Pastoral Reflections from the desk of our Pastor Fr. Luke Barder, O.P.

Merry Christmas! Who has received a "spare tire" for Christmas? Santa brought me "love handles ;)" Its an odd year, not very frequent, when Christmas falls on a Saturday, then the next day we jump right into the Feast of the Holy Family! This year, though, has been odd in that, together with the whole of the Archdiocese, spent our Advent submerging ourselves in the Gospel. That question "Why did Jesus come in the first place?" was on our minds and in our prayers for the past four weeks. We tried to reclaim our identity as CREATED, good and worthy of love, we recognized how we are CAPTURED in the ability to doubt not only our goodness and worth, but that God is good as well. God sent his Son to engage in a mission of sabatoge to RESCUE us from this cycle of evil we are powerless to free ourselves from. As a RESPONSE, we surrender ourselves to this truth of ourselves and God, as well as commit to help God win his world back. How is this done? It starts in the HOME! Our families, our homes, are the first and primary place where we learn how to respond. We are taught by those who love us (hopefully), and we practice the little things that reinforce the notions that a) an individual is not wholly self-sufficient, we need each other, b) God is present here and now, and c) despite imperfections/brokenness, we are worth the love we experience from others and that others are worth loving.

With Joy and Gladness,
Fr. Luke Barder, OP

Reflexiones pastorales - del escritorio del Parróco P. Luke Barder, O.P.

¡Feliz Navidad! ¿Quién ha recibido "michelines ;)" por Navidad?

Es un año raro, no muy frecuente, que la Navidad caiga en sábado y al día siguiente nos metamos de lleno en la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Este año, sin embargo, ha sido extraño porque, junto con toda la Arquidiócesis, hemos pasado nuestro Adviento sumergiéndonos en el Evangelio. La pregunta "¿Por qué vino Jesús en primer lugar?" estuvo en nuestras mentes y en nuestras oraciones durante las últimas cuatro semanas. Intentamos reclamar nuestra identidad como CREADOS, buenos y dignos de amor, reconocimos cómo estamos CAPTURADOS en la capacidad de dudar no sólo de nuestra bondad y valor, sino de que Dios es bueno también. Dios envió a su Hijo para comprometerse en una misión de sabotaje para RESCATE de este ciclo de maldad del que somos impotentes para liberarnos. Como RESPUESTA, nos entregamos a esta verdad de nosotros mismos y de Dios, y nos comprometemos a ayudar a Dios a recuperar su mundo.

¿Cómo se hace esto? Comienza en el hogar. Nuestras familias, nuestros hogares, son el primer y principal lugar donde aprendemos a responder. Nos enseñan los que nos aman (con suerte), y practicamos las pequeñas cosas que refuerzan las nociones de que a) un individuo no es totalmente autosuficiente, nos necesitamos mutuamente, b) Dios está presente aquí y ahora, y c) a pesar de las imperfecciones/rupturas, valemos el amor que experimentamos de los demás y que vale la pena amar a los demás.

Con alegría y gozo,
P. Luke Barder, OP
