor."

CONFRATERNITY OF ST. JOSEPH'S MENS GROUP!

St. Anthony of Padua is proud to present a new ministry for the men in our parish, The Confraternity of St. Joseph!

The mission of the Confraternity of St. Joseph is to inspire, transform, and build up the men in the parish by forming them upon the foundation of Jesus Christ. Using St. Joseph as our model and as well as participating in conferences, brotherhood, and spiritual exercises, the men of the parish will be built up to live out in the spirit of mission, and they will come to know, love, and serve God.

This group is made for men 18 years and older and will be a great way for men to grow spiritually, intellectually, and pastorally.

We will be starting in late February, but expect more information to be coming out soon. If you have any questions please email Ivan Lara at: ivanl@saplv.com
