Pastoral Reflections - from the desk of Fr. Andrew Carl Wisdom, O.P.

Greetings St. Dominic Family members:

A parishioner I anointed last month said to me: "Father, I'm ready to see Jesus. I just hope Jesus is ready to see me." Brothers and Sisters, Jesus is always ready to see us! It is we who are not always available to Him, distracted and preoccupied with the challenges of life. Too often, we are caught up in other outside dramas and miss the internal drama of God's love-making and remaking our hearts after his own. I will often tease my many siblings when they share the latest drama in their lives, rebuking them: "Isn't the paschal drama enough for you?!" Their response is not printable.

In this weekend's readings, the Pharisees are caught up in the external drama of all their minute regulations for purity and worship. They forget what real religion is: "to live listening for God, (to echo Pope Emeritus Benedict)." This means we need to look within and allow God to purify our motives rather than, like the Pharisees, concentrating externally on being "looking good" machines. The Word of God challenges us to not focus on looking good but doing good by being not simply "hearers of the Word," but "Doers of the Word." For all those of you who not only heard the word from within or without calling you to step up and serve as pastoral council members, we are truly grateful.

Thanks as well to all in our parish community who contributed to the process!

Reflexiones Pastorales - del escritorio del Andrew Carl Wisdom, O.P.

Saludos a los miembros de la familia de Santo Domingo:

Un feligrés al que ungué el mes pasado me dijo: "Padre, estoy listo para ver a Jesús. Sólo espero que Jesús esté listo para verme". Hermanos y hermanas, ¡Jesús siempre está dispuesto a vernos! Somos nosotros los que no siempre estamos disponibles para Él, distraídos y preocupados por los retos de la vida. Con demasiada frecuencia, nos vemos envueltos en otros dramas externos y nos perdemos el drama interno de que Dios nos ama y rehace nuestros corazones a su manera. A menudo me burlo de mis muchos hermanos cuando comparten el último drama de sus vidas, reprendiéndolos: "¿No os basta con el drama pascual?". Su respuesta no es imprimible.

En las lecturas de este fin de semana, los fariseos están atrapados en el drama externo de todas sus minúsculas normas de pureza y culto. Olvidan lo que es la verdadera religión: "vivir escuchando a Dios, (haciendo eco del Papa emérito Benedicto)". Esto significa que tenemos que mirar hacia dentro y permitir que Dios purifique nuestros motivos en lugar de, como los fariseos, concentrarnos externamente en ser máquinas de "quedar bien". La Palabra de Dios nos desafía a no centrarnos en quedar bien, sino en hacer el bien siendo no simplemente "oidores de la Palabra", sino "hacedores de la Palabra". Para todos aquellos que no sólo escucharon la palabra desde dentro o desde fuera llamándolos a dar un paso adelante y servir como miembros del consejo pastoral, estamos verdaderamente agradecidos.

¡Gracias también a todos los miembros de nuestra comunidad parroquial que han contribuido al proceso!
