TREASURES OF THE MISSION #19 (Way of the Cross)

Our Mission displays the unique and iconic "Way of the Cross" as painted by Arizona's most famous artist, Ted DeGrazia of Tucson. There may not be another church in the world that displays all 15 of the DeGrazia "Way of the Cross" prints as their Stations of the Cross. Unique in that DeGrazia did not believe that the Way of the Cross was completed without a painting of a 15th station, "The Resurrection". The DeGrazia prints were a gift to the Mission by the late wonderful parishioner Barbara Hartz. George and Barbara Hartz were close friends with Ted DeGrazia, and it was Barbara who assisted the artist in sales of his paintings when he visited Scottsdale. It was George who purchased the paintings as a remembrance of her collaboration with the artist. Barbara Hartz was a kind and loving person as witnessed with those whom she associated. Her apartment at The Beatitudes in Phoenix, while she was alive, was filled with a myriad of photographs of herself with Saint Mother Teresa as testimony of her volunteer work with the Missionaries of Charity. Barbara assisted Mother Teresa in establishing her charity when she first arrived in New York City in the early 1970's and then again visited with her when Mother Teresa came to Phoenix in 1987 to bless a new convent for the Missionaries of Charity, finally again on the Saint's last visit in 1989. Barbara Hartz passed into Eternal Life in April 2020. Her gift is greatly admired by of our many visitors.

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

October 30, 2022

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 11: 22, - 12: 2

Responsorial Psalm: 145: 1 - 2, 8 - 9, 10 - 11, 13, 14

"I will praise your name forever, my king and my God."

Second Reading: 2 Thess 1: 11 - 2: 2

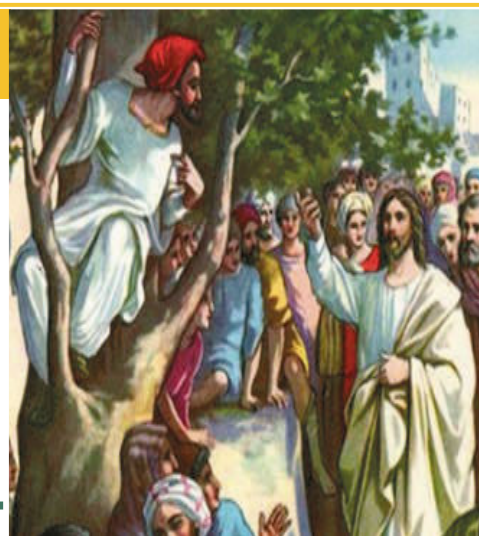

Gospel: Luke 19: 1 - 10

Have you ever desired something so much that you've gone to ridiculous lengths to get there?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

Jesus passes through the city of Jericho and into Zacchaeus' life, plucking him from the tree like good fruit ripe for discipleship. He looks up and sees Zacchaeus, and the urgency of his call adds to the vitality of this encounter. Even with the crowd following Him, Jesus stops for just one person, up a tree, and calls him by name. He tells Zacchaeus to hurry and come down, because Jesus must stay at his house, and do so today. Zacchaeus responds to Jesus' call with eager joy and ready hospitality that shines out against the dark background of the crowd's judgmental murmuring. The murmurers oppose both Jesus and Zacchaeus; they are not able to see either of them for what they really are. Jesus does not question Zacchaeus' dealings; Jesus just accepts his seeking and his longing to see Him. Jesus invites Himself to Zacchaeus' house; He is host rather than guest, offering the tax collector the hospitality of salvation and calling him a "descendant of Abraham." The murmuring crowd is nameless, and we can ask ourselves if we are in its midst: rejecting others because of prejudice and cynical superiority that "knows" what certain people are like and that they cannot change. Yet Jesus keeps company with "the lost," and the vividness of the account gives Zacchaeus a very human face.

Jesus longs to be welcomed into our homes, our parishes, our communities and to be received there with joy.

Zacchaeus

The Son of Man has come to seek and save what was lost

Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." - Lk 19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCC.
