January 30, 2022 - Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

Dear Parishioners,

From February 11 through 13 an event called “SatanCon 2022” will be taking place at the Saguaro Hotel on Indian School Rd. As the name suggests, it is a conference for Satan worshipers. This is a sad statement that there are people willing to offer themselves to the darkness of evil.

Bishop Olmsted has asked that the faithful of the Diocese of Phoenix refrain from organizing or participating in any type of protest at the venue of the convention in order to not give them the attention that they seek. Instead, Bishop Olmsted is encouraging everyone to increase their prayers and sacrifices of reparation in the days leading up to the convention and immediately after.

On February 9, 10, and 11, I will be leading a Holy Hour in the church beginning at 3:00 pm, the Hour of Mercy. We will begin by praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and then pray the Holy Rosary, the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, and have some quiet before the Eucharistic Lord. We will cover this area with prayer so that the Light of Christ shines through the darkness. Please come if you are able to attend.

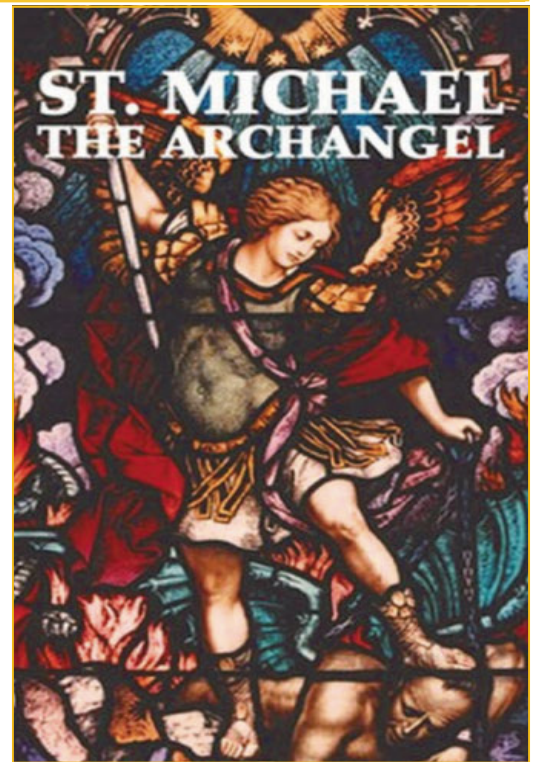

In the Peace of Christ,

Fr. Greg Menegay

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host - by the Power of God - cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Celebrate Catholic Schools Week at OLPH

What is the Mission of our Catholic School?

Our school is a community of Jesus' disciples growing in knowledge, love, and service. We are committed to academic excellence, loving one another, and serving people beyond ourselves.

Let us pray...

God of knowledge and faith, thank you for the opportunity to go to a Catholic school.

When I go to Mass, I hear that knowledge is so important.

Thank you for my parents and grandparents who have built our school and supported it throughout the years.

Help me to be a good student and to become a good supporter of my parish, city, and country. Please bless all those men and women who have spent their lives teaching in our Catholic schools.

Please bless my friends and teachers I learn with every day.

I ask for all these blessings in the name of God's Son, Jesus.

Amen.

Dear Friends of OLPH,

It's the exciting time of year again when we get to announce our annual spring fundraiser! We will be hosting our annual Springfest on campus the night of Saturday, March 19, 2022. Our event is a wonderful opportunity for OLPH community to come together in celebration, but also to bring our efforts together to support the future of our school. This year's Springfest, A Starry Night in Venice, will include a silent auction with a wide variety of exciting items to bid on, as well as an exciting live auction after dinner.

All proceeds from this important fundraiser will benefit Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic School. There is a great need to support our operating budget, as well as fulfill our financial commitments for ongoing campus improvements. We are asking for your support with this amazing opportunity to help enrich the lives of our students from Preschool to 8th grade. There are various ways in which you can participate:

1. Sponsor the event or underwrite an auction item;
2. Donate an item or service to the silent auction;
3. Purchase a ticket for the Annual Springfest Tuition Raffle, beginning Friday, February 25th;
4. Purchase a ticket to attend the Springfest event the night of Saturday, March 19th;
5. Participate in the auction online the night of Springfest, March 19th.

OLPH is a 501(c)(3) organization. Your donation is tax deductible. The Donor Form serves as a receipt and tax ID for your records.

Please direct questions regarding this event to Springfest@olphaz.org.

Thank you in advance for your generosity and continued support of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic School.

Sincerely,

Donna Lauro
Principal

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

February 6, 2022

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jeremiah 1: 4 - 5, 17 - 19

Responsorial Psalm: 71: 1 - 2, 3 - 4, 5 - 6, 15, 17

"I will sing of your salvation."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 13: 4 - 13

Gospel: Luke: 4: 21 - 30

If an angel handed you an ember and told you to purge one sinful tendency from your life, what would you choose?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

