Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life.
We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons
and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters.
Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen

Message from Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

The third Sunday of Advent has as its theme joy: “Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice!” We should rejoice because Christmas is near; that is the message indeed. However, our joy comes because the Lord has had pity on us. He has not been discouraged by our sin and our waywardness, but has decided not only to be compassionate with us, but to live with us. By becoming incarnate, Jesus Christ has spoused our human nature with his divine nature in his person. That is a definitive decision! That is also the reason for our joy. And through that fallen human nature of ours, the Lord has wanted to give us salvation. This great news is what comprises Christmas and the mystery of the Lord’s nativity. Just as God gives us motive for joy, we should look to experience that joy by growing ever closer to Him and experience deeply in this coming Christmas the gift of Himself.

Blessings to you and to each member of your family, especially during the Advent Season. Sincerely your brother and servant in the priesthood of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Mensaje de Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

El tercer domingo de Adviento tiene como tema la alegría: “Alégrense siempre en el Señor; se lo repito: ¡alégrense!" Debemos alegrarnos porque la Navidad está cerca; ese es el mensaje de hecho. Sin embargo, nuestro gozo viene porque el Señor se ha compadecido de nosotros. No se ha desanimado por nuestro pecado y nuestro descarrío. Ha decidido no solo ser compasivo con nosotros, sino también vivir con nosotros. Al encarnarse, Jesucristo unió nuestra naturaleza humana con su naturaleza divina en su persona. ¡Esa es una decisión definitiva! Ese es también el motivo de nuestra alegría. Y a través de nuestra naturaleza humana caída, el Señor ha querido darnos la salvación. Esta gran noticia es lo que comprende la Navidad y el misterio del nacimiento del Señor. Así como Dios nos da motivos para el gozo, debemos buscar ese gozo acercándonos cada vez más a Él en esta Navidad el don de Él mismo.

Bendiciones para usted y para cada miembro de su familia, especialmente durante la temporada de Adviento. Sinceramente su hermano y siervo en el sacerdocio de Jesucristo,

P. Rodolfo Caballero

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY

Dr. Gonzalez offers counseling services at the Parish Office Evenings 5:30PM—7:00PM.

Dr. Gonzalez earned her B.A. in Psychology from the University of Texas at San Antonio, her M.A. in Clinical Psychology from St. Mary's University and her Psy.D. (Doctorate in Psychology) from Our Lady of the Lake University. She completed her Clinical Psychology Internship and Residency Training Program at the University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio, Department of Psychiatry. She has worked in psychological and counseling services in a wide variety of settings since 1990.

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She will be providing individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, please call the Parish Office at 210-497-4200

From The Archbishop: Living as a Synodal Church

We are blessed to journey together as a listening Church! We are pleased to present to you the video presentations from our Synodal Journey since September. In this presentation, Sr. Teresa Maya invites each of us to remember that "Listening is the fundamental stance of the synodal process." As we continue this journey of walking together as a Synodal Church let us listen to the authentic questions and needs of our local Church.

To find more info about the Synodal process in the Archdiocese, visit our resources and video messages pages on our Synod website: www.archsa.org/synod

THE DIVINE MERCY

Weekly Message/Mensaje Semanal

For General Information please contact: Ernesto Brux 843-730-3134

During one of the adorations, Jesus promised me that: With souls that have recourse to My mercy and with those that glorify and proclaim My great mercy to others, I will deal according to My infinite mercy at the hour of their death. My Heart is sorrowful, Jesus said, because even chosen souls do not understand the greatness of My mercy. Their relationship [with Me] is, in certain ways, imbued with mistrust. Oh, how much that wounds My Heart! Remember My Passion, and if you do not believe My words, at least believe My wounds. (#379)

Durante una adoración Jesús me prometió: Con las almas que recurran a Mi misericordia y con las almas que glorifiquen y proclamen Mi gran misericordia a los demás, en la hora de la muerte Me comportaré según Mi infinita misericordia.
Mi Corazón sufre, continuaba Jesús, a causa de que ni las almas elegidas entienden lo grande que es Mi misericordia; en su relación [conmigo] en cierto modo hay desconfianza. Oh, cuanto esto hiere mi Corazón. Recuerden Mi Pasión, y si no creéis en Mis palabras, creed al menos en Mis llagas. (#379)

Divorced & Separated Ministry

FAUX TRUST

Often, I find myself asking our Lord to help me with a problem, or to grant a certain outcome. I put all my trust in Him that He will grant my request. After all, I know that He loves me and wants what is best for me. Who better to know what is best for me, than me, right? Wrong. Putting my trust in God that He will do what I want, is not real trust. It is what I call "faux trust." It is easy to twist in our minds our understanding of God's omnipotent love into thinking that we can bank on Him to come through in our every request.

