GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

January 23, 2022

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Nehemiah 8: 2 - 4a, 5 - 6, 8 - 10

Responsorial Psalm: 19: 8, 9, 10, 15

"Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12: 12 - 14, 27

Gospel: Luke: 1: 1 - 4, 4: 14 - 21

How have you experienced the word of God being fulfilled in your own life?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

The opening passage from the Gospel of Luke centers us in the context of this story. Luke informs us that these are stories that go back to the eyewitnesses of Christ. This framing at the beginning of his gospel helps us understand how to approach the "reality" of the life of Christ.

In this gospel, Jesus is called up to the reading desk in the synagogue. The people are expectant: here is the hometown boy made good, with a teaching reputation already established throughout Galilee. They think they know Him, but Jesus is the Messiah, the anointed One, with the fullness of the Spirit upon Him. Born, baptized, proved the faithful Israelite par excellence in the wilderness, Jesus speaks forth as the prophet the words of Isaiah as a summary of His mission that He is about to begin.

"Rolling up the scroll, He handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at Him. He said to them, 'Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.'" Imagine the wonder that everyone seated must have felt. It reads like a movie script.

If you were sitting in the synagogue when your neighbor Jesus stood up and read this passage from Isaiah, how do you think you would react?
