Pastoral Reflections - from the desk of Fr. Luke Barder, O.P.

Happy Sunday!

This weekend we welcome special guest Fr. Patrick Tobin, OP. Currently, he is the Director of our Shrine of St. Jude in Chicago, but come January, he will be our new Parochial Vicar! As Fr. Andrew Carl moves back to Chicago, Fr. Patrick will make St. Dominic's home. He has come to Denver to fill in while ministry takes me across the border to Mexico this week. Please give Fr. Patrick your welcome, moving his heart to be excited to serve us here in Denver!

This coming week, we also remember the 20th Anniversary of September 11th. Over these past two decades, various events have opened our world, minds, eyes, and hearts. We have simultaneously seen the best and worst of what humanity has to offer. Let it be the LORD who is our center, and train our minds and souls to orient ourselves always to Him.

On Wednesday, Sept. 8th, Pat Murnane, a retired NYPD officer on duty in Manhattan on 9/11, will reflect upon her experience. Join us at 7 pm via Zoom (link to be distributed on website and other platforms).

God Bless Us All!

Liturgy Corner

Isaiah, the prophet, gives us a prediction of what will happen, and Jesus makes that a reality. St. James gives us good advice about judging strangers.

This Labor Day weekend, let's take a moment to thank someone who, through their labor, helped us or formed us. Perhaps a parent, grandparent, or teacher. Speaking of teachers, we celebrate Catechetical Sunday next week, where we will acknowledge and bless the catechists who will teach in Religious Education and RCIA. - Gerard

Reflexiones Pastorales - del escritorio del Luke Barder, O.P.

¡Feliz domingo!

Este fin de semana damos la bienvenida al invitado especial, el Padre Patrick Tobin, OP. Actualmente, es el Director de nuestro Santuario de San Judas en Chicago, pero a partir de enero, será nuestro nuevo Vicario Parroquial. Como el Padre Andrew Carl se traslada de nuevo a Chicago, el Padre Patrick se convertirá en el hogar de Santo Domingo. Ha venido a Denver para sustituirme mientras el ministerio me lleva al otro lado de la frontera, a México, esta semana. Por favor, denle la bienvenida a Fr. Patrick, ¡moviendo su corazón para que esté emocionado de servirnos aquí en Denver!

Esta semana que viene, también recordamos el 20 aniversario del 11 de septiembre. Durante estas dos décadas, varios eventos han abierto nuestro mundo, nuestras mentes, nuestros ojos y nuestros corazones. Hemos visto simultáneamente lo mejor y lo peor de lo que la humanidad puede ofrecer. Dejemos que sea el SEÑOR quien sea nuestro centro, y entrenemos nuestras mentes y almas para orientarnos siempre hacia Él.

El miércoles 8 de septiembre, Pat Murnane, agente de policía de Nueva York jubilada que estaba de servicio en Manhattan el 11 de septiembre, reflexionará sobre su experiencia. Únase a nosotros a las 7 pm a través de Zoom (enlace que se distribuirá en el sitio web y otras plataformas).

¡Que Dios nos bendiga a todos!

Rincón de la Liturgia

Isaías, el profeta, nos da una predicción de lo que sucederá, y Jesús lo hace realidad. Santiago nos da un buen consejo sobre cómo juzgar a los extraños.

Este fin de semana del Día del Trabajo, dediquemos un momento a agradecer a alguien que, con su trabajo, nos ayudó o nos formó. Quizás un padre, un abuelo o un profesor. Hablando de maestros, la semana que viene celebramos el Domingo Catequético, donde reconoceremos y bendeciremos a los catequistas que enseñarán en Educación Religiosa y RCIA. - Gerard
