Sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: "Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar". - Jn 20, 22-23

Prayer for Vocations

O God, our Father, you have called us in Baptism to follow your Son Jesus through lives of loving service to you and to one another.

Grant us your assistance guided by the Holy Spirit to live out our vocation in life. We pray especially for those who have answered your call as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons and lay ministers.

Keep them faithful in following your Son and dedicated in serving their brothers and sisters. Grant that many more men and women will be open to the challenge of dedicating their lives in the ministry of building your Kingdom. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen

Believe, Belong & Beyond/On the Way Andale Capital Campaign Update:

As you are aware, after fulfilling our financial obligation to the Archdiocese at the conclusion of the joint capital campaign, Holy Trinity was left with limited funds. At our petition, Archbishop Gustavo reduced our financial obligation by $300,000, leaving us with $901,700 in available funds. Though not enough to pursue the original plans, these funds will allow us to make some of the many necessary upgrades to our campus. Having heard opinion of the Finance Council members, we would like to use these funds to improve our Pavilion, the playground area and to create an inviting place of fellowship where we can gather after Church to relax and enjoy. This space is in demand, as indicated in feedback from our Parishioners. Many thanks to Archbishop Gustavo for his help in this matter. Blessings to everyone.

COUNSELING AT HOLY TRINITY—Evenings 5:30-7:00pm

Dr. Gonzalez is licensed by the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists as an LPA, independent practice. She practices from a Solution-focused brief therapy/family systems theoretical approach. Most significant to her work here at Holy Trinity is her understanding of and adherence to the Catholic anthropological view of the human person – counseling the whole person, uniting psychology, philosophy and theology. She provides individual, (adult/teens/child), couple, and family counseling services to parishioners of Holy Trinity.

To make an appointment with Dr. Gonzalez, call the Parish Office at 210-497-4200

Message from Fr. Ed Gonzales

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ,

I am grateful for all the blessings our parish community offered me for my first anniversary, whether through cards, social media, and in person. The joy I have is as real today as it was on the day of my ordination! Thank you!!!

Your blessings and prayers are a clear sign of the work of the Holy Spirit, which we celebrate on this day of Pentecost. St. Irenaeus wrote that the Spirit prepares us as an offering to God- that we, his holy people, are like dry flour and the Spirit is the moisture that makes us into dough; like dry ground, the moisture of the Spirit helps us be fertile and bear fruit in the world. He writes, "We who are many could not become one in Christ Jesus without the water that comes down from heaven" (Against Heresies, Book 3 chapter 17). God's divine presence has made a dwelling place within us and listening and responding to His stirrings in our heart contributes to the building of his Kingdom in our homes and in our community. May our celebration of Pentecost guide us as we strive unity and holiness.

Peace,

Fr. Ed Gonzales

Mensaje de Fr. Ed Gonzales

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Jesucristo,

Estoy agradecido por todas las bendiciones que nuestra comunidad parroquial me ofreció en mi primer aniversario, ya sea a través de tarjetas, redes sociales y en persona. ¡La alegría que tengo es tan real hoy como lo fue el día de mi ordenación! ¡¡¡Gracias!!!

Sus bendiciones y oraciones son un claro signo de la obra del Espíritu Santo, que celebramos en este día de Pentecostés. San Ireneo escribió que el Espíritu nos prepara como una ofrenda a Dios - que nosotros, su pueblo santo, somos como harina seca y el Espíritu es la humedad que nos convierte en masa. Como la tierra seca, la humedad del Espíritu nos ayuda a ser fértiles y a dar fruto en el mundo. Escribe: "Nosotros, que somos muchos, no podríamos llegar a ser uno en Cristo Jesús sin el agua que baja del cielo" (Contra las Herejías, Libro 3, capítulo 17). La presencia divina de Dios ha hecho una morada en nosotros y escuchar y responder a sus impulsos en nuestro corazón contribuye a la construcción de su Reino en nuestros hogares y en nuestra comunidad. Que nuestra celebración de Pentecostés nos guíe en nuestro esfuerzo por la unidad y la santidad.

Paz,

P. Ed Gonzales

PRAYERS FOR UVALDE

My dear sisters and brothers, members of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, We learned yesterday of the terrible shooting at the Uvalde elementary school, killing several children as well as some adults. We fervently pray for all affected by this tragedy. Our hearts unite to the families of those who are grieving the loss of their dear ones, innocent of a greater problem in our society. We ask the Lord for consolation in this moment of sorrow, confusion and tragedy. We pray also for ourselves, for our community, our country and our world, that we may continue to protect, defend and love human life at every stage, every moment, and in every circumstance. May the Lord give us the right vision and understanding to care and nurture the institution of the family as God intended it. It is at home where every person learns to love and experiences the gift of being loved by others and by our heavenly Father. May our society recognize publicly and openly the value of Christianity, faith communities and religion at large as the havens where the universal values are promoted, especially love, respect and civility. May God bless the families in Uvalde; may God bless us all in Texas; may God bless America.

