January 23, 2022 - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

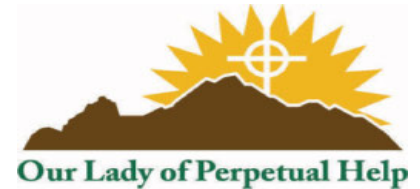

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

A Stewardship Resolution for the New Year.

Living with Compassion.

January is traditionally the time for new beginnings, fresh starts. For the Christian Steward, the grace of being given another day, or God willing, a whole new year, stirs our deep gratitude. But it also calls us to ask what a “resolution” should really be. Our first resolve should always be to involve ourselves more intimately in the life of Christ, and how better to do that than by embracing Christ’s call to be compassionate

After all, Jesus Himself instructed us, “Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate.” (Luke 6:36) Clearly, we strive now to live and give compassionately, as we generally understand the term. The word compassion means “to suffer with.” Suffering is not a popular notion in our society, and we strive to avoid it. But now we hear Christ instructing us to “suffer with” the poor, the vulnerable, the powerless, the neglected, the weak. All things are possible with God, and it is through a commitment to a life of discipline, discipline in action and discipline in prayer, that we move towards the goal of true compassion. Compassion is the doorway to a more responsive stewardship and a committed discipleship. Through our deepening sense of compassion in 2022, may we resolve to be the kind of Christian Stewards who bring Christ’s presence to a suffering world.

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

January 30, 2022

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jeremiah 1: 4 - 5, 17 - 19

Responsorial Psalm: 71: 1 - 2, 3 - 4, 5 - 6, 15, 17

"I will sing of your salvation."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 13: 4 - 13

Gospel: Luke: 4: 21 - 30

Is there any situation in which you would believe your neighbor if they imitated Jesus in this week's gospel?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

"When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury....But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away."

For Jesus' neighbors and colleagues in His hometown, a routine visit to the synagogue has turned into a shocking reveal. Jesus has stood up and read the prophecy from Isaiah about Himself. He then looks up and tells those gathered that the prophecy is fulfilled. He is telling His neighbors that He is, in fact, the Messiah. You can imagine how this may have come across as humorous, and then perhaps a little awkward for those listening. They knew Jesus. They have known Him His whole life. They knew Him so well that someone even whispered, "Isn't this Joseph's kid?"

Anticipating their rejection, He references the history of Elijah and Elisha, who were also rejected from their hometowns. But this is too much for the men of the town in the synagogue. "They rose up, drove Him out of town, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl Him down headlong." They have got Jesus backed up to a cliff, with the intention of throwing Him over. That's how immediate and all-consuming the threat of something radically new is to these townspeople. Jesus, the Messiah?

The animosity that Jesus will encounter throughout His life, the opposition that will lead Him to that terrible mission of martyrdom, seems to be concentrated into this event as the sign from Luke of what is to come.

St. Luke

The People of Nazareth

Tales from the Mission- "What's In A Name"

Imagine if our parish was named "The First Catholic Church of Scottsdale" or something more imaginative like "The Little White Mission on Brown." No. Not. Never. There seems to be a little book called the Rite of Dedication of a Church and an Altar, administered in conjunction with a couple of Canon Laws that prohibits such titles as previously cited. The seven options available will ensure that we will always attend Mass at a Saint Someone, a Holy Spirit, a name of the Trinity, a name for Christ, a name for Mary (that sounds familiar), or a holy Angel Catholic Church somewhere. The Diocesan Bishop will determine the name of a new church or parish based upon some personal conation. He will entertain suggestions, however, to what end that might persuade him. As noted in his biography, Msgr. Robert Donohoe reminded us that Bishop Daniel Gercke of Tucson chose the name of his first parish of St. Agnes because the Father was greatly influenced by a Mother Agnes who prayed for his missions while assigned to the Philippines. Again, with Bishop Gercke, we would like to presume that our Old Adobe Mission was given the name of "Our Lady of Perpetual Help" at the suggestion of our Fr. James P. Davis (the first diocesan priest to bring the mass to Scottsdale) due to incessant "politicking" by the ladies of the Catholic Society of Scottsdale. We may never know the truth about the naming of the first Catholic church in Scottsdale; the Diocese of Tucson has no documentation as to that event; and even worse, Archbishop James P. Davis retired in 1974 to live out the remaining 14 years of his life in Phoenix, and there is no record of anyone interviewing him about his early life in Tempe or building the first church in Scottsdale. Regardless, we have a trail set by a "miracle", "the Catholic Society ladies", and "a young endearing priest" that leads to our name. The Mexican community got their wish to have a church named after the Holy Mother, and we, the parishioners of OLP, will carry that distinction as ours, forever. (To be continued)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FIFTH SUNDAY COLLECTION

We recently helped a client in her sixties facing eviction. Through community assistance we were able to assist her in moving from her home where she and her family lived for many years. This was a very traumatic experience for her, but by the grace of God we were able to get the assistance to relocate her, storing her belongings until we can find a permanent home for her.

We at St Vincent de Paul seek through any and all means, including working with our community partners, to provide the best opportunity for our clients. In each case the need is different but we treat each client with respect and dignity. We have discovered that together we can accomplish great deeds for the benefit of our clients through your support, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Blessings of St Vincent de Paul who said, “Charity is the cement which binds Communities to God and persons to one another”.

Please give what you can in the 5th Sunday Collection next weekend.

If you have not donated to the Gospel of Life Appeal, there is still time! Kindly place your donation in the regular collection basket.

Thank you for your support & generosity!
