Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

January 16, 2022

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 62: 1 - 5

Responsorial Psalm: 96: 1- 2, 2 - 3, 7 - 8, 9 - 10,

“Proclaim His marvelous deeds to all the nations.”

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12: 4 - 11

Gospel: John: 2: 1 - 11

If you were at the wedding at Cana, how do you think you'd respond if you watched the interaction between Mary and her Son?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

At Cana we meet Mary for the first time in John's gospel, and we hear the first and last words that she speaks in this gospel. Already there is a sense of separateness between the mother and the Son. John never refers to Jesus' mother by her personal name, nor does he do this when speaking of “the beloved disciple.” Both the ideal woman disciple and the ideal man are described only by their relationship to Jesus. The mother of the Lord is the discerning one who notices that the wine has run out. She stands before Jesus in the privileged role of mother and presents Him with the problem. Jesus' reply to her words have a note of rebuke as He calls her “Woman,” not the expected response to one's own mother. His mother is persevering, even in the pain of Jesus' response that amounts to telling her to keep out of it! The mother's faith in the words of the Word goes beyond understanding. Not understanding, not hoping, but believing—because “hope that sees for itself is not hope” the mother speaks to the stewards, “Do whatever He tells you.” We never hear her speak again in John's gospel.

In order to understand this, we have to look at the context. Mary and Jesus are at the wedding, which is a celebration of the entire community. Mary notices they have run out of wine. Could the bride and groom not afford more? Did they make a miscalculation when purchasing? Whatever the situation, Mary anticipates their embarrassment, realized this community celebration will be impacted, and makes a very big ask of her Son.
