Vision Statement

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a community of growing disciples inspiring others to know Jesus and deepen their personal relationship with Him. Transformed by the power of His Word and Eucharist, we are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives. Enthusiastic in our faith, together we worship, grow, serve, connect and give.

Purpose Statement

To lead people to Jesus Christ and inspire His disciples by Word and Sacrament to be sent as His apostles to share our faith and transform society.

Our Mission Statement

Growing Disciples by Loving God and our Neighbor.

PRAYER FOR FATHERS

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty.
You supported the Holy Family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you.
You know their aspirations,
their hardships, their hopes.
They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them.

You too knew trial,
labor and weariness.
But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone.
Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

-St. John XXIII

June 18, 2023

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees.

~ Father John Muir

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

June 25, 2023

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Jer 20: 10 - 13

Responsorial Psalm: 69: 8 - 10, 14, 17, 33 - 35

"Lord, in your great love, answer me."

Second Reading: Rom 5: 12 - 15

Gospel: Matt 10: 26 - 33

Have you experienced suffering because of your faith in Jesus? What was it like?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

In today's gospel reading, before the disciples are sent out to share the mission of Jesus, they must dare to listen to Him explain the tough demands of that mission. Three times Jesus tells them not to be afraid: not to fear those who (in the previous verse) malign them, or disregard them as worthless, or can injure and even kill them. Jesus has gathered them as a community of disciples and sown His work in the soil of their hearts so that it may push through this darkness and bear fruit by their proclamation of the gospel.

Just as Jesus trusts His Father, so it is to be with His disciples. Their one Father is so aware of His beloved creation that He is even aware of the death of the insignificant and dispensable little sparrows that are the cheapest food of the poor. Jesus says that if God has this concern for sparrows, how much more will he be concerned with life and death of human beings. This greater concern is imaged as that of a caring parent who knows so much about their children—even the number of hairs on their head—and will take care of them.

This mission is true and trustworthy and worth the pain it will bring. More importantly, they do not go alone; they are accompanied always by a God who knows all and sees all and loves them intimately.

But God sees and notices each of them individually, and God's care for us is many orders of magnitude more.

Be Not Afraid

God is with you always

What is a Cursillo?

The Cursillo movement is a Catholic-based training program that started in Majorca, Spain, in the 1940s. A group of men put together a week-long training event for Catholics preparing to make a pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. James at Compostela. Later, the training was shortened to three days and adapted to target change in community life rather than prepare for pilgrimage. The full title of the event was Cursillos de Cristiandad, which means “little courses in Christianity” or “short course of Christianity.” The Cursillo movement spread from Spain to Mexico and South America, then to French-speaking Canada, and then around the world. Today, Cursillo weekends are held in more than 60 countries.

Over the course of three days (Thursday evening to Sunday), participants (called “cursillistas”) listen to fifteen different spiritual talks about the Christian life. Leaders of Cursillo emphasize the non-academic nature of the course: the talks relate real-life experiences, which become the basis for small-group discussions. Along with the testimonies are times of music, prayer, fellowship, privacy and meditation.

Jerusalem Marketplace Vacation Bible School begins tomorrow, Monday, June 19th.

Please pray for our VBS participants and team as we learn about Jesus' great love for us.

A Prayer for Jerusalem Marketplace

Dear God,

As we gather to experience the Jerusalem Marketplace, may our days together lead the participants and team to new friendships, new activities, new insights, and stronger relationships with You. May all the participants and the team learn to live out the prayer that they will learn during the week:

“Hear O Israel! Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your might. Love your neighbor as yourself. Amen.”

Bless us, Lord, as we seek to learn from your Word and to share your love. Send the VBS Team and participants out from our time together with the courage to show the world what we have learned at Jerusalem Marketplace.

Amen.
