'Little Madonna'

by Ted DeGrazia

De Grazia

Foundation.

All Rights Reserved.

Legendary Arizona Artist, Ted DeGrazia, in this classic example of one of his favorite Christmas themes, Mary & Child Jesus, used a beautiful contrast of purple, turquoise, ochre and white colors to depict The Madonna holding the Christ Child. Like most of DeGrazia's many oil paintings, it was done with a palette knife using very bold strokes and would make a unique and worthy addition to any DeGrazia enthusiast's art collection.

CHRISTMAS
The Holiest Season

Jesus, the Son of God, was born in Bethlehem about 2023 years ago. Some ask: "So what?" Jesus spoke in parables. Often, this is the best way to explain a mystery. Paul Harvey made it famous, but it goes back farther than him, to a man named Louis Cassels, a journalist.

Harvey began: "Now the man to whom I'm going to introduce you was not a scrooge, he was a kind, decent, mostly good man. Generous to his family, upright in his dealings with other men. But he just didn't believe all that incarnation stuff which the churches proclaim at Christmas Time. It just didn't make sense and he was too honest to pretend otherwise. He just couldn't swallow the Jesus Story, about God coming to Earth as a man.

"I'm truly sorry to distress you," he told his wife, "but I'm not going with you to church this Christmas Eve." He said he'd feel like a hypocrite. That he'd much rather just stay at home, but that he would wait up for them. And so he stayed and they went to Midnight Mass.

"Shortly after the family drove away in the car, snow began to fall. He went to the window to watch the flurries getting heavier and heavier and then went back to his fireside chair and began to read his newspaper. Minutes later he was startled by a thudding sound. Then another, and then another. Sort of a thump or a thud. At first he thought someone must be throwing snowballs against his living room window.

"But when he went to the front door to investigate he found a large flock of birds all huddled miserably in the snow. They'd been caught in the storm and, in a desperate search for shelter, had tried to fly through his large landscape window.

"Well, he couldn't let the poor creatures lie there and freeze, so he remembered the barn where his children stabled their pony. That would provide a warm shelter, if he could direct the birds to it.

Quickly he put on a coat, galoshes, tramped through the deepening snow to the barn. He opened the doors wide and turned on a light, but the birds did not come in. He figured food would entice them in. So he hurried back to the house, fetched bread crumbs, sprinkled them on the snow, making a trail to the yellow-lighted wide open doorway of the stable. But to his dismay, the birds ignored the bread crumbs, and continued to flap around helplessly in the snow. He tried catching them. He tried shooing them into the barn by walking around them waving his arms. Instead, they scattered in every direction, except into the warm, lighted barn.

"And then, he realized, that they were afraid of him. To them, he reasoned, I am a strange and terrifying creature. If only I could think of some way to let them know that they can trust me. That I am not trying to hurt them, but to help them. But how? Because any move he made tended to frighten them, confuse them. They just would not follow. They would not be led or shooed because they feared him.

"If only I could be a bird," he thought to himself, 'and mingle with them and speak their language. Then I could tell them not to be afraid. Then I could show them the way to safe, warm ...to the safe warm barn. But I would have to be one of them so they could see, and hear and understand.'

"At that moment the church bell began to ring. The sound reached his ears above the sounds of the wind. And he stood there listening to the bells – Adeste Fidelis – listening to the bells pealing the glad tidings of Christmas. And he sank to his knees in the snow...."

Fr. Kilian, Sr. Mary Beverly, Deacon Jeff and all of our Parish Staff and Volunteers.

Today we celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, hearing the words of the angel: “Do not be afraid. I proclaim to you good news of great joy.... For today a savior has been born who is Christ and Lord!”

As we look forward to the start of the new year, we give profound thanks for your support of our mission this past year. We earnestly ask that you continue this support, not only financially, but with your prayers for our members and our neighbors in need whom we serve.

We are so grateful for your contributions and participation in our Christmas Adopt a Family, Angel Tree and Winter Wear Collection. These projects were all very successful. Thanks for your contributions to our shoe box collection last weekend, and we also appreciate your ongoing support of our pantry. We could use additional laundry detergent and cleaning supplies at this time. Thank you.

As year 2022 is soon ending, please remember the Arizona Charitable Gift Tax Credit. A couple filing jointly can donate up to $800 to an eligible charity such as the Society. See last week’s bulletin for details. Please contact Cindy, our Treasurer, at 623-594-5017 with any questions.

“Christmas is the feast of love incarnate and born for us in Jesus Christ. He is the light of mankind shining in the darkness, giving meaning to human existence and to the whole of history. ~ Pope Francis

New Faith Formation Program

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be?

We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. St. Elizabeth Seton has begun the Jesus study and will continue through January 31st from 9AM to 11AM in the Seton Hall. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri, followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship.

For more information or to register, contact Dcn. Jeff Arner at 623-866-5221 or/and jarner@sesc.org.

Not a Holy Day of Obligation

The Nativity of the Lord

Our hearts are aglow with the joy of Christmas! Our senses are alive with the season, from the rich smells of evergreen and gingerbread to the feel of crisp air on our skin and the warmth of a loved one's embrace. At some point in the holiday hustle and bustle, take a few moments of quiet. In the silence, reflect on the other senses of the season. Imagine the cool damp of an animal stable, the earthy smell of hay and feed, and the crisp night air blowing in softly. Imagine kneeling beside an exhausted, joyful mother and a relieved, protective father. Imagine an infant wrapped in cloth scraps held out to your open arms. Imagine holding the infant Jesus. As his eyes meet yours, welcome into your heart the greatest gift of Christmas.

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin. Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death. Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

Our Lady of Fatima
1st Saturday Devotion at St. Elizabeth Seton after the 8:00AM Mass
January 7, 2023

Prayer is at the very heart of the message of Fatima because it is at the heart of growing in a personal relationship with God. From the first apparitions of the Angel, the children were asked to pray. When Our Lady appeared for six consecutive months in 1917, she asked the children to pray the Rosary every day for peace. Those of us living in the twenty-first century can take this request to heart. The peace Our Lady asks us to pray for is not only peace between nations and in our country, but peace within our hearts and homes. Now, more than ever, we need prayer.

Please join us after the 8:00AM Mass this coming 1st Saturday for Devotion to Our Lady of Fatima
