Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

Embracing a Disciple's Mindset for the New Year

Christian disciples may very well interpret the greeting “Happy New Year” to mean: “I hope and pray for you a joyous year ahead in proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ!” If we are to interpret this cheery salutation in that way, should we not consider similar greetings throughout the year?

“Happy New Day!” In the lyrics of the popular gospel song “Oh, Happy Day!” we are reminded that Jesus taught us “... how to live rejoicing every day.” Be grateful for each of God’s amazing days.

“Happy New Week!” The motto of many is to Live for the Weekend. Why not live for the entire week? Let’s resolve to make a difference in our lives and the lives of others in our homes, offices and schools each week of the year.

“Happy New Month!” As we examine our monthly planners and budgets, we should ask ourselves: Have I left room for Jesus Christ this month? How can I be a good steward of God’s gifts in the coming month? What am I willing to do this month for the sake of the Gospel?

As we turn over 2022 to the history books, let’s approach 2023 with renewed vigor. Let us see the days, weeks and months for the God-given gifts they truly are: “Happy New Year!”

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Play That One Again

How many times have you sung the church song, “Here I Am, Lord”? If you grew up Catholic and are around my age (still 50!), the answer is more than you can count. The song that quotes various verses of Scripture is sung using guitar, piano, or organ, by cantors and choirs, in traditional and modern churches. It is truly a Catholic greatest hit of the modern Church. The question is how many times when singing the refrain have you really taken to heart what you were singing.

“Here I am, Lord; is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night.” Like the biblical figure Samuel, we are responding to the call of God by asking for clarification that we are indeed the one being called. We then follow up the question with a profound statement: “I will go if You lead me.” It is profound because we are pledging to our God that we are willing to go wherever He wants. We are accepting the challenge put forth in the U.S. Bishops’ pastoral letter, “Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response,” to become mature disciples who respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We have sung this pledge repeatedly for many years.

We never have any idea what God will call us to do and where to go. Sometimes the request can ask us for quite a lot. Hopefully, we respond like a mature disciple. If not, maybe we should reflect more the next time this song is played. The melody will not allow for the words, “I will see if I am busy and then decide to go if you lead me.” Then again, I don’t want to sing that to God, the source of all life anyway. Do you?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

January 22, 2023

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 8: 23 - 9:3

Responsorial Psalm: 27: 1, 4, 13 - 14

"The Lord is my light and my salvation."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1: 10 - 13, 17

Gospel: Matthew 4: 12 - 23

What have you been called to give up to follow Jesus? Do you find these sacrifices easy or hard?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

Three verbs at the end of the gospel summarize Jesus' ministry: teaching, proclaiming, curing. This gives us a preview of His years of active work; this is what we can expect of Jesus' ministry. Names are also important in this gospel: these place names remind us that Jesus' ministry took place in the real world, in a place with a history and a people. New characters are also identified by name: Simon who is called Peter, his brother Andrew; James and John, the sons of Zebedee. These are real people in real places. They have family ties and daily tasks. And Jesus calls them by name. He comes to them right where they are, in all realness and fullness of their lives, and He calls them to something greater.

Jesus calls the disciples in pairs—a powerful reminder that discipleship happens in community. Jesus calls the disciples in ordinary moments—a valuable reminder for this time between the end of Christmas and the start of Lent. Each of us brings particular gifts, but those gifts are not meant to be isolated from others. Christ calls each of us to follow Him in communion with fellow believers, just as He did with Simon, Andrew, James, and John. Together, we can further Christ's work of proclaiming the gospel to the ends of the earth.
