Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To you do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve.
To you do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears
Turn then, most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this exile show unto us
the blessed fruit of thy womb,
Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet
Virgin Mary.

Salve Regina

Dios te salve, Reina
y Madre de misericordia,
vida, dulzura y esperanza nuestra;
Dios te salve.
A ti llamamos
los desterrados hijos de Eva;
a ti suspiramos, gimiendo y llorando
en este valle de lágrimas.
Ea, pues, Señora, abogada nuestra,
vuelve a nosotros esos tus ojos
misericordiosos;
y después de este destierro,
muéstranos a Jesús,
fruto bendito de tu vientre.
¡Oh, clementísima, oh piadosa,
oh dulce Virgen María!

Today's Readings Sunday, May 19th

FIRST READING-ACTS 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.

At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

PSALM-104

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING-1 COR 12:3B-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

GOSPEL-JN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was twenty-two years of age in August of 2000, I experienced World Youth Day in Rome. As for many of my generation, the event was life-changing for me. Surrounded by joyful, hope-filled young people from seemingly every nation and tongue, we were gathered around the Pope, sharing a common Faith and love. The Pope spoke to us of our shared family bond in the Church and invited us to give our lives in service to others. Now twenty-four years later, my life as a priest, like that of so many others from those special days, continues on that same path of love and unity — despite my many weaknesses. What makes that continuation possible?

This week's feast gives the answer: the Holy Spirit. The gift of God — His very life — the third person of the Trinity, is the Spirit who animates the entire Church and each member of it. He makes us one-in-love in a way that utterly exceeds human capacity. For example, he makes the apostles speak with tongues of fire, and everyone hears them in his own native tongue. The Holy Spirit is the means by which Jesus establishes a new family, one that crosses all possible boundaries of time, space, and culture. The Holy Spirit never tires in enthusing us for mission.

Aren't we longing to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh way? Today we celebrate this untiring flame, once ignited on earth and burning still. So, we humbly cry out: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love!

Lecturas de Hoy

Domingo, 19 de Mayo

PRIMERA LECTURA-HCH 2,1-11

El día de Pentecostés, todos los discípulos estaban reunidos en un mismo lugar. De repente se oyó un gran ruido que venía del cielo, como cuando sopla un viento fuerte, que resonó por toda la casa donde se encontraban. Entonces aparecieron lenguas de fuego, que se distribuyeron y se posaron sobre ellos; se llenaron todos del Espíritu Santo y empezaron a hablar en otros idiomas, según el Espíritu los inducía a expresarse. En esos días había en Jerusalén judíos devotos, venidos de todas partes del mundo. Al oír el ruido, acudieron en masa y quedaron desconcertados, porque cada uno los oía hablar en su propio idioma. Atónitos y llenos de admiración, preguntaban:

“¿No son galileos, todos estos que están hablando?
¿Cómo, pues, los oímos hablar en nuestra lengua nativa?
Entre nosotros hay medos, partos y elamitas; otros vivimos en Mesopotamia, Judea, Capadocia, en el Ponto y en Asia, en Frigia y en Panfilia, en Egipto o en la zona de Libia que limita con Cirene. Algunos somos visitantes, venidos de Roma, judíos y prosélitos; también hay cretenses y árabes. Y sin embargo, cada quien los oye hablar de las maravillas de Dios en su propia lengua” .

SALMO-103

R. Envía, tu Espíritu, Señor, y renueva la faz de la tierra.

SEGUNDA LECTURA-1 CO 12,3B-7. 12-13

Hermanos: Nadie puede llamar a Jesús “Señor” , si no es bajo la acción del Espíritu Santo.

Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diferentes servicios, pero el Señor es el mismo. Hay diferentes actividades, pero Dios, que hace todo en todos, es el mismo. En cada uno se manifiesta el Espíritu para el bien común.

Porque así como el cuerpo es uno y tiene muchos miembros y todos ellos, a pesar de ser muchos, forman un solo cuerpo, así también es Cristo. Porque todos nosotros, seamos judíos o no judíos, esclavos o libres, hemos sido bautizados en un mismo Espíritu para formar un solo cuerpo, y a todos se nos ha dado a beber del mismo Espíritu.

