GOSPEL MEDITATION

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today’s Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It’s hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

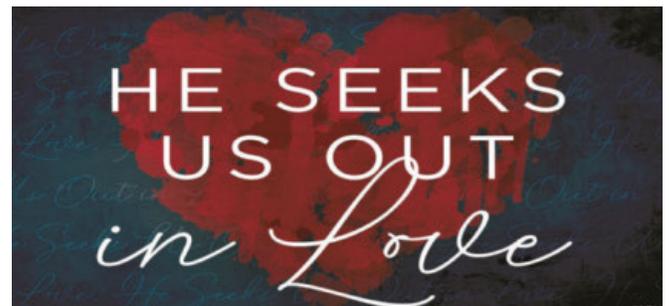

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord’s coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God’s eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Every human being asks and answers a very important existential question. What happens to us when we die? The answer we provide will determine how we chart the course of our existence. It will also determine whether the Second Coming of Christ will be of any concern to us. For many, life is simply a random occurrence with no significant intention or meaning about it. For these people, their eventual death, and the end of the earth as they know it, have little importance beyond their personal consequences. But, for people of faith our natural death and the Second Coming of Christ have huge implications. It is to these things that our faith speaks volumes and can bring a keen understanding and direction that the secular world simply cannot provide. This is where the call to vigilance and the primordial virtues of faith, hope, and love become useful and meaningful. We are works in progress who can either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful surprising creativity of his will.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

No particular prayer or formulary is required, though there are acts of spiritual communion in Catholic prayer books to help focus a proper intention. One of the most popular is that composed by St. Alphonsus Liguori:

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you."

LOAVES & FISHES MINISTRY NEWS

Loaves and Fishes gets busier with the help of many volunteers as the months go by. The October Drive-thru food and recycling collection was excellent: 63 cars drove through delivering 96 bags of food and $1,785.00 to be converted to food and paper goods. Redemption on recycling for October was $486.00. Thank you to all who come out on the third Saturday to deliver and to those who work in the parking to make it all happen!!

In other Loaves and Fishes news:

1. Service Day was a huge, helpful success. Thank you volunteers for your hard work in our church and on the grounds. The team power scrubbed the floors, cleaned the handrails and hardware outside, washed down all the chairs in the outside church and trimmed trees and rose bushes! Amazing work.
2. St. Jude's Junior High Ministry packed 160 bags for Kids and Families Together serving foster families who need a little help.
3. We provided new twin bed sets to two previously unhoused residents moving off the streets into Many Mansions with the assistance of Lutheran Social Services.
4. In response to Catholic Charities request for care bags for the homeless, the Melkias family packed 100 bags.
5. Thank you to St. Jude's School for participating in our Coats for the Cause collection. What a great response: 206 coats, sweatshirts and sweaters from the school!
6. There are still coats, etc. coming in for the Coats for the Cause collection. To date, we have received 824 pieces. Thank you for your generosity in reaching out to those who will benefit on cold nights spent without the comfort of housing.
7. Thank you to Cash for assembling 200 care bags for in his home for the Loaves and Fishes program. We love having the youth of our parish on our team!
8. In preparation for Christmas outreach, we are grateful to Marlene and Carmela for their beautiful work on handmade fleece blankets for all ages. They will serve many organizations.

By the way, if any of you know folks available to deliver projects to service agencies in Ventura County on weekdays, please let us know. We have lots going on and few volunteer drivers, contact Jackie Treuting (805)495-4630

Adopt A Family CHRISTMAS

Adopt-a-Family this year is taking a new direction. Based on a survey of our donors, feedback from the charities we serve, and with the effects of the pandemic still somewhat present, we are proceeding as follows:

- Every child in the families we adopt will receive a wrapped box (roughly the size of a shoe box) filled with small, stocking stuffer-type gifts.
- For each gift box given, we will provide a gift card to give to the child's parent(s) to purchase gifts.
- You will be able to adopt and provide a gift box for as many children as desired, girls and/or boys sorted in various age groups.

You will have the following options to support Adopt-a-Family Christmas this year:

1. Select one or more children to provide a gift-filled box (we will provide boxes during sign ups).
2. Make a financial donation for the purchase of gift cards.
3. Or do both - If you choose both options, we ask that gift cards not be placed inside the wrapped gift box.

More details will be provided via email and during sign ups after all Masses the first two weekends in November. If you have not received a recent email from the Adopt-a-Family team and would like to be on our email list, email us at stjudeaaf@gmail.com. Questions may be emailed to stjudeaaf@gmail.com, or call Karen Nichta @ 818-383-4406.

LA RECONGRESS 2022

March 17-20 in-person and virtual experience at the Anaheim Convention Center. "Living Waters of Hope", the theme for RECongress 2022, spurs us to not only "strike the rock so that water will flow from it" (Cf Exodus 17:6) but also, to not let our hope run dry. We may be asking what the Samaritan woman asked Jesus: "where then can you get this living water?" (John 4:11). We have the certainty that we can approach Jesus with our thirst and find fresh, clean, always running water that will quench the need of our hearts, our faith communities, and societies. We invite and welcome you to participate in person or virtually in RECongress 2022 and drink living waters of hope. To register or for more information visit <https://recongress.org/2022>

Tips to keep our school communities safe

As children settle back into regular (for the most part) school routines, parents can help keep their school communities safe by following a few simple guidelines. 1: Be aware. Read up on the school's COVID-19 safety plans, and prep your children for what to expect. 2: Be charitable. Understand that everyone in school may not share the same views, and remind yourself and your children to be kind. 3: Be consistent. Help your children build healthy habits at school and at home. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Back-to-school during the pandemic," at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
