3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13:2-3

Jesús les hizo este comentario: "¿Piensan ustedes que aquellos galileos, porque les sucedió esto, eran más pecadores que todos los demás galileos? Ciertamente que no; y si ustedes no se arrepienten, perecerán de manera semejante". - Lc 13, 2-3

Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life. We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters. Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Message from Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Dear sisters and brothers in the Lord:

In this third Sunday of Lent, we read about the first experience that Moses had with the Lord. There was first some curiosity, then a dialogue, then a petition and, finally, an answer: "yes I will go". We can say that it is a description of God's call to our soul: there is interest to grow, then the call or petition until we surrender to God. He has given us so many gifts that He wants us to use them in service of His Church and of others. He expects from us to give fruit. What is our answer to the Lord? May this Lenten Season become a moment in which we recall our first call to be close to our God, so that we may renew it in our present and once again say, "Yes Lord, I will go wherever you ask me to go".

Blessings to you and each member of your family, especially the ill and the elderly. Your brother and servant in the priesthood of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Mensaje de Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en el Señor:

En este tercer domingo de Cuaresma, leemos sobre la primera experiencia que Moisés tuvo con el Señor. Primero hubo algo de curiosidad, luego un diálogo, después una petición y, finalmente, una respuesta: "Sí, iré". Podemos decir que es una descripción de la llamada de Dios a nuestra alma: hay interés por crecer, luego la llamada o petición hasta que nos entregamos a Dios. Él nos ha dado tantos dones que quiere que los utilicemos al servicio de su Iglesia y de los demás. Espera de nosotros que demos fruto. ¿Cuál es nuestra respuesta al Señor? Que este tiempo de Cuaresma se convierta en un momento en el que recordemos nuestra primera llamada a estar cerca de nuestro Dios, para que la renovemos en nuestro presente y volvamos a decir: "Sí, Señor, iré a donde me pidas".

Bendiciones para ti y para cada miembro de tu familia, especialmente para los enfermos y los ancianos. Su hermano y servidor en el sacerdocio de Jesucristo,

P. Rodolfo Caballero

The Oldest Ancient Relic in the World The Shroud of Turin

Please join us to learn what the Shroud of Turin teaches us about the Passion of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The Shroud of Turin is the most studied relic in the history of Christianity. Mysteriously imprinted on the cloth is an image of a man who has been severely beaten and crucified in the manner described in the Gospels.

In 2010 Deacon Tom & Mary Jane Fox led two pilgrimages to Turin, Italy, to view this remarkable relic during its rare public exhibition. Mary Jane Fox & Ralph Paglia are offering a presentation for all on the story of the Shroud.

Saint Joseph urged me to have a constant devotion to him. He himself told me to recite three prayers, (the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be) and the Memorare once every day. He looked at me with great kindness and gave me to know how much he is supporting this work [of mercy]. He has promised me this special help and protection. I recite the requested prayers every day and feel his special protection. (#1203)

San Jose me pidió tenerle una devoción constante. El mismo me dijo que rezara diariamente tres oraciones (el Padre Nuestro, Ave Maria, y el Gloria) y el Memorare una vez al día. Me miró con gran bondad y me explicó lo mucho que está apoyando esta obra. Me prometió su especialísima ayuda y protección. Rezo diariamente las oraciones pedidas y siento su protección especial. LIVING AS A SYNODAL CHURCH
COMMUNION. PARTICIPATION. MISSION.

A Listening Church Video Campaign

Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller, M.Sp.S., desires that the voices of lay faithful be heard as a testament of fellowship and hope for the discernment of the vision for the local Church for years to come. The archdiocese will use its social media outlets to feature a number of submissions to showcase why it is important to participate in the synodal process in our communities.

WE INVITE YOU TO SUBMIT ONE VIDEO REFLECTION OF UP TO 2-MINUTES (ENGLISH OR SPANISH, IT'S UP TO YOU!)

Make your message exciting, fun, and spiritually driven. You are asked to reflect on the following ideas/questions:

1. Why is it important for me to participate in this Synodal Process or a Synodal Encounter in my group or parish community?
2. If someone has decided already not to participate, why should he/she reconsider and give the process a chance?

For more information visit our website here or contact:

Divorced & Separated Ministry TRANQUILITY

"I hope she rots in Hell!" I screamed at God at the top of my lungs as I drove to work. I had just gotten done listening to my former spouse's rationale on how our divorce would actually be "good for the kids." I was so angry and hurt over the pain and distress I knew the divorce would shove into our innocent kids' lives. They didn't deserve it, and I felt so helpless to stop it. Too worked up to actually work, I decided to make a detour to my parish church. It was the only place I could go for peace and quiet. Plus, I knew I would not have to talk to anyone there; I could just be by myself for a while. When I arrived, Mass had just started. I slipped into the back and sat there numbly participating. As I walked up to receive communion, I hoped that no one would notice the tears welling up in my eyes. I couldn't help it. The divorce was shattering not only my life, but my kids' lives as well. It was not fair! After receiving the Eucharist, I made it back to my pew and knelt to pray. I didn't have any words. I just knelt and cried. Slowly, a strange feeling of peace filled me. It felt odd. It was such a contradiction to how I was feeling when I walked in. I got a real sense that, despite the storm raging around me, I was safe. It was comforting. I made this trip to Mass part of my morning routine. I looked forward to it each day. It was my port from the storm of divorce. Receiving the Eucharist gave me a tranquility that I desperately needed. Christ became the source of my strength at a time when I had none. Out of my desperation, I was reminded of the greatest gift available to Catholics: Jesus Christ fully present in the Eucharist. He is real. He is there. Receive him as often as possible.

Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand. - Isaiah 41:10

CHRIST CARING FOR PEOPLE THROUGH PEOPLE

Are you experiencing the pain of loss from the death of a loved one, from a marriage that is in crisis, from a promise that has been broken, or from a job that is no longer there, from a child that is in distress, from a diagnosis of cancer or other life-changing illness? Perhaps you are feeling overwhelmed by caring for an aging parent or someone else who needs your constant care. Are you struggling to see God in all of your pain? Then consider that having a Stephen Minister to walk with you may be just what you need. What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. They maintain confidentiality, they attend to the caregiving process and they trust that God will provide the cure with His healing love. We are called to be Christ caring for one another.

So, to anyone who is going through a difficult time, please don't suffer alone! Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and help you through your difficult time. To find out more call Norma Garza, 210 379-7874. We are happy to answer any questions you might have. Remember, our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." —Matthew 11:28

Prayer for a Marriage in Crisis

Almighty God, ruler of all things, up until today, I have been drowning in my crisis unable to see You and the good You can do with all this mess. Since You are ruler of all things, today I declare that You are ruler of my suffering, ruler of my crisis. No longer will I allow my struggles to define me, but instead, I will allow you and your goodness to define my struggles. No longer will I let my crisis bring out the worst in me, but instead I will allow You to use my crisis to bring out Your best in me. Help me to remember that the difficulties in my life are not about me but about You. Everything for Your glory!
Amen!

Pray Up Your Marriage!

Unleash the Power of Prayer in your Marriage!

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE FEBRUARY 7, 2022
HOLY TRINITY PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC) MEETING

MEMBERS PRESENT: Father Rodolfo Caballero, Father Ed Gonzales, Deacon Ricardo Serdan, Jim Rodriguez, Ivonne Martinez, Elias Harrington, Ward Morton, Paula Hilliard, Chuma Ozowalu, Julie Seguin, Sylvester Johnson, Jessenia Enriquez, Cathy Rasmussen, Manny San Miguel, David Knott, Marcus Vigil, Beth Roberts, Roberto Navarro

EXCUSED: Jane Reed

GUEST: Grace-Valerie Faubion, Ministry Director HTCC

OPENING PRAYER: Ward Morton

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: January 10, 2022 PPC Meeting, Approved

OLD BUSINESS:

Young adult members, Jessenia and David, were welcomed.

Grace-Valerie Faubion updated the PPC on the Synod on Synodality and the archdiocesan approach of natural conversation between a parish and its pastor. Ministries may wish to invite Grace or Father Rodolfo to attend a meeting as part of the meeting agenda for conversation. Other aspects of the "listening church" were discussed.

PPC members received a brief report on the award ceremony for Lumen Gentium award recipients, including our parish's, Guy and Gina Kukla.

NEW BUSINESS:

Marcus will be presenting us with a confidentiality statement.

Lent 2022 events were described by Grace. These events aim to draw our focus toward the Holy Eucharist. A one day retreat, an exposition, Knights of Columbus Fish Fridays, another 5 week Bible Study "workshop" and much more is planned.

Input was given by members on various aspects of the parish and the purposes of the Parish Council were reiterated, so that we can focus on the essentials and not distractions as we build our family of faith.

CLOSING PRAYER: Elias Harrington

NEXT MEETING: March 7, 2022, 7 p.m.

Opening Prayer: Jessenia Enriquez; Closing Prayer: David Knott.

Next Finance Council Meeting, representing the PPC: Jane Reed.

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY

Dr. Gonzalez offers counseling services at the Parish Office
Evenings 5:30PM—7:00PM.

Dr. Gonzalez earned her B.A. in Psychology from the University of Texas at San Antonio, her M.A. in Clinical Psychology from St. Mary's University and her Psy.D. (Doctorate in Psychology) from Our Lady of the Lake University. She completed her Clinical Psychology Internship and Residency Training Program at the University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio, Department of Psychiatry. She has worked in psychological and counseling services in a wide variety of settings since 1990.

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She will be providing individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, please call the Parish Office at

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

God clearly reveals his identity as "I am who am." God, who is really beyond all names, is the One who simply "is" as the ground of all being. This ever-existing, uncreated, and all-encompassing presence of unconditional God, who is Love, is very patient as he waits for us to grow and change. God is so near to us that it is easy to miss his presence. As true love requires, God seeks a devoted, intimate, free, and exclusive relationship with each of us. As we walk through the parched, desert experiences of our lives it is easily in our thirst for water and a respite from the heat that we reach for and construct idols that will bring us immediate relief and satisfaction. These false gods, made out of our comforts and earthly desires can quickly take the place of the One who really has first dibs on our hearts. Humans have often wandered far away from God as St. Paul reminds us. In helping each other cultivate and fertilize the ground upon which we walk, God gives us yet another chance to bear fruit and return.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

When St. Oscar Romero was appointed Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, his country was in chaos. Many people in El Salvador were living in poverty, while a smaller elite group controlled all political and economic power. In 1980, El Salvador broke out in a 12-year civil war that left over 75,000 people dead. St. Oscar Romero set up pastoral programs to assist the victims of oppression. He also became an outspoken advocate for human rights, appealing to the Salvadoran military to stop killing their own citizens.

On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was murdered while celebrating Mass in El Salvador. A car pulled up outside, and a gunman fired a single shot straight into St. Oscar Romero's heart.

Calling him a "a martyr for the faith" nearly 40 years later, Pope Francis canonized him in 2018. For the occasion, Pope Francis chose to wear the same blood-stained belt that Romero was wearing at the altar when he died.