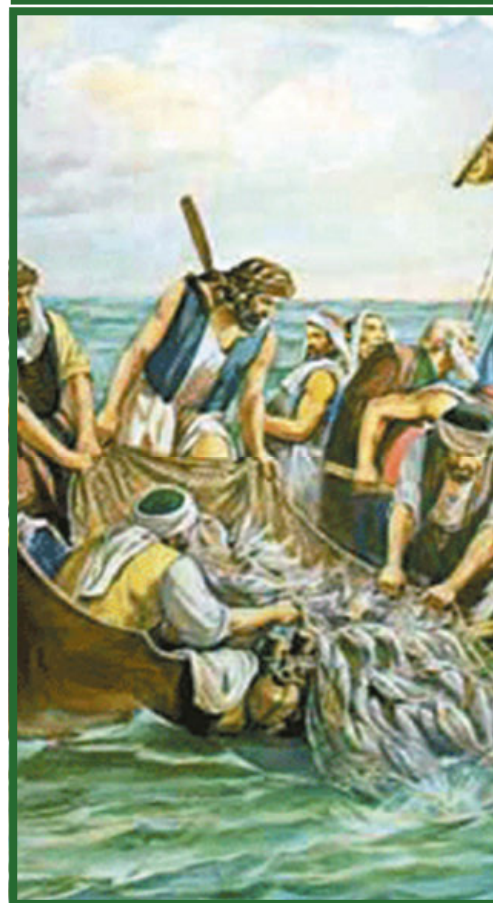

As we started to journey through Ordinary Time, we met Jesus beginning His public ministry. Today, we hear His call to His first disciples to follow Him and companion Him in this ministry. In the gospel, Jesus is standing on the lakeside with a crowd pressing around Him to hear the word of God. Significantly, Peter and his companions are not part of this crowd. They are tending to their nets after an unprofitable night's fishing. Then Jesus Himself becomes a "fisherman." He gets into Simon's boat, hauls this probably nonplussed man in with Him, and puts out a short way from the shore to continue teaching the crowd. After that, Jesus addresses His words to Simon only, telling him to launch out into the deep and put down his nets for a catch. Simon is certain, based on his experience, that there is nothing to catch. However, he gives it a try. This deference to Jesus is exemplary of our faith, but this week, maybe focus on the final event of this story: once Simon's boat begins to fill, he calls his colleagues to help him. Simon could have kept this to himself. He had a big take. He'd likely be the only person with fish to sell the next day. Instead, his reaction is to tell his colleagues about the opportunity he has found. They set out into the water, and both boats are filled so heavy with fish that they can barely keep them afloat.

What Jesus does is crush Simon's expectations. Simon, like any fisherman, has learned how to read the signs of the sea and knows what works and what doesn't. But Jesus encourages him to try one more time. The result is abundance.

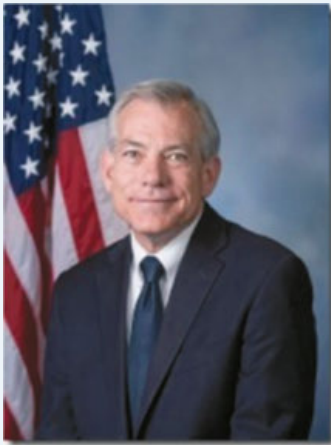

St. Luke

Catching the great number of fish.

THE MEN OF OLPH - FEATURED SPEAKER OF THE MONTH

David Schweikert
U.S. Representative

All parishioners are cordially invited to meet for a continental breakfast, and hear our invited speaker, next Saturday, February 5th starting at 9 am. We will attend 8:30 Mass together. At 9 am, all interested parishioners are invited to Padre Kino Hall for a lite snack and our guest speaker this month, U.S. Representative David Schweikert.

David grew up in Scottsdale, graduating from Saguaro High in 1980. He then earned a BS degree in finance and real estate and an MBA from ASU. By the age of 30, he was serving as Majority Whip in the Arizona State Legislature. After being out of public life for 14 years building a successful Arizona business, David was elected to serve as Treasurer of Maricopa County. Sent to the US House in 2010, he is now serving his sixth term in the US Congress. David and his wife, Joyce, enjoy backpacking and spending time outdoors with their daughter.

Sodality Meeting ~ Happy New Year!

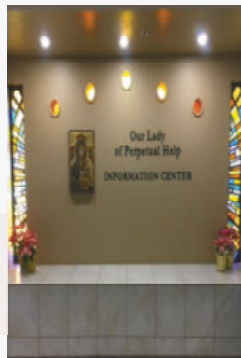

All women of the Parish are cordially invited to our first meeting of the New Year on Saturday, February 12th. We will attend 8:30 am Mass together then gather in Padre Kino Hall. Come join us for fellowship & refreshments.

Hope to see you there!

TALES FROM THE MISSION #11 (The First Mass – 15 October 1933)

Five years of prayers, hope, anticipation, and hard labor seemed like a long-forgotten issue to the citizens of the Mexican Barrio of South Scottsdale this day. The sun was already high in the late morning sky with the promise of being the best day that God ever made. It was the 15th of October 1933, a large, excited crowd had gathered in front of the small church, gleaming in its bright limestone white exterior. Fr. James Davis arrived from Tempe to conduct the first Mass to be performed at what one day would be called The Old Adobe Mission. He went straight to the Sacristy where a small wardrobe held the priest's and altar boys' vestments, careful to dodge the bell rope that hung from the center of the ceiling. Someone pulled on the bell rope and the result was a reverberating sound as if originating in Heaven. The doors were opened and the throng began to file inside, all dressed in their finest clothing, clambering to be the first inside, as if they had never seen the interior before, as if they had not spent untold hours, days and years creating this miracle themselves. The first thing that hit you upon entering was the smell of the Adobe bricks, mixed in with the smell of the wood emanating from the newly built pews (the pews were provided by the members themselves and built to the size of each family). You didn't look down at the packed dirt floor, rather you tried to concentrate on the blue slate laid down the center aisle, also along the walls under the windows, by a couple of thoughtful Corral brothers. The altar was a small wooden box at the front of the nave; not to worry as there was a new and freshly pressed cloth covering it. A small crucifix sat on the altar. Remember the promise of the Catholic Society? A single picture of the Holy Mother hung on the wall above the altar. The stained-glass windows glistened. Rather bare bones indeed; however, the look of pride on the faces of the participants appeared as if they were inside the greatest cathedral on earth. Father Davis stepped forward and made the Sign of the Cross ... it was like the hand of God had reached down and touched everyone inside. (To Be Continued)
