In today’s Gospel Jesus challenges us to “stay awake” by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives and how we are growing spiritually. Ask yourself “What would Jesus Christ do?” and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús nos desafía a “mantenernos despiertos” tomando tiempo para seriamente vernos a nosotros mismos, las prioridades de nuestras vidas y como estamos creciendo espiritualmente. Pregúntate a ti mismo “¿Qué haría Jesús?” Y luego pon tu regalo en la Caja Pobre de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl en nuestra parroquia para que aquellos que están sufriendo podrán celebrar la Fiesta de Acción de Gracias.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR
UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA
ESCRITURA

12 de Noviembre 2023
32º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

No podemos detener el tiempo y éste pasa volando, los días se van aprisa y los años vuelan. A veces nos preguntamos: ¿Qué fue lo que hice hoy? ¿Qué he hecho en los años que he vivido? La respuesta puede variar, quizá hemos aprovechado todo en la vida, o quizá no hemos logrado todo lo que hubiéramos querido. Pero, hoy, el Evangelio no invita a estar prevenidos, a estar bien preparados. Nos invita a comenzar de nuevo y llenar nuestra alcuza de aceite con actitudes y valores de acuerdo al Evangelio. A tener esperanza, a estar despiertos para cuando llegue la hora.

“Ser sabios y prudentes significa no esperar hasta el último momento para corresponder a la gracia de Dios, sino hacerlo activamente de inmediato, empezar ahora. [...] Si queremos estar preparados para el último encuentro con el Señor, debemos cooperar con él a partir de ahora y realizar buenas acciones inspiradas en su amor” (Papa Francisco 11-08-2020). Si notamos en la parábola, todas las vírgenes se despertaron al escuchar el aviso de que llegaba el novio. Todas ellas deseaban participar en el banquete. Sin embargo, solo las prudentes estaban listas para disfrutar de la boda. Señor, ayúdame, a vivir preparado en todo, que siempre esté listo con buenas obras y tenga tiempo para esperar tu llamada. Actualmente, ¿cómo me preparo para acudir al banquete de la Eucaristía? Estoy puntual, y listo para participar.

Immaculate Conception Catholic School

This week's school report highlights the patron saints of the third and fourth grade classes at ICCS. The third grade class selected St. Philip Neri to encourage joy, laughter and friendship in their class. He is, after all, the patron saint of humor and joy. David Vasques, a third grader, pointed out that St. Philip Neri is considered the Second Apostle of Rome, after St. Peter and that he was born in Florence, Italy.

St. Joseph is the patron saint of the fourth grade class. He was chosen because he is a model of obedience, and the school was originally named St. Joseph Catholic School. Fourth grader Addie Duggan knows that Joseph was a carpenter and the foster father of Jesus. She also related that some people believe that St. Joseph built a floating staircase in a church somewhere in Mexico. Sophie Walther, another fourth grade student, remembers that Joseph wasn't a talkative man, but he was a loving father.

Next week you'll learn about the patron saints of the fifth and sixth grade classes. Please continue to pray for all of the students.

Escuela Católica Inmaculada Concepción

El informe escolar de esta semana destaca a los santos patronos de las clases de tercer y cuarto grado de la Escuela Católica Inmaculada Concepción. La clase de tercer grado seleccionó a San Felipe Neri para fomentar la alegría, la risa y la amistad en su clase. Después de todo, es el santo patrón del humor y la alegría. David Vasques, alumno de tercer grado, señaló que San Felipe Neri es considerado el Segundo Apóstol de Roma, después de San Pedro, y que nació en Florencia, Italia.

San José es el santo patrón de la clase de cuarto grado. Fue elegido porque es un modelo de obediencia y la escuela originalmente se llamaba Escuela Católica St. Joseph. Addie Duggan, estudiante de cuarto grado, sabe que José era carpintero y el padre adoptivo de Jesús. También relató que algunas personas creen que San José construyó una escalera flotante en una iglesia en algún lugar de Nuevo México. Sophie Walther, otra estudiante de cuarto grado, recuerda que San José no era un hombre hablador, pero era un padre amoroso.

La próxima semana aprenderán sobre los santos patronos de las clases de quinto y sexto grado. Por favor continúe orando por todos los estudiantes.

PLEASE R.S.V.P. TO THE PARISH OFFICE
BY NOVEMBER 27TH.
THANK YOU!

Why Processions? Catholic processions are a form of pilgrimage first undertaken by the Jews to represent important historical events. Catholics have developed many processions for special occasions to remind us that the Christian life is a constant movement toward God and our eternal home.

Christ the King Procession

All groups and ministries of the parish are invited to join us once again in our Christ the King Procession. If you are interested in preparing an altar for Nov. 26th after the 11:00am Mass, please call the Parish Office.

Blessings, Sister Maria Magdalena
