Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Lent calls us into deeper everyday stewardship because it beautifully creates opportunities to be mindful of the call of Christ in even the most mundane moments of our day.

Many of us will participate in the time-honored tradition of doing penance, or “giving something up” for Lent. When we do this, we are mimicking the Israelites who filled their baskets with the first fruits of their harvest, “and having set them before the Lord, your God, (bowing) down in his presence” (Deuteronomy 26:10).

What are we going to bring before the Lord this Lent? What are our first fruits?

If you’re struggling with ideas for how to “fill your basket,” it can help to come at the problem from the opposite side. Take a look at the six characteristics of Everyday Stewardship and think about the moments in your day when you fail to fulfill the virtues to which they call you.

What is keeping you from being mindful of the call of Christ throughout your day? I promise you, if you listen, you’ll hear it more than once.

What is keeping you from being prayerful? When you have set your first fruits before the Lord, what keeps you from bowing down in His presence to finish the offering?

What keeps you from being grateful — especially of the small things that so often go unnoticed?

What keeps you from being gracious, from leaving people smiling as they walk away?

What keeps you from being committed and accountable? Where do your excuses come from and what makes you indulge them?

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

March 13, 2022
Second Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Genesis 15: 5 - 12, 17 - 18

Responsorial Psalm: 27: 1, 7 - 8, 8 - 9, 13 - 14

“The Lord is my light and my salvation.”

Second Reading: Philippians 3: 17 - 4:1

Gospel: Luke: 9: 28b - 36

Do our own experiences and prejudices and biases keep us from fully encountering God?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

This was probably an awesome and terrifying scene for Peter, John, and James. They wake up and their friend Jesus is talking with long-dead heroes, in a cloud of glory. It is almost as if they stumbled into a private meeting of the divine. Peter's reaction is rash but not illogical; he suggests building tents (what we would call altars) to honor three superheroes standing in front of him. What else could he do? We get another encounter with Peter's humanity when Luke tells us, "But he did not know what he was saying."

Part of our own transformation, just like that of the disciples, is our awareness and alertness of the presence of God. Our pilgrim legs have to be strong for both climbs, and though we may not always recognize it, the "mountaintop" experiences are often occasions where God allows us to catch our breath for the next and harder ascents.
