SUNDAY'S READING

First Reading:

I will gather them from the ends of the world,
with the blind and the lame in their midst. (Jer 31:8)

Psalm:

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. (Ps 126)

Second Reading:

No one takes this honor upon himself
but only when called by God,
just as Aaron was. (Heb 5:4)

Gospel:

The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."
Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." (Mk 10:46-52)

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Jeremiah foreshadowed the joy that Israel would experience when the Lord delivers them from captivity in Babylon. What are some upcoming events you anticipate celebrating in the name of the Lord?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews tells us that God glorified Christ by making him "high priest." What are some gifts that you have received from God?

Gospel:

Jesus heard and responded to the desperate pleas of the blind man, Bartimaeus. What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

Hey kids, parents, catechists, family and friends:

There is still time to be a part of our feast day Mass and dress as your favorite saint! Give us a call... We are all called to be saints.

FAITH & FUN

Sharing the Gospel

Bartimaeus may have been poor and blind, but he sure was smart! He had the kind of faith that made Jesus smile. Bartimaeus knew exactly who Jesus was—the Messiah. And Bartimaeus knew Jesus had the power to make him see. When Jesus called him, Bartimaeus left everything behind—even his coat—just to follow Jesus.

A Fall Call to Serve

Teens and young adults, if you are looking to work some service hours, or are interested in lending a helping hand to our local community, please consider joining us Sunday morning of Halloween to assist in unloading donations from parishioners' vehicles and sorting through them downstairs in Bishops' Hall. Many hands make light work, and serving together as friends is always a good time.

Parents/adults: just give Lindsay a heads-up than she can expect you/your teen(s) by emailing lgray@asccm.org. We would appreciate your assistance for any length of time before and after Sunday Masses on 10/31. There is no TLC on this day, and we have no TLC on the following Sunday due to our parish picnic, so this would be a great way for you high schoolers to stay connected. :-)

LIVE THE LITURGY

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" We will instinctively know that it is only our Divine Master who can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. This is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become God patiently waits to console us, guide us, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our heart.

10 WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

I HAVE A FRIEND WHO RECEIVES COMMUNION, BUT WHO I KNOW FOR A FACT IS IN A STATE OF MORTAL SIN. SHOULD I TELL OUR PRIEST? IS IT MY RESPONSIBILITY TO SAY SOMETHING?

While we may always want to do what is best for our friends and family members, we have a responsibility to respect their privacy and their conscience. In its reflections on the Eighth Commandment (“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor”), the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. [One] becomes guilty: -of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; -of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another's faults and failings to persons who do not know them; of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them” (no. 2477). We will never truly know what is in a person's mind, heart, and soul; only God knows those things. We should, of course, take our concerns to God and entrust the person about whom we are concerned to God's grace and mercy. If we have concerns about the spiritual wellbeing of someone with whom we are close, we should go to the person themselves and talk about our fears and concerns. Unless it is a case of abuse or endangerment (which we have a moral and even legal responsibility to report to the appropriate authorities), we ultimately do not have the freedom to share another's persons faults or sins, however good we think our intentions might be.
