Fourth Sunday of Easter:

The Good Shepherd:

“The sheep follow the Good Shepherd because they recognize his voice.”

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is always called Good Shepherd Sunday and is the traditional day of Vocations awareness. This image of The Good Shepherd is the enduring and shows God's care, love and mercy for all of us.

Nobody wants to be called a sheep. It has some strange connotations. But in the eyes of God, we are these most profoundly gentle and pastoral creatures.

The ideas of the good shepherd is as ancient as the Bible. Yet we see how little has changed over thousands of years: we still need good leadership in our world and in our Church.

Indeed it was St. John the Baptist who pointed Jesus out as “the Lamb of God Who takes away the sins of the World.”

If Jesus can be likened to a lamb, why can't we? There is something so essential about how God sees us and wants us to be gentle, meek, humble and kind.

As your shepherd, I have worked very hard to serve and protect you all and it has been an amazing experience, despite all challenges, and it is so good to see so many parishioners returning to St. Elizabeth Seton Church.

Each week, I have spread the table before you. I have anointed many heads and hands with oil; our cup overflows.

With the Good Shepherd, we always triumph!

You don't meet many shepherds in Sun City.

I met a real shepherd a few years ago up in Oregon, Dan Kraemer by name. It was a pleasure to know him. He was a good man and a good shepherd.

I will speak a little about Dan this Sunday.

Here is an excerpt from his 2017 obituary:

“Dan was a farmer, as was his father, and his grandfather. Though farming defined much of his life, it was only one part of who he was. It would be more accurate to say that his true callings were to nurture, to grow and to build. He built a farm alongside the entire extended Kraemer family; he was a voracious reader who never tired of learning new things, growing in spirit and knowledge until the day he left us; and he nurtured his crops, his animals, his family and, truly, anyone he ever met.

Dan possessed a warmth of spirit, a depth of character and a wealth of generosity which led him to help others wherever and whenever he could. Dan was the sort of man whose instinct was to share, to treat others with respect and equanimity, to trust others implicitly, and to forgive, always. Anyone who walked into his home was treated as an honored guest; anyone who spent enough time with him became a member of his family.”

The whole world needs to be evangelized with great examples of faith in action, with new ways, new enthusiasm and even languages.

However, a good shepherd has to first spend time with and listen to the voice of Jesus, the Good Shepherd and this comes through deep faith, Adoration and Prayer time.

Fourth Sunday of Easter –
April 30, 2023

Today we celebrate “Good Shepherd Sunday”, where we reflect on Jesus’ care and love and hear his words. “I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly.”

The theme of both the Gospel and the reading from St. Peter are that of the Good Shepherd who has a caring relationship with his sheep. He protects them and directs them gently back to the fold when they have gone astray.

When we visit our neighbors, we offer them concrete help with food, rent, utilities and more. As good shepherds, we accept them as they are and listen carefully to their needs and concerns. We also provide emotional and spiritual support and give guidance and advice as appropriate to their situation.

We’ve had a substantial increase in requests for assistance this month. We also note that our volunteers assembled 42 Easter baskets for a local assisted living facility to be opened on Easter morning. Thanks so much as always for giving us the resources to carry out our mission on behalf of our neighbors in need.

On June 3rd and 4th, we will hold a special drive for jeans and T-shirts to benefit our homeless neighbors. More details will be forthcoming.

Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either he will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it”

Our Lady of Fatima 1st Saturday Devotion at St. Elizabeth Seton is right after the 8:00 am mass

May 6, 2023

We in the Catholic Church today are called to make devotion to Mary part of how we live our faith and to share it in any way we can. Mary is the model of Christian discipleship, and of everything the Church is and hopes to become. Her Immaculate Heart reflects perfect faith, hope and love, the virtues that make us most like Christ.

Please join us after the 8:00 am mass this coming 1st Saturday for Devotion to Our Lady of Fatima

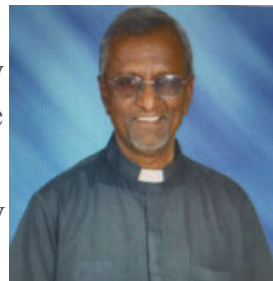

Special Pastor's Message: Moving On In July

As I mentioned at all Masses last weekend, our new Bishop John Dolan, has recently asked me to become the new Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Parish in Scottsdale, beginning on July 1st, 2023.

This was certainly a surprise development and it came out of the blue.

Bishop Dolan has also named Fr. David Kulandaisamy (pictured on the right) as Parochial Administrator of St. Elizabeth Seton Parish, also beginning on July 1st, 2023. Fr. David is a great priest and he is currently the Parochial Vicar (Associate Pastor) of St. Gabriel Parish in Cave Creek.

Fr. John Slobig worked with Fr. David at St. Gabriel's for two years and has a very high regard for him. I will have much more information on Fr. David soon.

Blessed Sacrament Parish is my home parish.

I moved to Phoenix almost 25 years ago and looked up the closest parish to where I lived.

I walked into Blessed Sacrament Church on Mothers' Day, May 10th of 1998 and I was made feel welcome immediately. It became my spiritual home and also the parish is where I truly discovered my vocation to the priesthood; it was where I first spoke with the-then Pastor, Fr. Patrick Robinson, and then applied to the Diocese of Phoenix Vocations Office with the view to becoming a seminarian; and it is also where I celebrated my First Mass on June 3rd, 2007 nearly 16 years ago. What a day that was!

It truly has been a wonderful six years serving you as your Pastor as St. Elizabeth Seton Parish and I am sad to be moving on, but I am not moving too far away. God Bless You All.
