Pastoral Reflexions from the desk of Fr. Luke Barder, O.P.

Happy Sunday! I have to say, I am sick and tired of being away so much. September was a whirlwind of a month, but upon my return to Denver TOMORROW (Oct 4), I will come back refreshed, having just been on retreat, and able to regale you with joyful stories of baptizing my Nephew, Niece, and new Godson!

The longing for stability, rest, comfort, nurture, solace, wholeness... these desires inform our actions. There is a natural pull toward these, as we here in Genesis this weekend. We are drawn to that which completes us. On the other hand, Jesus points out that sometimes we pursue the good things in a not-so-good way, because of the immediacy of our desires: "I want fulfillment NOW!" We must remember, pleasure and happiness are not the same thing.

Sacrifice, discipline, patience...these are not bad things, and can quite lead us to a greater happiness in the end. Let us not be afraid of the things that may cause temporary displeasure, and strive for the better things that bring us ultimate fulfillment.

God Bless Us All!
Fr. Luke Barder, O.P.

Reflexiones pastorales - del escritorio del P. Luke Barder, O.P.

¡Feliz domingo! Tengo que decir que estoy fastidiado y cansado de estar tanto tiempo fuera. ¡Septiembre fue un remolino de un mes, pero a mi regreso a Denver MAÑANA (4 de octubre), voy a volver renovado, después de haber sido en un retiro, y capaz de contarles historias alegres del bautizo de mi sobrino, sobrina, y nuevo ahijado!

El anhelo de estabilidad, de descanso, de comodidad, de nutrición, de consuelo, de plenitud... estos deseos inspiran nuestras acciones. Hay una atracción natural hacia ellos, como la que tenemos aquí en el Génesis este fin de semana. Nos sentimos atraídos por lo que nos completa. Por otro lado, Jesús señala que a veces perseguimos las cosas buenas de una manera no tan buena, debido a la inmediatez de nuestros deseos: "¡Quiero la plenitud YA!". Debemos recordar que el placer y la felicidad no son lo mismo.

El sacrificio, la disciplina, la paciencia... no son cosas malas, y pueden llevarnos a una mayor felicidad al final. No tengamos miedo de las cosas que pueden causar un disgusto temporal, y luchemos por las cosas mejores que nos traen la plenitud final.

Dios los bendiga!
Fr. Luke Barder, O.P.
