LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR, FR. JOHN PAUL LEWIS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

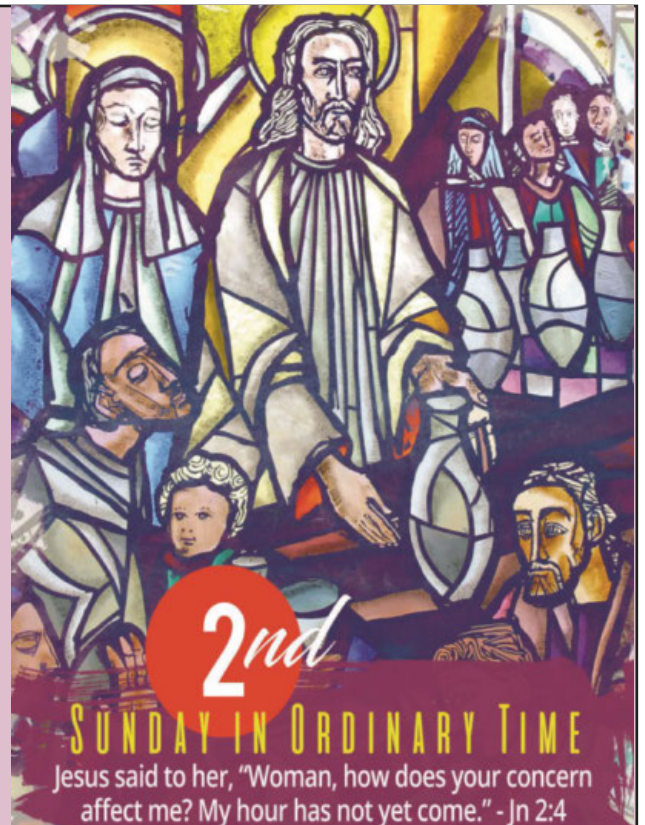

In our second reading this weekend, St. Paul reminds us of the reality that the Holy Spirit gives each of us gifts for the service of others. He lists these gifts, which the Church typically calls the “charismatic gifts” of the Spirit; Wisdom; Knowledge; Faith; Healing; Mighty Deeds; Prophecy; Discernment of Spirits; Varieties of tongues; Interpretation of Tongues. These gifts are given to us by a free gift of the Spirit, not for our own good, but for the good of other people, and the building up of the Church as the Body of Christ.

As St. Paul invites us to reflect on the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives, I would like to make a recommendation to all of you on Formed. If you are unaware, our parish subscribes to a Catholic streaming service called Formed, which all of our parishioners can access for free. They have many movies, series, electronic books, audio talks, etc. for all ages to help you and your family grow deeper in your faith.

There is a great series on Formed called “The Wild Goose,” which dives deeply into the Holy Spirit, our relationship with him, and how He wants to bless each one of us with his gifts for the building up of the Church. If you’re looking for great things to stream as we enter the new year, this is definitely a good one to add to the list. I hope to offer every few weeks recommendations for good content to stream on Formed as we all seek to grow in our faith.

In Christ,

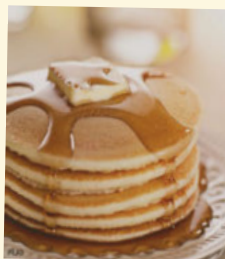

Fr. John Paul
