Getting to Know our New Parochial Vicar Fr. Gabriel Sabado Ordained: June 3, 2023

Fr. Gabriel grew up in Michigan, just outside of Detroit. He received his degree in nursing and moved to Arizona. In his work as a geriatric and hospice nurse, Fr. Gabriel saw many patients who desired reconciliation with their loved ones. He said he began to feel himself drawn toward not just bodily healing, but spiritual healing, too. At a moment of clarity he began to hear the call to seminary, something that was not even on his radar during high school or college. "The Lord revealed this deep love for me, and I experienced this overwhelming sense of peace that I remember having when I was in third grade and wanted to be a priest," Fr. Gabriel said.

"When I look back, I see that everything that I thought I wanted to be growing up, it finds a fuller meaning in the priesthood. It's like bringing the fullness of Jesus Christ—the word made flesh, the healer, the shepherd—bringing that to people."

Welcome Fr. Gabriel to the OLPH Family

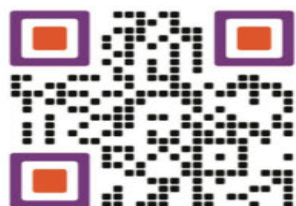

Because of you, life doesn't stop.

We had a very successful Vacation Bible School Week

Jesus is King!

Jesus showed God's Love!

Jesus Loves Us!

Jesus Died for Us!

Jesus Lives!

And in all that we do, we need to "TRUST JESUS!"

Prepare Yourself for Next Sunday's Mass

July 9, 2023

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

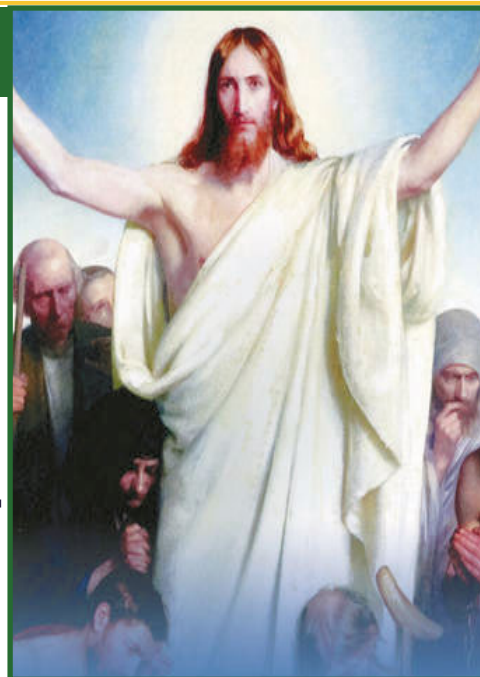

First Reading: Zech 9: 9 - 10

Responsorial Psalm: 145: 1 - 2, 8 - 9, 10 - 11, 13 - 14

"I will praise your name forever, my king and my God."

Second Reading: Rom 8: 9, 11 - 13

Gospel: Matt 11: 25 - 30

How do you honor God's invitations—and even commands—to rest?

Going Deeper to Understand the Gospel

In the verses from Matthew's Gospel that come immediately before the passage we hear today, Jesus has reproached the cities that rejected Him. But then out of this lamentation there erupts His hymn of praise and thanks to His father for the "little ones," those who have no status but can recognize in Jesus the One who is "gracious and merciful, / slow to anger and of great kindness." He lifts up the fallen and those who are burdened. As Jesus has just told John the Baptist's disciples, a sign of the messianic times would be preaching to and welcoming of the good news by the poor and disadvantaged. These words are for Jesus' immediate audience who are struggling with the religious authorities fifty years or more after Jesus' death and resurrection.

After several weeks of affirming the challenges of following Him, Jesus offers here a word of consolation. "My yoke is easy, and my burden light" does not sound like it aligns well with all we have been hearing about persecution and suffering.

Following Jesus is in fact a joyful thing; this is the God who loves us desperately and wants nothing but our good. Jesus wants peace for us; He promises peace for us. This peace comes at many different levels: between nations, between individuals, and within our own hearts.

Come all who labor and are burdened

Jesus, Son of God

What is a Cursillo?

The Cursillo movement is a Catholic-based training program that started in Majorca, Spain, in the 1940s. Over the course of three days (Thursday evening to Sunday), participants (called "cursillistas") listen to fifteen different spiritual talks about the Christian life. Leaders of Cursillo emphasize the non-academic nature of the course: the talks relate real-life experiences, which become the basis for small-group discussions. Along with the testimonies are times of music, prayer, fellowship, privacy and meditation.
