Friday, January 22nd marked the 48th anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion on demand through all nine months of pregnancy in the United States. Today, we join the Church in continued work and prayer for the legal protection of all unborn children, and for the practical support of their mothers and fathers. We also pray for all women and men who suffer from participation in abortion, that they may find healing, peace, and reconciliation with God. As the child in Elizabeth's womb leaped for joy, so may our hearts leap with joy at the wonders of new life in every expectant mother. Please prayerfully consider how you may help support a culture that nurtures and respects all life, from conception until natural death. If you are interested in joining our Right to LIFE ministry, please contact the parish office.

Most of us are quiet people who desire to live a good and holy life, promote the values and mission of the Gospel as best we can and desire to one day inherit the surprise of life eternal God promises to us. We are not trail blazers. We are simple people who want to do the simple things of life well. But there are others who left a more profound impact along the way of the paths they walked. Folks like Dorothy Day, Martin Luther King, Thomas Merton, Gandhi, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and many others left lasting impacts and legacies. Like Moses, they show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose driven life look like. They show us how to be holy. We need Moses people like these to give us inspiration, hope and an example of holy living.

We do not need to do what they did or even mirror their relationship with God. Each one of us is God's special creation, with a purpose and soul known only to us. We need to learn how to open up and bring, without compromise, our soul-ness to life. We know when someone is authentic and centered because they always point to truth, even though they struggle and sin themselves, and they embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and it astonished many who listened. We do not need to move mountains, advance a cause, write books or become notable. All we have to do is become credible witnesses of the faith we profess. More people can teach us how to do this.

St. Oscar Romero was an amazing man and a Moses figure for sure. He saw God in the burning bush and brought the flame of Gospel faith to the poorest of the poor, challenging the evils of the society in which he lived. He was tireless and persistent. He must have gotten very close to the problem because it cost him his life. He suspected it would. St. Romero said, "When we leave Mass, we ought to go out the way Moses descended Mt Sinai: with his face shining, with his heart brave and strong to face the world's difficulties." We can learn from this wisdom. If we allow the power of the Mass to truly transform us, we will leave that holy encounter changed. Our face will shine, and we will have courage. We can then bring what we have received to life's challenges. That sounds doable, doesn't it? Because of the example of our simple holiness, people will be amazed.

Every Day Stewardship

Embracing Change in Christ

It's officially one month since we popped the champagne, toasted 2021 and wrote down a list of resolutions. This is usually the time when we start to take a good, hard look in the mirror to assess what we have done — or have not done — with the first month of this brand-new year.

New years can be scary, can't they? Full of promise, sure, but also full of room for failure. Full of space for our old baggage, old fears and the continuation of old mistakes.

The same can be said of Christ, and the new life he offers us, if we are brave enough to accept it. Opportunities like that can be intimidating. In that moment, we might find ourselves like the man with the unclean spirit crying out: "What have you to do with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?"

Jesus is a comforter of the afflicted; he is a consoling figure, but he is also a challenging one. Sometimes we have grown attached to our afflictions. The idea of correcting bad habits or forming new ones is frankly terrifying to us. We have a voice deep inside who sees Christ and his invitation to repentance, and it cries out in fear: "I know who you are!"

When we live in the present, disavowing the baggage of the past or fear of the future, we submit ourselves to the promise of redemption. Let us be brave everyday stewards and invite Christ's healing power into our lives. We won't regret it — I'm sure the demoniac never did.

WORLD DAY
FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Marcos presenta algo como la jornada de Jesús. Primero, él está en la sinagoga enseñando con autoridad, no como los maestros de la ley que repiten e interpretan la misma. Su autoridad se presenta al ordenar salir al espíritu impuro del hombre que entró a la sinagoga, y comienza a gritar a Jesús. “Yo sé que tú eres el Santo de Dios”. Jesús le ordena: “¡Cállate y sal de ese hombre! (Marcos 1:26). Nos dice el Evangelio que a causa de ese milagro su fama se extendía por todo el territorio de Galilea.

Jesús tenía autoridad porque hablaba con la verdad, lo que proclamaba de justicia, lo hacia él mismo, no tenía doblez, era la bondad misma de Dios en el mundo. La autoridad de Jesús es más fuerte que el mal. Lo decimos al final del Padrenuestro: “No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal”. Sí, Señor, líbranos como al hombre endemoniado de tu tiempo, de los males que nos aquejan hoy día, enfermedad, hambre, e injusticia. Además, danos una ayudadita, con los líderes del mundo con respecto a la autoridad. Que sean respetuosos, leales al pueblo, que hagan leyes justas que protejan a todos.
La sociedad de hoy necesita palabras con autoridad que erradiquen el mal. ¿Crees tú que Jesús puede liberar en este tiempo? ¿En quién está la autoridad que libera? No tenemos que pensarlo mucho. La autoridad está en cada uno de nosotros. Se nota en la justicia y el trabajo por la paz que llevemos a cabo en la familia, la sociedad y en el mundo.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Aceptando el Cambio en Cristo

Oficialmente ha pasado un mes desde que abrimos el champán, brindamos por 2021 y escribimos una lista de resoluciones. Este suele ser el momento en el que empezamos a mirarnos detenidamente en el espejo para evaluar lo que hemos hecho, o no hemos hecho, en el primer mes de este nuevo año.

Los años nuevos pueden dar miedo, ¿no? Llenos de promesas, seguro, pero también llenos de espacio para el fracaso. Llenos de espacio para nuestro viejo equipaje, viejos miedos y la continuación de viejos errores.

Lo mismo se puede decir de Cristo y de la nueva vida que nos ofrece, si somos lo suficientemente valientes para aceptarlo. Oportunidades como esa pueden resultar intimidantes.
En ese momento, podríamos encontrarnos como el hombre con el espíritu inmundo que gritaba: “¿Qué tienes que ver conmigo, Jesús de Nazaret? ¿Has venido a destruirnos?"

Jesús es un consolador de los afligidos; es una figura consoladora, pero también desafiante. A veces nos hemos apegado a nuestras aflicciones. La idea de corregir malos hábitos o formar nuevos es francamente aterradora para nosotros. Tenemos una voz en el fondo que ve a Cristo y su invitación al arrepentimiento, y grita de miedo: "¡Sé quién eres!"

Cuando vivimos en el presente, renegando del equipaje del pasado o del miedo al futuro, nos sometemos a la promesa de la redención. Seamos corresponsables valientes todos los días e invitemos el poder sanador de Cristo a nuestras vidas. No nos arrepentiremos, estoy seguro de que el endemoniado nunca lo hizo.

Helping Parishioners Buy & Sell Their Homes, We Look Forward to Helping You!

When we decided to buy a house in Oceanside from Europe, my husband looked in the church bulletin. Gratefully, he found Diane and Richard Eisendrath. They blessed our family abundantly. Diane and Richard spent ample time FaceTime house hunting and advising On our home purchase. We knew Diane and Richard had our best interest in mind. They carefully considered the neighborhoods, commute time and proximity to a Church. Even though thousands of miles separated us, Diane and Richard were always very responsive. Mostly, it was reassuring to know we had a prayerful, faithful Catholic couple helping us in our journey back to America!
