The Baptism of the Lord

We continue our study of the Baptism of the Lord in these weeks after Christmas and the Epiphany of the Lord. After Mary had given birth to Jesus at the Nativity of the Lord and revealed Him to the Jewish shepherds in The City of David, Bethlehem; and then again to the gentile foreigners (the Magi); finally, the Father reveals who The Beloved Son is at His Baptism in the River Jordan. His Mission "to take away the sins of the world" so began.

Sadly, too many Christians aren't comfortable in studying and understanding the Bible. To help the Church grow in love and in faithful witness to God, Pope Francis has recently declared the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time to be dedicated to the Word of God. Jesus Christ is The Word of God Made Flesh. We call the Bible the Word of God. So we see the link between the two and Jesus' purpose.

"Salvation, faith, unity and mercy all depend on Baptism and also in knowing Christ and sacred Scripture," the pope wrote in a new document published late last year...By devoting a special day "to the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God" will help the Church "experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world," the pope said.

Please bring your Bible with you next week.

What Exactly is The Bible?

The Bible is
The Word of God...

Three key points help us to understand this:

1. The Bible is the inspired Word of God which comes to us in Sacred Scripture.
2. The Bible is the living Word of God which also comes to us equally through the living Tradition of the Church.
3. The Bible is the infallible Word of God as transmitted by Scripture and Tradition and has been entrusted to the living Magisterium of the Church solely and which exercises its authority in the name of Jesus Christ.

How Can I Tell If My Bible is Catholic?

Catholic and Protestant Bibles both include 27 books in the New Testament. A Catholic Bible has 46 books of the Old Testament - 7 more than a non-Catholic Bible. These 7 books are 1 & 2 Maccabees, Judith, Wisdom, Tobit, Sirach, and Baruch. Catholic Bibles also include sections in the Books of Esther and Daniel. They are called the deuterocanonical books. The Catholic Church believes these books to be inspired by the Holy Spirit.

There's also a Latin word Imprimatur which means 'Let it be printed' - a permission by a bishop for the publication of any work on Scripture. Much more about this next week.

Our good friend Mr. Ayman Khair from Beit Sahour (Shepherds' Field) in Bethlehem will be with us next week with his amazing range of Olive Wood Carvings from the Holy Land.

Have a Very Blessed Week, Fr. Kilian

In the Gospel after Jesus was baptized, John testified saying "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him." When you give to the Society, know that you are a sign of God's Spirit of love to those who are suffering. This past quarter, your donations served 432 neighbors which included 375 bags of groceries, 24 rents, 38 utilities, 3 car repairs and 4 medical bills.

The Time Near! Our second annual Chili Cook-off & Dessert Auction will be held Sunday, February 5, 2023 from 3-5 p.m.

Due to last year's success, we are inviting you to join in the fun by preparing your favorite chili recipe to compete for prizes and to ensure we have enough for all to enjoy. In addition to chili tasting, a gift basket silent auction and a dessert auction will be held. To help the Society's goal of increasing our services to those in need, do you have a timeshare, season sporting ticket, vacation trip or any other exciting offering you could donate for our auction? We greatly appreciate your consideration of these requests to make this another successful parish event to support our ministries. If you are able to assist with making chili or an auction item, please call Denise Steffen at 623 703-7979

Our pantry is in dire need of dish soap, washing detergent, shampoo and deodorant. Additionally, travel size soaps, shampoos, toothpastes/brushes and deodorants are needed for packets given to those we serve at the Santa Teresita food kitchen. Items may be left in our collection boxes in the church vestibule.

The Society's monthly shoebox collection is being held this weekend after all Masses; donations may also be made on line at <https://sescc.org/donate> THANK YOU for your continued loving, kind support

(RCIA) The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

New Faith Formation Program

Perhaps no book in the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied the book, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing Bible study that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in this Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven. St. Elizabeth Seton will begin an eleven-week Bible study Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come on Tuesday, February 7 from 9 am to 11 am. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register contact Dcn. Jeffrey Arner at 623-866-5221 or jarner@sesc.org.

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history.

Feast day of St. Agnes January 21st

Agnes, you refused to give up your faith; help us to be proud of our faith, to love it, to be strong in it, and to give witness to it daily. St. Agnes, patron saint of children, watch over the children of the world; keep them safe from harm; be with them in their hour of need; and always pray for them.
Amen.

Don't wait—Please call the Parish Office at 623-972-2129, visit www.sescc.org, or see an usher to register today.
