Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life. We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters. Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY—Evenings 5:30-7:00pm

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She provides individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, call the Parish Office at 210-497-4200

Message from Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

As we approach the Solemnity of Pentecost, we are reminded of the mystery of the indwelling of the Blessed Trinity in our lives. If we can summarize our relationship with God in a few words, we would immediately describe it as God living in us. In fact, the whole goal of Christianity is to establish that connection by which God lives in us and we in God. The Church and the sacraments are nothing other than a bridge between us and God. Living the commandments, the beatitudes, our devotions and Christian traditions are but a manifestation of God living in us. Our spiritual life is the nurturing of that divine life in us. As we can see, everything about Christianity is this. St. Paul would put it in more poetic terms, "I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me; insofar as I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God who has loved me and given himself up for me" (cf. Gal 2, 20).

Among all the activities that we do in the different roles we play in our lives, let us not forget this most essential element as Christians.

May the Lord bless you and each one of the members of your family, especially the ill and the elderly. Your brother and servant in the priesthood of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Mensaje de Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo,

Al acercarnos a la solemnidad de Pentecostés, se nos recuerda el misterio de la presencia de la Santísima Trinidad en nuestras vidas. Si pudiéramos describir nuestra relación con Dios en pocas palabras, la describiríamos inmediatamente como Dios que vive en nosotros. De hecho, todo el objetivo del Cristianismo es establecer esa conexión por la que Dios vive en nosotros y nosotros en Dios. La Iglesia y los sacramentos no son más que un puente entre nosotros y Dios. Vivir los mandamientos, las bienaventuranzas, nuestras devociones y tradiciones Cristianas no son más que una manifestación de Dios viviendo en nosotros. Nuestra vida espiritual es el alimento de esa vida divina en nosotros. Como podemos ver, todo en el Cristianismo es esto. San Pablo lo diría en lenguaje más poético: "y ya no soy yo el que vive, sino que Cristo vive en mí; y la vida que ahora vivo en la carne, la vivo por la fe en el Hijo de Dios, el cual me amó y se entregó a sí mismo por mí" (Gál 2, 20).

Entre todas las actividades que realizamos en los distintos papeles que desempeñamos en nuestra vida, no olvidemos este elemento tan esencial como Cristianos.

Que el Señor le bendiga a usted y a cada uno de los miembros de su familia, especialmente a los enfermos y a los ancianos. Su hermano y servidor en el sacerdocio de Jesucristo,

P. Rodolfo Caballero

Prayer Against Temptations

Help us, Father, to patiently endure tests of our faith and resist temptations that could hurt our marriage. In Scripture you remind us, "God blesses those who patiently endure testing and temptation. Afterward they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him" (James 1:12). Give us your Spirit to protect and persevere us through temptations. Helps us keep you and your will for us always in our hearts and minds.

THE DIVINE MERCY

Weekly Message/Mensaje Semanal

For General Information please contact: Ernesto Brux 843-730-3134

Write this: before I come as the Just Judge, I am coming first as the King of Mercy. Before the day of justice arrives, there will be given to people a sign in the heavens of this sort: All light in the heavens will be extinguished, and there will be great darkness over the whole earth. Then the sign of the cross will be seen in the sky, and from the openings where the hands and the feet of the Savior were nailed will come forth great lights which will light up the earth for a period of time. This will take place shortly before the last day. (#83)

Escribe esto: Antes de venir como el Juez Justo, vengo como el Rey de Misericordia. Antes de que llegue el día de la justicia, les será dado a los hombre este signo en el cielo. Se apagará toda luz en el cielo y habrá una gran oscuridad en toda la tierra. Entonces, en el cielo aparecerá el signo de la cruz y de los orificios donde fueron clavadas las manos y los pies del salvador, saldrán grandes luces que durante algún tiempo iluminarán la tierra. Eso sucederá poco tiempo antes del último día. (#83)

When we are baptized, we are united to Christ and given the commission: "Go, make disciples of all nations." (Matthew 28:19) But, what does that actually mean for us? How do we do it? Mission Possible is a four week interactive course that will help equip you to discover more of what this baptismal vocation is and practice some skills to actually follow it! Topics covered will be:

- The message of the Gospel and how to share it in plain English
- How and when to share a simple story of faith from your life
- How to discern your unique mission as a baptized Christian
- How to accompany a friend or coworker through the stages of conversion

Logistics: All meetings will be held online via Zoom. Due to the content and structure of the meetings, we ask that you commit to participating fully during the series. The meetings will be 7pm CT - 9pm CT. We will hear the content as a larger group and then we will use breakout rooms for discussion and to practice the skills learned.

