FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan in response to a lawyer's question: "And who is my neighbor?" The story invites us to stretch our understanding of love, mercy, and neighborliness beyond familiar boundaries.

Think of life as a road we all walk, like the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. On that road, we'll meet people who are wounded—not just physically, but emotionally, spiritually, or socially. The priest and the Levite, though religious, passed by. The Samaritan, considered an outsider and enemy by many Jews, became the true neighbor—not because of his title or background, but because of his compassion and action. We are called to be like that Samaritan: not to ask, "What will happen to me if I stop?" but "What will happen to them if I don't?" Like the first responders assisting the flood victims in Kerrville area during these days, we are invited to move toward the needy with urgency and love.

This parable reminds us that being a Christian isn't just about knowing Scripture or going to church. It's about living love—especially when it's inconvenient, uncomfortable, or crosses social boundaries. Jesus ends with a simple but powerful command: "Go and do likewise."

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús cuenta la parábola del Buen Samaritano en respuesta a la pregunta de un abogado: "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?" La historia nos invita a ampliar nuestra comprensión del amor, la misericordia y la vecindad más allá de los límites familiares.

Piensa en la vida como un camino que todos caminamos, como el camino de Jerusalén a Jericó. En ese camino, conoceremos a personas que están heridas, no solo físicamente, sino también emocionalmente, espiritualmente o socialmente. El sacerdote y el levita, aunque religiosos, pasaron de largo. El samaritano, considerado un extraño y enemigo por muchos judíos, se convirtió en el verdadero vecino, no por su título o antecedentes, sino por su compasión y acción. Estamos llamados a ser como ese samaritano: a no preguntar: "¿Qué me pasará si me detengo?" pero "¿qué les pasará si no lo hago?" Al igual que los socorristas que asisten a las víctimas de las inundaciones en el área de Kerrville durante estos días, se nos invita a avanzar hacia los necesitados con urgencia y amor.

Esta parábola nos recuerda que ser cristiano no se trata solo de conocer las Escrituras o ir a la iglesia. Se trata de vivir el amor, especialmente cuando es inconveniente, incómodo o cruza las fronteras sociales. Jesús termina con un mandato simple pero poderoso: "Ve y haz lo mismo".

PILGRIMAGE WALK

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR PILGRIMAGE WALK

Join us for a spirit-filled morning of prayer, reflection, and community as we journey together in faith for our Pilgrimage Walk on Saturday September 20th at 7:30am. We will gather at Mission Concepción Church for a mass held by Father Babychan and after mass begin on the walking trail to Mission San Jose. The walk is 4 miles so we encourage you to bring your walking shoes, a water bottle, and your open heart. Let's walk together in grace!

Why are we doing this Pilgrimage Walk?

During the Jubilee, millions of people make a pilgrimage to Rome to walk through the Holy Doors at one of the four major basilicas. For those unable to travel to Rome, the Pope has given holy sites around the world to participate in the Jubilee, through pilgrimage, prayer, and service. The San Antonio Missions are all Pilgrimage Sites and you can receive an indulgence when you visit these sacred Jubilee sites.

The Jubilee indulgence is a traditional part of a Jubilee year. It is a plenary indulgence which can be applied either to yourself or your deceased loved ones. The ordinary conditions for obtaining the Jubilee indulgence are to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, and to pray for the intentions of the Holy Father Pope Leo XIV.

I will be outside the church with a sign up sheet and flyers if you want to be a part of our pilgrimage walk in September.
