4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

"His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again.'" - Lk 15:21-22a, 23b-24a

"El muchacho le dijo: 'Padre, he pecado contra el cielo y contra ti; ya no merezco llamarme hijo tuyo'.

Pero el padre les dijo a sus criados: 'Comamos y hagamos una fiesta, porque este hijo mío estaba muerto y ha vuelto a la vida'".
- Lc 15, 21-22. 23-24

Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life. We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters. Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Message from Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Dear sisters and brothers:

Light and darkness are the two realities whereby man may live: we live in darkness throughout our lives and then it comes to a point in which light begins to shine. That's the moment in which we are asked to choose either to remain in darkness or to live in the light. Light is Truth; darkness on the contrary is a farce, and appearance, just shadows, nothing. Darkness is blindness and enslaves, whereas light gives freedom. Darkness does not want to be exposed. Light is transparency, clarity.

May we be ready to opt for the light when times come to make a life decision.

Greetings to you and to the rest of the members of your family, especially the ill and the elderly.

Your brother and servant in the priesthood of Jesus Christ,
Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Mensaje de Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Queridas hermanas y hermanos:

La luz y las tinieblas son las dos realidades en las que el hombre puede vivir: vivimos en las tinieblas durante toda nuestra vida y luego llega un momento en el que la luz empieza a brillar. Ese es el momento en el que se nos pide que elijamos entre permanecer en la oscuridad o vivir en la luz. La luz es la Verdad; la oscuridad, por el contrario, es una farsa, una apariencia, sólo sombras, nada. La oscuridad es ceguera y esclaviza, mientras que la luz da libertad. La oscuridad no quiere ser expuesta. La luz es transparencia, claridad.

Que estemos preparados para optar por la luz cuando llegue el momento de tomar una decisión en la vida.

Saludos a usted y al resto de los miembros de su familia, especialmente a los enfermos y ancianos.

Su hermano y servidor en el sacerdocio de Jesucristo,
P. Rodolfo Caballero

The Oldest Ancient Relic in the World The Shroud of Turin

Please join us to learn what the Shroud of Turin teaches us about the Passion of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The Shroud of Turin is the most studied relic in the history of Christianity. Mysteriously imprinted on the cloth is an image of a man who has been severely beaten and crucified in the manner described in the Gospels.

In 2010 Deacon Tom & Mary Jane Fox led two pilgrimages to Turin, Italy, to view this remarkable relic during its rare public exhibition. Mary Jane Fox & Ralph Paglia are offering a presentation for all on the story of the Shroud.

The Great Lent. When I become immersed in the Lord's Passion, I often see the Lord Jesus, during adoration, in this manner: after the scourging, the torturers took the Lord and stripped Him of His own garment, which had already adhered to the wounds; as they took it off, His wounds reopened; then they threw a dirty and tattered scarlet cloak over the fresh wounds of the Lord. (#408)

La Cuaresma. Cuando me sumerjo en la Pasión del Señor, a menudo en la adoración veo al Señor Jesús bajo este aspecto: después de la flagelación los verdugos tomaron al Señor y le quitaron su propia túnica que ya se había pegado a las llagas; mientras la despojaban volvieron a abrirse sus llagas. Luego vistieron al Señor con un manto rojo, sucio y despedazado sobre las llagas abiertas. (#408)

Dear Friends:

On behalf of Christian Assistance Ministry and the clients we serve, I sincerely thank you and your church for your recent gift of a $50 HEB gift card from your Angel Tree collection.

Through your donation you are truly the hands and feet of Christ in our community! We want our community to see the powerful work that can be done through local churches coming together as the body of Christ to serve those in need!

Thank you, again, for your donation and for all you do in our community. As always, keep us and those we serve in your prayers.

Sincerely,

Dawn White-Fosdick

Dear friends,

Thank you for remembering us in prayer and with your most recent gift to our missions.

Mercy! That's what people of Fairbanks are uttering these last days of winter. We have surpassed our "normal" 60 inches of snow and in fact, we have edged past 90 inches. It becomes a game of where to put the stuff at this point. The city is encouraging residents to clear the snow from their roofs—estimating weight at about 37 pounds per square foot. We can expect a bit more snow through April and we can count on the arrival of spring sometime in May.

Easter holds a special meaning for Alaskans. With the resurrection of our Lord—so too comes the resurrecting of the grass as it peeks through the last traces of snow. The snowshoe hare drops his white camo clothing and even the moose are easier to spot as the high snow berms that block their entry into the residential areas melt and they can once again roam and munch our trees. Spring rushes forth with breathtaking force bringing longer, sunnier days that break our rivers free and clear a path for us to freight supplies to our bush villages. Our priests, sisters, deacons, and brothers are anxiously awaiting these supplies, eager to have the summer building, rebuilding and maintenance begin. Of course, the return of winter is never really that far away in Alaska.

We gratefully receive all support, whether it comes in form of prayer and/or financial assistance. We receive it in His name and will use it well to supply our needs in His service. Be assured that we do daily remember you and your concerns in our Masses and prayers—and we are grateful to be remembered in yours.