Real trust is putting our difficulties, problems, and circumstances into God's hands and trusting Him with the outcome--whatever that might be. It is the not knowing, yet being ready to accept whatever God wants, that is the real deal when it comes to trust. Often, it is much more difficult, and much less natural, for us to really trust. We much prefer God to be our genie who can grant our wishes. However, when we trust God with HIS outcome, our life begins to take on God's design, instead of our own. And, that, is always going to lead to abundant peace and joy.

Then all who trust in you will be glad and forever shout for joy. - Psalm 5:12

Christ Caring for People Though People

Are you experiencing the pain of loss from the death of a loved one, from a marriage that is in crisis, from a promise that has been broken, or from a job that is no longer there, from a child that is in distress, from a diagnosis of cancer of other life-changing illness? Perhaps you are feeling overwhelmed by caring for an aging parent or someone else who needs your constant care. Are you struggling to see God in all of your pain? Then consider that having a Stephen Minister to walk with you may be just what you need.

What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. They maintain confidentiality, they attend to the caregiving process and they trust that God will provide the cure with His healing love. We are called to be Christ caring for one another.

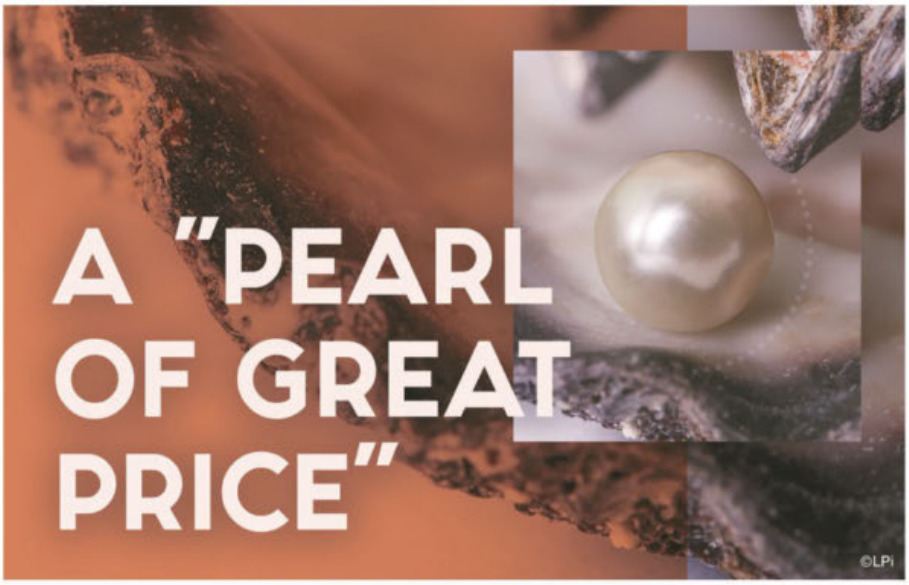
So, to anyone who is going through a difficult time, please don't suffer alone! Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and help you through your difficult time. To find out more call Norma Garza, 210 379-7874 or email her at normalydia@gmail.com. We are happy to answer any questions you might have. Remember, our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." —Matthew 11:28

STEPHEN MINISTRIES

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"From silly devotions and sour-faced saints, good Lord, deliver us!" St. Teresa of Avila



We've all heard the adage, "Laughter is the best medicine." In many ways, it really is. When was the last time you really laughed? The gift of imagination allows us to see possible things that are yet to be. Imagine a world filled with laughter. We take life too seriously sometimes. Fear, uncertainty, pressure, negativity, disappointment, and myriad other human experiences can rob us of the joy needed for laughter. God never promised us an easy road, and we do have to take the course of our lives seriously. However, there is a balance to be sought and a possible joy that can be brought even to the darkest and most challenging of encounters.

