Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life. We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters. Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY—Evenings 5:30-7:00pm

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She provides individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, call the Parish Office at 210-497-4200

Message from Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Lord's Ascension. As we contemplate the Lord ascending into heaven, we see Christ's glorified nature being crowned with glory. That nature, though, not glorified, is our own human nature. We watch Christ go up to heaven as we look forward as well to being brought to heaven when our time comes. In the meantime, we must continue go about our business, making every effort to be faithful to God's words, which in turn are the promise to us that we will obtain the crown of our own glory. Hence those words of the angel to the disciples: "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." (Acts 1:11).

May we all remember the destiny to which we are all called and not be distracted from our final goal and glory. All efforts to get there are worthwhile.

Blessings to you and to each member of your family. Your brother and servant in the priesthood of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Mensaje de Fr. Rodolfo Caballero

Queridas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo,

Hoy celebramos la Ascensión del Señor. Al contemplar al Señor ascendiendo al cielo, vemos la naturaleza glorificada de Cristo coronada de gloria. Esa naturaleza, sin embargo, no glorificada, es nuestra propia naturaleza humana. Vemos a Cristo subir al cielo mientras esperamos también ser llevados al cielo cuando llegue nuestro momento. Mientras tanto, debemos seguir adelante con nuestros asuntos, esforzándonos por ser fieles a las palabras de Dios, que a su vez es la promesa de que obtendremos la corona de nuestra propia gloria. Por eso, aquellas palabras del ángel a los discípulos: "Hombres de Galilea, ¿por qué estáis ahí mirando al cielo? Este Jesús que ha sido arrebatado de vosotros al cielo volverá de la misma manera que le habéis visto ir al cielo". (Hechos 1:11).

Que todos recordemos el destino al que estamos llamados y no nos distraigamos de nuestra meta y gloria final. Todos los esfuerzos para llegar allí valen la pena.

Bendiciones para usted y para cada miembro de su familia.

P. Rodolfo Caballero

MEMORIAL DAY

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and
put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst
and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy
those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

For General Information please contact: Ernesto Brux 843-730-3134

In the evening, when I was walking in the garden saying my rosary and came to the cemetery, I opened the gate a little and began to pray for a while, and I asked them interiorly, "You are very happy and you not? Then I heard the words, "We are happy in the measure that we have fulfilled God's will" – and then silence as before. I became introspective and reflected for a long time on how I am fulfilling God's will and how I am profiting from the time that God has given me. (#515)

Una vez, al anochecer, cuando paseaba por la huerta rezando el rosario, llegué hasta el cementerio, entreabrí la puerta y me puse a rezar un momento y les pregunté a ellas dentro de mí: ¿Seguramente serán muy felices? De repente oí estas palabras: Somos felices en la medida en que hemos cumplido la voluntad de Dios... y después, el silencio como antes. Me ensimismé y pensé mucho tiempo cómo yo cumpla la voluntad de Dios y cómo aprovecho el tiempo que Dios me concede. (#515)

Divorced & Separated Ministry

PRE-APPROVED

My daughter recently graduated from school and was embarking on a major job search. It was rather nerve-racking for her as she marketed herself to prospective employers. She spent hours working on her resume until it was just right. She would meticulously do her hair and makeup, and make sure she was dressed perfectly. Then, she would venture out to shake hands and drop off resumes in the hope of getting an interview. Each day she put her self-worth on the line, hoping that someone would accept her, all the while bracing for rejection.

From your desired college, to your employer, to the mortgage company, to your tennis team, it seems you are always having to convince others that you are worthy, that you should be accepted. Not so with Jesus. He loved you first, and there is nothing you need to do to keep His love; nor is there anything you can ever do that will stop Him from loving you. With Jesus you don't have to prove your worth; you are already worthy. You don't have to meet certain criteria; you already do. There is no application process to go through; you are already accepted. Take great comfort in this, and let Jesus be your source of acceptance and approval instead of a world that so often tells you that you are not good enough. With Jesus, you are always pre-approved!

"Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me." - John 6:37

THE ART OF REALLY LISTENING

Have you ever reflected on how many times in the Bible we hear of God's listening? In Exodus 2:24 we read how "God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob." Through his prophet Isaiah God said, "Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear." (Isaiah 65:24) And we see too how Jesus called upon His Father, thanking Him, asking Him to heal, to have mercy, to take away this cross, and then placing it all in His Father's hands.

Sometimes we wish we could do something for those around us who are hurting. But perhaps, though it may not seem like much, all we are called to do at the moment is to "be quick to listen, slow to speak" (James 1:19a). God can work through our caring listening like a soothing salve on a wound, bringing about healing, deeper self-understanding, and the abundant life that Jesus promised.

Listening is an essential part of Stephen Ministry. Stephen Ministers use active listening skills to help people recognize and accept the feelings they are experiencing. If you or someone you know is hurting, having someone to listen with compassionate understanding without judging and with prayerful attention may be just what is needed.

To find out more about how Stephen Ministry works and how you or someone you know could be benefit from a Stephen Minister, talk with our Stephen Leader Norma Garza, 210 379-7874. Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

Blessings to you!

Beginning Tuesday, June 7th, we will begin our 2022 Summer Share-A-Thon, "Eucharistic Revival". For four straight days, we'll be on the air from 7AM-7PM, to make our appeal for your financial support to help us keep Catholic Radio on the air for the next few months.

The number to call in during that week is:

1-800-476-3311

Not only do we need listeners to call in that week and make their donation but, we also need some amazing volunteers to help man our call center!

Frequently Asked Questions about Annulments
(a series taken from The Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of San Antonio)

What is the difference between a Divorce and an Annulment (or a Declaration of Marriage Nullity)?

- A civil divorce is a legal action whereby the division of property and custody of children having been settled, a civil dissolution is granted, and husband and wife are declared free by the same civil authority to enter a new marriage with a different partner. Such a civil procedure does not question the validity of the initial consent in that marriage.
- By contrast, if the gathered factual evidence, examined in the light of canon (Church) law, shows that a particular marriage was not canonically valid, the Church's Tribunal declares it null and void. This is the ecclesiastical Decree of Marriage Nullity (colloquially called an "annulment"). The Church does not make the marriage null, but rather recognizes that the marriage is null.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We all have our ideas of who God is. We have to remember, however, that our ideas of God often do not capture who God really is. God is a wonderful mystery whose identity is inexhaustible. This makes life an exciting journey in search of belief, love, glory, and unity. Displaying all of the tenderness of a real love story, we hear from Jesus that God wants nothing more than for the world to believe. The same depth of affection given to Jesus, God the Father desires to share with us. Receiving this love gives the believer an even greater understanding of what gives us purpose and meaning. With God's unconditional love as our anchor, we can endure the greatest of hardships knowing that we carry the hope of glory within us. Sharing in the same incredible eternal destiny and glory that God gave His Son, we can all be one just as Jesus and the Father are one. Why is understanding all of this important? Because given the myriad choices of what can possibly define us, we now have the primordial truth of who we are given to us by God. We know, beyond doubt, where to look for true happiness and where our lives will end.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Joan of Arc (1412 – 1431) has had her story told throughout history through many books, movies and plays. She was born in the village of Domrémy, near the province of Lorraine, to a French peasant family. At a young age, she began to experience visions and voices, which were later identified to be of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret of Antioch. At the age of 13, all three saints told her that she was to drive the English from French territory, and that she must bring the Dauphin to Reims for his coronation. Trusting in God, she did as she was told.

During the Hundred Years War, St. Joan of Arc led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. Captured near Compiègne the following year, she was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft, eventually being found guilty and burned at the stake in Rouen.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on May 16, 1920, and is the patron saint of military members.