When: Every Tuesday in June (June 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th)

Cost: Regular: $99 / GS24 Community members (through App): $79

Divorced & Separated Ministry

BELIEVE

I can't ever imagine my life without this overwhelming pain," I managed to choke out between my sobs to my counselor. It had been about three months after my divorce was filed, and I was overwhelmed with grief. I believed the rest of my life was going to be filled with the intense emotional pain I was experiencing, and I knew I couldn't bear it. I had truly lost hope for my future and was at the point of total despair.

My very wise counselor made one simple suggestion that made a huge, positive impact. She suggested that I reflect on my faith. She went on to explain that faith is a decision. If I exclude the reality of God from my life, then there is nothing to hope for and grief turns into despair. However, if I include the reality of God in my life, there is always something greater -- no matter the grief and pain. It is this reality that is the reason for hope. Her gentle reminder about my faith was a real paradigm shift in how I viewed my situation.

Faith is a decision that we all must make at some point in our lives. We must decide that either this world is all there is or there is something beyond this life that is so much greater. Our decision is what makes all the difference.

Grief is an indicator of transition -- a change, a letting go. When Our Lord is brought into this transition, He will bring new life. Even though this new life may not be what we had planned, because it is built on trust in Christ, there ultimately will be joy -- a joy that this physical world can't touch.

And that is exactly what happened to me, and it can happen to you too. Believe.

"Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, while the world rejoices; you will grieve, but your grief will become joy." -- John 16:20

A GREAT WAY TO HELP A HURTING FRIEND

Do you have a friend, a neighbor, or a relative who is going through a difficult time? Here's a great way you can help them—tell them about our Stephen Ministry! Stephen Ministers are members of Holy Trinity who have received special training to provide high-quality, confidential, one-to-one, Christian care to people who are grieving the loss of a loved one, coping with a cancer diagnosis, going through a divorce or separation, battling a chronic illness (or caring for a spouse or parent who is chronically ill), experiencing a great deal of stress, facing the loss of a job—or encountering any of countless other life challenges.

Stephen Ministers meet weekly with their care receivers to listen, care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support. Males are matched with males, and females are matched with females. The caring relationship lasts for as long as the person needs care. It's free, and it's a powerful way you can help a hurting friend.

To learn how to connect someone you know with a Stephen Minister, talk with our Stephen Ministry Leader Norma Garza, 210 379-7874. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." —Matthew 11:28

Frequently Asked Questions about Annulments
(a series taken from The Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of San Antonio)

How is it possible to declare a marriage invalid? Isn't marriage forever?

- The Catholic Church believes that every valid, sacramental and consummated marriage is indissoluble. This is our understanding of God's law as found in the Scriptures, as well as 2,000 years of Catholic Church teaching.
- If both parties to a marriage are still living, a marriage must be proven to be invalid, even if the parties are civilly divorced, in order for either of the parties to contract a new marriage in the Catholic Church.
- If one or more of the essential elements are missing from the beginning of the marriage, a marriage may be declared invalid by a Judge of a Tribunal. This is considered a judicial decision, not a moral judgment on the lives of the parties involved.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Everyone wants to experience peace. When we look to the world to provide this for us, we can easily get disappointed. We associate peace with an absence of war and conflict, good relationships between neighbors and coworkers, the achievement of success and even the absence of noise! While all of these are worthy endeavors, pursuing them exclusively as a path to experiencing peace sets us up for failure. When we look for peace outside of ourselves, it will never be found. True and lasting peace is something that comes from within and not something we can produce on our own or receive from others. Peace is discovered when we experience an inner wholeness and harmony. It is born of a sense of connectedness with a God who is larger and greater than ourselves, gifting us with His presence. It is the only the peace offered by the Risen Christ that can settle our hearts and calm our fears. Regardless of the degree of turmoil around us, this sense of completeness that Jesus gives anchors our boats and prevents us from sinking.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Rita of Cascia (1381 – 1457) had the opportunity to live her life as a wife, mother, widow, and eventually, member of a religious community. Born in central Italy, St. Rita felt the calling to become a nun, but was pressured at a young age into marriage. During her 18-year marriage to a cruel man, she raised two sons. When her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons died, St. Rita decided to go back to her first love and attempted to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Her status as a widow caused some complications to her entering, but she eventually succeeded in professing vows.

