Who We Are

As disciples of Jesus, we commit ourselves to building community as the body of Christ through the commission given to us at Baptism and reaffirmed in the sacraments of initiation and service. By appreciating, celebrating and sharing the gift of who we are, and what we have, we can establish a hospitable community that welcomes and cares for the needs of those who join us on our journey of faith.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

Required classes for parents /sponsors, both Spanish and English, are held during odd numbered months. Classes & Mass are required. For more information contact Wesley at 997-9523, or visit our website.

An Invitation to all women...

A Day Retreat for Women!

January 22, 2022: 9am—4pm
Holy Family Center

Admission: Free

Lunch & Refreshments Provided

Bonnie L. Abadie

Theological Field Education Director, Benson Theological Center

Goal: To help women recharge physically, emotionally, and spiritually. We will attempt to focus on unity and togetherness through individual group and fun activities as well as prayer and meditation.

Topic: “Thinking about the times in which we are living, (learning to live with a pandemic) perhaps the retreat day could help us reflect upon the sacredness and fragility of life. Maybe it could be a day in which the women can process what they have experienced in the last two years, how they have found God in the struggle and how they are moving forward in hope.”

Experience: Director of Pastoral Lay Formation Certificate Programs of OST since 2004. Director of the Catechetical Center for the Archdiocese of San Antonio for 11 year, Associate Director for 7 years. Archdiocesan Synod Committee 8 years. Archdiocesan Liturgical Commission for 5 years. Archdiocesan RCIA Implementation Committee 5 years. Faculty member, Campus Minister, Liturgical Consultant-Providence High School for 7 years. Certificates in Catechesis, Spiritual Direction and Mediation.

Especially designed for women who do not have the opportunity to make longer weekend retreats!

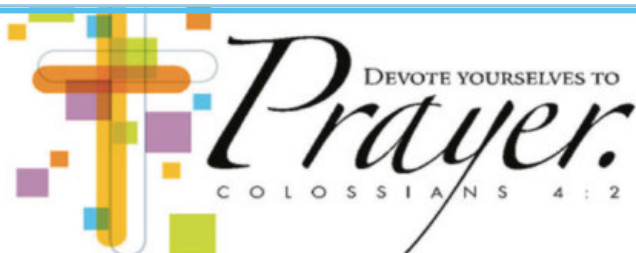

Please RSVP (if possible, but not necessary, by 1/16): Mary Holland by cell, text or email, 830-992-8667, or maryh4064@gmail.com. Thanks!

CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Music & Liturgy Notes

Understanding the Psalm and readings:

There's a special moment at a baptism when you can't help but smile. When the water gets poured out over the baby's head and you hear that cry, or marvel at the fact that they didn't even cry out at the cold water. I wonder though, if our smile isn't so much about the temperature of the water but at the realization that this child, or adult, is now a part of our faith as Christians. Jesus was both man and Divine. He is God, so why did he need to be baptized in order to be united with God? It was for us. So that we could see and understand his human side. Now, he was born without original sin, so technically there wasn't even a need for baptism as a human, but Jesus likes to teach by example. At the beginning of Advent, we moved into the Year C cycle of readings and that means that this year we will hear a lot from the Gospel of Luke. According to Living Liturgy 2022, this year we will find that "Luke often sets important events in Jesus' life and mission in the context of prayer" and this is exactly what we see today. (LL 2022, pg. 40) "After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him" (Luke 3:21-22) Luke doesn't describe the moment when Jesus came to be baptized. He doesn't talk about John saying that he's unworthy to untie the lace of the sandals that Jesus wears. He simply states that he was baptized and was praying and it was that prayer that caused the Heavens to open and the Lord to speak.

I'm sure you've heard me say before that when we are baptized, we are made "priest, prophet and king". How can we best live out our life where we have this calling? How can we consistently do the will of God? How can we be connected to God to know what His will is for our lives? You may have guessed it; prayer. As a praying people we can be assured that our God listens. Sometimes His answer to our prayer is "no" but often that means He has a better plan for our lives. Sometime this week, take a moment to read through the text of the Psalm for today (Psalm 104:1b-2, 3-4, 24-25, 29-30). Psalm 104 is a love poem. It speaks about the beauty of God and praises Him for all the wonderful things He has done for us. He created the earth and the skies, the creatures of the sea and sky. When we cry out, he hears us and when we need food, he fills our hands with more than enough. In Baptism we are united with THIS God. The one who loves us so much that he came down to earth as human and Divine in the person of Jesus. He loves us so much that he was willing to endure the most humiliating and painful deaths of the day and age. He loves us so much that he will leave the 99 sheep to go and gather the one back into his fold. Like Luke, let us all take this year to see Jesus and all His good works and mission to prayer. In prayer let us find the path God wants for us to be on.