St. Therese of Lisieux reminds us that, "Joy is not found in the material objects surrounding us but in the inner recesses of the soul. One can possess joy in a prison cell as well as in a palace." Falling in love with God, who is present in all of creation, allows us to bring a depth of understanding to everything we do and experience. We can more easily see above and beyond things while pursuing the only One who can truly satisfy our hearts. When we realize that God, the king of Israel, is in our midst and with us, there is no further misfortune to fear. We can celebrate the wonder and beauty of God's gift of joy. It is no wonder that many saints radiate joy and have no reservations expressing laughter. They are happy because they have found a pearl of great price.

We celebrate with joy today with hearts filled with expectation, wonder, awe, and beauty as we ready ourselves, even more excitedly, for the coming of our Savior. Do not fear and do not be discouraged. If you haven't laughed in a while, why? Something is preventing you from expressing the magnificence of your soul and the presence of God who dwells within. God's power and presence within us assures us that we are loved and kept in that presence. What more is really needed? Rejoice and laugh in the presence of God! It really is the best medicine and a most perfect way to convince others that God is really with us. "Go ahead, laugh! Live your life with joy and serve the Lord with laughter! Joy, with peace, is the sister of charity. Serve the Lord with laughter." (St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina)

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16

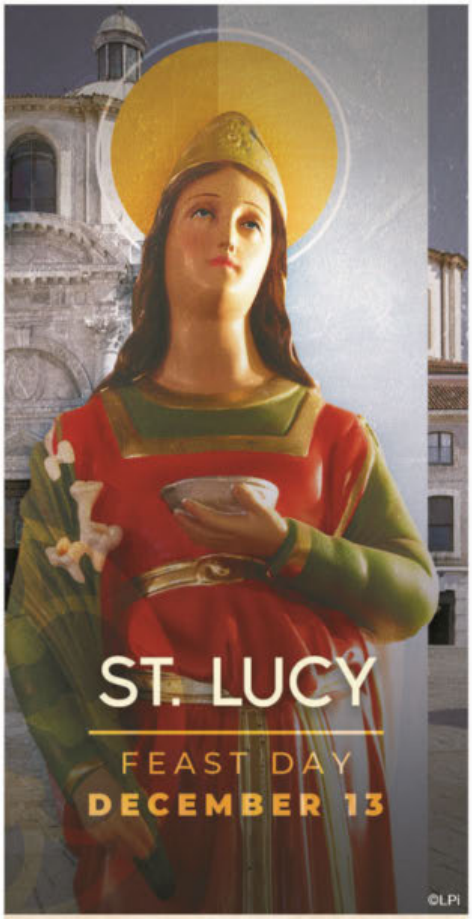
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Shout for joy! When was the last time you ever felt like doing that? Fear, uncertainty, pressure, negativity, disappointment, and myriad other human experiences can rob us of joy. We can never predict what life will bring. As unsettling as that can often seem, life's unpredictability is also the very thing that allows it to be exciting and adventuresome! We know that life can be difficult, and it is unrealistic to expect it to be otherwise. God never promised an easy road. But, when a person truly falls in love with God and discovers the peacefulness and assurance of God's presence, then a depth of understanding will be brought to everything they do and experience. Nothing will be able to rob them of joy! When we realize that God, the King of Israel, is in our midst and with us, there is no further misfortune to fear. We celebrate the beauty and wonder of God's gift of joy today as we ready ourselves, even more excitedly, for the coming of our Savior. Do not fear and do not be discouraged. There is a power and presence within us, our God, who has made us, who loves us and who will keep us. What more do we need? Rejoice!



SAINT OF THE WEEK

A name that means "light," St. Lucy (283 – 304) is the patron saint of those blind or suffering with eye trouble. Not much is known about her life, except that she was determined to remain a virgin and thus refused marriage. History tells the story of a frustrated suitor who eventually accused St. Lucy of being a Christian (at crime at the time), and she was executed in Syracuse, Sicily, in the year 304.

Today, we celebrate a number of traditions that incorporate symbolic meaning of St. Lucy as the "bearer" of light in the darkness of winter. This is particularly seen in Scandinavian countries, with their long dark winters. There, a young girl dressed in a white dress and a red sash (as the symbol of martyrdom) carries palms and wears a crown or wreath of candles on her head. In Denmark, Norway and Sweden, girls dressed as Lucy carry rolls and cookies in procession as songs are sung.