Bishop Chad Zielinski sends his sincere regards to you and asks that you kindly accept these expressions of sincere gratitude as coming also from all here in the north benefited by your prayers and financial support. He asks also that you join us, especially during Lent, to pray for peace in the world and an end to the horrors of war.

With all personal best wishes for a very blessed Lenten Journey,
Patty Walter, Alaskan Shepherd Editor

MISSING PEACE

I used to play a video game with my kids that required all sorts of heroic feats and superhuman strength to conquer the monsters and overcome the overwhelming obstacles that greeted you as you wove your way through various pursuits in search of a missing puzzle piece that would solve the riddle and win the game. It was very challenging, frustrating, and fun...I guess. I would often ask the kids after I met my untimely death yet again, "Why am I doing this?" And they would emphatically reply, "So you will win!" I never did.

Many people's lives are like that video game. They spend incredible amounts of energy and focus searching for the missing piece that they can snap into place and solve the riddle on how to be happy and satisfied. They weave their way through all kinds of pursuits, including material things, work obsessions, drinking, drugs and relationships never to find what they are looking for. If they only knew the solution to the riddle is simple: Jesus. He is the missing piece and only He can satisfy the longings of the heart. It is as simple as that. Pursue Jesus by pursuing your Catholic faith and you will find peace.

So, turn from youthful desires and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord with purity of heart. - 2 Timothy 2:22

A GREAT WAY TO HELP A HURTING FRIEND

Do you have a friend, a neighbor, or a relative who is going through a difficult time? Here's a great way you can help them—tell them about our Stephen Ministry! Stephen Ministers are members of Holy Trinity who have received special training to provide high-quality, confidential, one-to-one, Christian care to people who are grieving the loss of a loved one, coping with a cancer diagnosis, going through a divorce or separation, battling a chronic illness (or caring for a spouse or parent who is chronically ill), experiencing a great deal of stress, facing the loss of a job—or encountering any of countless other life challenges.

Stephen Ministers meet weekly with their care receivers to listen, care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support. Males are matched with males, and females are matched with females. The caring relationship lasts for as long as the person needs care. It's free, and it's a powerful way you can help a hurting friend.

To learn how to connect someone you know with a Stephen Minister, talk with our Stephen Ministry Leader Norma Garza, 210 379-7874. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." —Matthew 11:28

SERVANT SPOUSE

For Unity in Marriage Prayer

We praise you, Lord, for your plan has drawn us together, your children, as husband and wife. Unite us in love for one another. Strengthen our hearts, so that we will keep faith with each other. Help us to please you in all things and so come to the happiness of celebrating the sacrament of our marriage. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Unleash the Power of Prayer in your Marriage!

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY

Dr. Gonzalez offers counseling services at the Parish Office Evenings 5:30PM—7:00PM.

Dr. Gonzalez earned her B.A. in Psychology from the University of Texas at San Antonio, her M.A. in Clinical Psychology from St. Mary's University and her Psy.D. (Doctorate in Psychology) from Our Lady of the Lake University. She completed her Clinical Psychology Internship and Residency Training Program at the University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio, Department of Psychiatry. She has worked in psychological and counseling services in a wide variety of settings since 1990.

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She will be providing individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, please call the Parish Office at 210-497-4200

Inspiration for the week

Have you ever given thought to the fact that you are an “ambassador for Christ?” An ambassador is an accredited diplomat and official representative. We are asked to be ambassadors for Christ and his message of reconciliation. Within each one of us is a prodigal son who realizes the need to return home, an elder brother who struggles with entitlement and self-pity, and a forgiving father who simply wants to celebrate love. Realizing that all of these things are operative in our hearts, we can bring credibility to God’s ministry of reconciliation. Genuine witnesses are those who not only recognize their need for wholeness, mercy, and forgiveness but also their tendency to be over self-focused and stubborn. Then, discovering freedom from all that binds them, they can then extend the love they have received to others. These ambassadors embody unity, mercy, and reconciliation and can look on others with deep compassion because they know what it is to walk in their shoes. Can God count on you to deliver this message?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Rupert of Salzburg is also known as the “Apostle of Bavaria and Austria.” Although mostly legend, it is believed that he was born sometime around 660 in Gaul, which is now part of France. It is possible that he is a descendant of the Merovingian royal line. Not much is known about the saint’s early life.

We do know that Rupert was first appointed as Bishop of Worms in present-day Germany and despite many good works there, the pagan population eventually beat him and forced him from the city. Rupert retired to Rome for a time until Duke Theodo of Bavaria asked him to come to help establish the Church more firmly in Bavaria. Rupert agreed and brought with him a group of priests. Rupert traveled the region, effecting conversions, miracles, healing.

Eventually Rupert chose to settle at Juvavum an old Roman city mostly in ruins. He renamed the city Salzburg or “Salt Castle,” and established there a great cathedral and monastery under the Rule of St. Benedict. His niece became abbess of the Benedictine convent he founded nearby. Rupert was the first bishop of Salzburg, serving also as abbot of the monastery.

St. Rupert is usually portrayed carrying a vessel of salt, as he helped establish the salt mining industry for which he named the city. It is said that Rupert died on Easter Sunday though sources disagree on the year, which could have been around 710 or possibly as late as 718.