Everything That Has Breath (09/12/2019)

Heavy with apprehension and trepidation that is filling the crevices in your mind causing difficulty in breathing. Chest is tight, nerves on edge because these problems are all consuming. Focus internally on the light of the Holy Spirit in your heart and soul. We at times allow our Spirit to lie dormant. During this time of great angst, rely on the fire of the Spirit to assist you in reaching out to the Father in Heaven. Breathe easier as you place your trust in the heavenly counseling of our Lord who administers love and forgiveness. Everything who has breath, should praise and honor our Savior in Heaven. After the Son experienced the persecution, He gave His last breath and died. To be raised on the third day. He overcame all that happened to Him and felt great passion for those left behind. Jesus experienced every emotion that we do. His coming as He did spread the word throughout the world. Even then, God wanted everyone who had breath to honor His son and Father in Heaven. Therefore, we must welcome the Holy Spirit into our realm. Depend on Him to assist us with all our problems. Guide us in doing His Will. Talk to Him like He is sitting right next to you, like a best friend. Spread the good news to all your family. Tell them of His leniency and tenderness. With every breath taken, remember His promise of tolerance. He is the one who will reveal to you a way to delve deeper into your heart. Breathe in His wonderful Spirit and embrace the glorious presence of our Lord and Savior. Amen.

PROVERBS 2: 1-6: "My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; yes, if you cry out to insight and raise your voice for understanding, if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasure; then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God."

Faith Formation

&

Youth Ministry

It is with great pride and joy that the Office of Faith Formation announces a successful Youth ACTS Retreat, Thurs. Dec. 30, 2021 - Sun. Jan. 2, 2022. Without the hard work of our parents, volunteers, and students leaders this retreat would not have been possible. A special thank you to the ACTS Core for being instrumental in helping us meet the needs of this retreat. We are forever grateful to our donors, benefactors, and our St. Mary's Community who went above and beyond ensuring our Youth had what they needed to make this retreat possible. Our teens had a weekend that was filled with love, joy, peace, and faith. Our teens learned that Christ is always with them.

Espero ser como Él

“¿Quién es este Cristo? ¿Es como tú?”

Quizás hayas escuchado esta historia, a menudo atribuida a la vida de Santa Teresa de Calcuta. Un hombre enfermo le hizo esta pregunta, mientras se maravillaba de su incansable servicio para él y los demás en el nombre de alguien llamado Jesucristo.

“Él no se parece en nada a mí,” se dice que respondió la santa. “Pero espero ser como Él.”

Aunque no se puede verificar la autenticidad de este intercambio, su mensaje suena perfectamente cierto: todo el valor de nuestra corresponsabilidad radica en su relatividad con aquel en cuyo nombre lo realizamos.

Considere la figura de Juan el Bautista, un personaje magnífico e imponente, incluso desde una perspectiva puramente literaria o histórica. Un mártir que se alimentaba de langostas salvajes y con valentía le decía la verdad al poder; un hombre tan grande que algunos lo confundieron con el Mesías.

Pero ¿por qué es grandioso? Porque preparó el camino. Todos sus logros y aventuras no significan nada si se sacan del contexto de la historia de la salvación. Solo tiene sentido en relación con Cristo, y esto es exactamente como él lo quería. “Viene uno más digno que yo,” insiste. Y debido a esa humildad y ese abrazo total de la voluntad de Dios, se le otorga uno de los mayores honores del Nuevo Testamento: bautiza al Hijo de Dios.

Examinemos nuestras vidas a la luz de su relatividad con Cristo. ¿Cómo preparamos el camino? Cuando Cristo viene a nosotros, ¿qué hacemos? ¿Cómo nos abrimos a ser actores en el plan de Dios?

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

El Bautismo del Señor

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. “El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida” (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: “Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad”. Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. “El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo descende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión”. Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? “La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo”. ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018). ©LPi
