SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name." (Acts 10:43)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Think of what is above, not what is on earth.
For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3:2-3)

Gospel:

Then the other disciple also went in,
the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed. (Jn 20:8)

REFLECT

First Reading

We hear today part of the speech that Peter delivered in the household of Cornelius, a centurion and Gentile-believer in Christ. Peter bore witness to his experiences with Jesus, including Jesus' resurrection. To whom do you bear witness to your faith in the resurrected Jesus?

Second Reading

Paul urges the Colossians to remain focused on Jesus' resurrection, ascension, and final return — to "seek what is above." What do you find appealing in this spiritual exercise?

Gospel Reading

Mark's account of Jesus' resurrection focuses on the women's discovery of the empty tomb. In fact, Jesus risen from the tomb is the original ending of the Gospel of Mark. Why do you think Mark would end his Gospel with the empty tomb?

Happy Easter! "He has Risen, truly Risen. He has Risen as He said". He has followed through on His promise. What a great experience, not only for Jesus, but for us.

In the Christmas message, God the Father promised to send His Son to save us from our sins. By His life, Jesus, His Son, taught us the Father's will, His Love for us and how He would accomplish His Father's Will. Lent gives us the opportunity to reflect on the life of Christ, His Love for the Father and Jesus' Love for us into something real. It gives us a sense of how we can reform our lives and live out the message.

Yes, we Love our God and we need to recognize that we participate in the life and death and resurrection of Jesus and to die to ourselves and follow God's design for humanity.

Through FAITH, we can grow in our desire to overcome the temptations of life and turn to the only way which offers us The Father's Love and Forgiveness.

Through HOPE, we are given the Resurrection, not only for Jesus but, for ourselves through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Through LOVE, we realize that Jesus brings us the Love of the Father and the depth of Jesus' own Love for us by His death on the Cross.

Let us joyfully celebrate the Love of God the Father, the giving of Jesus Himself on the Cross for Love of us and the Gift of the Holy Spirit to continue to be strong in our Love for THEM.

Have a holy and blessed Easter.

Fr. Robert J. Caruso
Pastor

Congratulations to the adults, teens and children who received Sacraments of Initiation at the 2021 Easter Vigil.

We welcome each of you and pray that you will continue to grow in your relationship with the Lord.

Thank you to the R.C.I.A. core team for sharing their faith in guiding the newest members of our All Saints Community.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

SPARK (MIDDLE SCHOOL) RETREAT

Our high school teens have been eagerly and diligently preparing to put on a retreat for our middle school teens this month. They will be giving talks, hosting games and activities, and leading prayer and worship for the weekend.

"Linked" together as one YM family, we will be unpacking the reality of the messiness of family life, journeying alongside the Holy Family, recognizing the 3 types of family we belong to, and exploring ways to communicate better with our loved ones.

Submit your $20 fee and registration form no later than April 14th. The form can be downloaded and payments can be made on our website, asccm.org.

LOOKING FOR SPONSORS

STEUBENVILLE WEST CONFERENCE

We are thrilled to announce All Saints will be returning to Steubenville West this summer after missing out last year due to the pandemic! This Catholic youth conference is open to all incoming Freshmen through graduating Seniors and takes place at the DoubleTree Resort Paradise Valley in Scottsdale, July 16th-18th.

RESTORED PSALM 80:3

Throughout our years of attending Steubenville West, our young people have been abundantly blessed by the generosity of parishioners who wish to support the attendees prayerfully and financially. We humbly invite you to offer prayer for our teens and consider sponsoring an individual or making a general donation to our group.

The conference ends up costing around $250 per person after we calculate all expenses, so every contribution, no matter the value, is greatly appreciated and goes a long way. Please reach out to Lindsay if you are interested in sponsoring our youth this summer. Thank you in advance. We also look forward to hosting a few exciting, Covid-friendly fundraising opportunities for our community in the coming months!

Happy and blessed Easter, everyone!
Y.M. is not gathering this week.
Enjoy your well-deserved break.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE THE PUZZEL!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

PRAYER

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

The Scriptures said Jesus would rise to life.
