April 10, 2022 - Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

O MY GOD,
*why have you
abandoned me?*
PSALM 22

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Christ could have spoken anything from the cross, so why did he choose to recite Psalm 22? And why is it so important that we recite that same Psalm at today's Mass?

“My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?”

We've never known the Jesus of the Gospels to doubt the will of God. We've never known him to be a defeatist or to give into feelings of despair. He's the hero who walks on water, the Savior who is welcomed to Jerusalem with a pathway of palms. And he knows how this story ends; he knows full well that his Father has absolutely not abandoned him.

So why does he say this? Jesus doesn't make offhanded comments, especially in his last hour. Today, when we repeat the words that he calls out in his darkest moment, we must remember that he wants us, very particularly, to consider them.

With his crucifixion, Jesus reminds us of his humanity. He is a man of flesh that can be torn and blood that can be shed. Somehow, in tandem with his divinity, he still possesses a heart that knows fear and pain and longing. And with this seemingly hopeless cry, he reminds us of that.

Let us never doubt that Jesus can relate to us in our brokenness. This is the week, friends. This is the week that reminds us that our God is a God who knows every pang, every trembling, and every uncertainty of human life. Our God knows what abandonment feels like. He knows what rejection feels like. He knows what it is to keep going when the strength and the will has disappeared.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

“Lent is a journey of healing, to live each day with a renewed spirit, a different ‘style’. Prayer, charity and fasting are aids to this: they restore us to a living relationship with God, our brothers and sisters and ourselves.”

— Pope Francis

My dear Parishioners of Our Lady of Perpetual Help,

It is with deep sorrow and humble acceptance of God's will, that we announce the death of Fr. Mike Boyle on the evening of Sunday, April 3, 2022.

May his soul and the souls of all faithful departed, rest in peace.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Greg

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

April 17, 2022

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

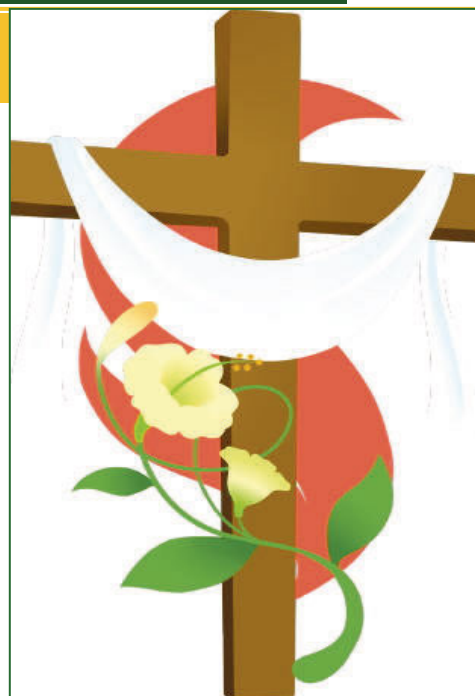

First Reading: Acts 10: 34a, 37 - 43

Responsorial Psalm: 118: 1 - 2, 16 - 17, 22 - 23

"This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice & be glad."

Second Reading: Colossians 3: 1 - 4

Gospel: John 20: 1 - 9

In your own life, who are the people you turn to when you are experiencing difficult times or new challenges?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

Mary Magdalene is not running back to her friends and telling them Jesus has risen from the dead. Instead, she is mortified that someone has stolen His body from His grave. The apostles are in devastating grief when they encounter the reality of Jesus' resurrection. They watched someone they love dearly die violently. Not only are they experiencing the trauma of losing Jesus but there is also the fear that they will be next. To be presented with the reality that Jesus actually rose from the dead, and is really the Messiah, requires emotional whiplash. Peter and John are putting the pieces together slowly. As you encounter the celebration of Easter this year, allow yourself to sympathize with the apostles' human journey through the Triduum.

We are likely familiar with the expression "pull out all the stops." It implies that we should do everything possible, to make an experience or pursuit of a particular goal as full and complete as possible. And, if there's ever a time to liturgically pull out all the stops, it is Easter!

So on this Easter Day, let us sit with Simon Peter and the Beloved Disciple in this empty tomb, having been drawn there by Mary. Let us ponder the meaning of this extraordinary event and believe. We have the rest of our lives to unpack and better understand what that entails.

HE IS RISEN!

The Mystery of the Empty Tomb