Sincerely in Jesus the Divine Mercy,
Fr. Rodolfo Caballero, Pastor

Weekly Message/Mensaje Semanal

For General Information please contact: Ernesto Brux 843-730-3134

Jesús: Mi misericordia es más grande que tu miseria y la del mundo entero. ¿Quién ha medido Mi bondad? Por ti bajé del cielo a la tierra, por ti dejé clavarme en la cruz, por ti permití que Mi Sagrado Corazón fuera abierto por una lanza, y abrí la fuente de la misericordia para ti. Ven y toma las gracias de esta fuente con el recipiente de la confianza. Jamás rechazaré un corazón arrepentido, tu miseria se ha hundido en el abismo de Mi misericordia. ¿Por qué habrías de disputar Conmigo sobre tu miseria? Hazme el favor, dame todas tus penas y toda tu miseria y Yo te colmaré de los tesoros de Mis gracias. (#1485)

Jesus: My mercy is greater than your sins and those of the entire world. Who can measure the extent of my goodness? For you I descended from heaven to earth; for you I allowed myself to be nailed to the cross; for you I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come, then, with trust to draw graces from this fountain. I never reject a contrite heart. Your misery has disappeared in the depths of My mercy. Do not argue with Me about your wretchedness. You will give me pleasure if you hand over to me all your troubles and griefs. I shall heap upon you the treasures of My grace. (#1485)

Divorced & Separated Ministry

TURN ABOUT IS FAIR PLAY

I don't think there has ever been a more public display of human suffering than the Passion of our Lord. His suffering was not limited to one particular place, witnessed by a few. His suffering was through the streets of Jerusalem with thousands witnessing the entire grueling ordeal. In the midst of that suffering, Simon of Cyrene comes to Jesus's aid. He helps relieve some of Christ's suffering by carrying His cross. Simon was a glimpse of hope in the midst of total despair.

Now Jesus offers you the same hope in the midst of your despair. He longs to return the favor of Simon by helping you carry your cross. Be aware of moments during your day when Jesus is reaching out to help you. It could be in the form of a phone call from a friend, a coworker offering to assist with a project, your mother stepping in to help with the kids, or simply a moment of peace. Jesus, Our Lord and Savior, knows you need help and is actively trying to step in. Will you let Him?

Because He himself was tested through what He suffered, He is able to help those who are being tested. - Hebrews 2:18

The parish is reviewing options regarding our current program. We would appreciate input from individuals interested in this type of program. “IT’S HARDER TO SUFFER ALONE THAN TO SUFFER WITH SOMEBODY”

Those words were from a woman who lost her husband a year ago who knows the value of someone beside you in difficult times. Are you feeling alone due to a recent death or divorce, experiencing the pain of loneliness within a marriage, a single person going through a difficult time with friends but no one to really listen, or someone who could use someone to talk to on a caring and confidential basis? Then consider that having a Stephen Minister to walk with you may be just what you need.

What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. They maintain confidentiality, they attend to the caregiving process and they trust that God will provide the cure with His healing love. We are called to be Christ caring for one another.

So, to anyone who is going through a difficult time, please don't suffer alone! Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and help you through your difficult time. To find out more call Norma Garza, 210 379-7874. We are happy to answer any questions you might have. Remember, our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” —Matthew 11:28

Frequently Asked Questions about Annulments
(a series taken from The Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of San Antonio)

Can a marriage lasting many years be declared invalid?

The Tribunal process examines the events leading up to, and at the time of the wedding ceremony, in an effort to determine whether what was required for a valid marriage was ever brought about.

The length of common life is not proof of validity but a long marriage does provide evidence that a couple had some capacity for a life-long commitment. It does not prove or disprove the existence of a valid marriage bond.

GOSPEL

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

St. Josemaria Escriva tell us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to heaven in search of our Creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's Own breath to truly take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Born to nobility, St. Norbert of Xanten, was ordained as a subdeacon and served in the court of Henry V, Emperor of Germany, however, at court it was easy to be distracted by wealth, power and luxury and he lived a worldly and corrupt life there. By the grace of God while traveling in a storm he was nearly struck by lightning and almost killed. This experience changed St. Norbert and he became penitent, left his court post, and after a period of discernment in a monastery, felt called to be a priest.

Norbert became an itinerant preacher, preaching against worldly attitudes but at the Pope's request finally settled in northern France and founded the Norbertine order established according to the rule of St. Augustine. The order grew rapidly and soon founded women's branch. Norbert traveled and preached across Germany where he also founded a lay branch of the Norbertines. In Belgium he preached against heresies which denied the Blessed Sacrament.

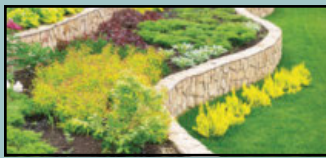

Eventually he was made Archbishop of Magdeburg, Germany, and later he traveled to Rome in support of Pope Innocent II, against the antipope. Afterward he returned to Germany to court of Emperor Lothar as advisor, at end of life, in failing health, St. Norbert was carried back to Magdeburg where he died.