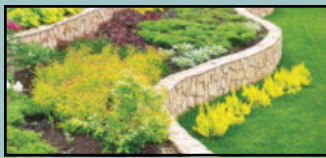

Throughout her lifetime, St. Rita of Cascia was known for her prayerfulness and charity. She also experienced stigmata on her forehead, meditated frequently on Christ's passion, and cared for the nuns of her religious community and those in the lay community who came to her for counsel.

Neuropathy Relief Is Possible

The most common treatment your doctor will recommend for neuropathy is prescription drugs. While this may temporarily reduce your symptoms, medications such as Gabapentin, Lyrica, Cymbalta, and Neurontin are primarily anti-seizure or antidepressant medications. These drugs may cause you to feel uncomfortable and can have a variety of unpleasant or even harmful side effects.

Peripheral neuropathy is a result of damage to the nerves, often causing weakness, pain, numbness, tingling, and the most debilitating symptom, balance problems. This damage is commonly caused by a lack of blood flow to the nerves in the hands and feet. Every part of the body relies on blood flow for delivery of oxygen and nutrients. Without it, the body begins to lose function.

When the blood vessels that surround the nerves become diseased, they shrivel. This prevents the nerves from getting the nutrients necessary to survive. The nerves begin to degenerate and no longer conduct sensation adequately.

When these nerves begin to "die" they cause you to have balance problems, pain, burning, pins and needle sensations, and other symptoms.

Three Factors to Consider for Effective Neuropathy Treatment:

1. Underlying cause?
2. Amount of nerve damage sustained?
3. How much treatment is required?

Three Goals of Treatment at Balance Acupuncture:

1. Increase blood flow
2. Stimulate nerve fibers
3. Decrease brain based pain

One real problem is that those with Neuropathy have been given limited options for treatment: Either you take medications which often make you feel sick or uncomfortable, or you have to come to terms with the idea of "just living with it." There is now a clinic in San Antonio that offers you hope without worrisome side effects.

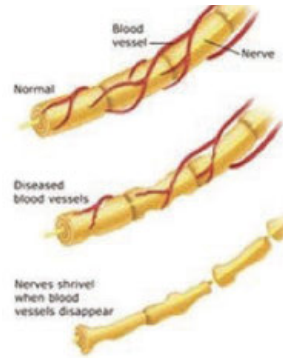

Figure 2: When blood vessels become diseased, they shrivel and are no longer able to provide nourishment to the surrounding nerves.

The treatment to increase blood flow utilizes Acupuncture and ATP Resonance BioTherapy. Acupuncture helps to stimulate the blood vessels and the peripheral nerves so that they are able to receive proper nutrients needed to heal and repair. ATP Resonance Bio Therapy was developed to improve cell function, increase blood flow and expedite recovery and healing.

The amount of treatment needed to allow nerves to fully recover varies from person to person and can only be determined after a detailed neurological and vascular evaluation.

We will conduct an exam that consists of detailed sensory testing and an analysis of neurological findings. After the exam, you will meet with the practitioner to discuss your results and determine if you are a good fit for our program.

This life impacting condition affecting millions of individuals can be helped and even reversed. Whether the neuropathy affecting you is chemical in nature, due to diabetes, or mechanical such as degenerative disc disease or arthritis, treatments are available to help you alleviate your suffering.

Call (210) 479-3900 to make an appointment to determine if the peripheral neuropathy affecting you can be treated.