EVANGELIO-JN 20,19-23

Al anochecer del día de la resurrección, estando cerradas las puertas de la casa donde se hallaban los discípulos, por miedo a los judíos, se presentó Jesús en medio de ellos y les dijo: “La paz esté con ustedes” . Dicho esto, les mostró las manos y el costado.

Cuando los discípulos vieron al Señor, se llenaron de alegría. De nuevo les dijo Jesús: “La paz esté con ustedes. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo” .

Después de decir esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: “Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar” .

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Con la Solemnidad del Espíritu Santo se termina el Tiempo Pascual. Durante cincuenta días hemos estado celebrando a Jesús vivo, quien venció la muerte y a los poderes del mal. La promesa del Espíritu Santo se hizo realidad para los discípulos. Se venció el miedo y la incertidumbre de ¿qué hacer, hacia dónde dirigirse? También, María Madre de Dios estuvo presente en este gran día, dando apoyo a la Iglesia naciente. La oración colecta de este día ayuda grandemente a celebrar con alegría la presencia del Espíritu Santo entre nosotros: “Dios nuestro, que por el misterio de la festividad que hoy celebramos santificas a tu Iglesia, extendida por todas las naciones, concede al mundo entero los dones del Espíritu Santo y continúa obrando en el corazón de los fieles las maravillas que te dignaste realizar en los comienzos de la predicación evangélica...”

Sí, pidamos los dones del Espíritu Santo para todos los fieles cristianos y para el mundo entero que tanto los necesita. Ven Espíritu Santo y danos la fuerza que viene de lo alto para continuar con la esperanza de la paz. Anima los esfuerzos de hombres y mujeres que luchan constantemente para lograr una vida que recree el modo de las primeras comunidades, donde se preocupaban el uno por el otro. “El Espíritu no es, como podría parecer, algo abstracto; es la persona más concreta, más cercana, que nos cambia la vida” (Papa Francisco) 6-9-2019. ¡Envía tu Espíritu Señor y renueva todo mi ser!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Spirit to Spirit

Talk to any couple who are devoted to one another. Ask them when they realized they were in love — call-me-in-a-crisis love, face-the-day-to-day-with-me love — and the answer will probably not be “When I realized he was only dating me to win a bet with his boss.”

If you know what movie that references, you and 12-year-old me would have been great friends. Like any other self-respecting American tween of the early 2000s, I used to watch a lot of romantic comedies. I forget how old I was when I realized that romantic comedies are actually ... really boring. Not because they’re about love — true love is fascinating. I could watch real-life people talk about who they love for hours.

Because when we say we love someone — truly love them — what we mean is we love their spirit. We love what they are. We love the qualities that escape description, the attributes we have to talk around or reduce to cliché in order to define. We cannot love a body alone. We cannot love a name or a reputation. We cannot love a story that we’ve built around a relationship.

To be in love with someone you need to know their spirit. Intimately. And that knowledge cannot help but change everything about you. It changes your goals, your understanding of the world. It changes the amount of courage you have to face the life ahead of you. It changes your ability to be who God wants you to be.

The disciples lived and ate and walked with Jesus for three whole years before they really knew his spirit. They didn’t know it on Good Friday when they scattered and hid and wept. They didn’t know it on Easter Sunday, when they couldn’t believe what they saw. They thought they loved him, but when push came to shove their love failed.

But by the end of their lives, the disciples knew the kind of love that sustained them even in the face of martyrdom.

What was it that changed? It was the Spirit. They finally knew the Spirit.

“No one can say, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ except by the Holy Spirit.” — 1 Corinthians 12:3

De Espíritu a Espíritu

Habla con cualquier pareja que estén dedicados el uno al otro. Pregúntales cuándo se dieron cuenta de que estaban enamorados (amor que me llama en una crisis, amor que enfrenta el día a día conmigo) y la respuesta probablemente no será: “Cuando me di cuenta de que él solo estaba saliendo conmigo para ganar una apuesta con su jefe.”

Si sabes a qué película estoy haciendo referencia, tú y mi yo de 12 años habríamos sido grandes amigos. Como cualquier otra adolescente estadounidense que se precie de principios de la década de 2000, solía ver muchas comedias románticas. Olvidé la edad que tenía cuando me di cuenta de que las comedias románticas son en realidad... realmente aburridas. No porque se traten de amor: el amor verdadero es fascinante. Podría ver a personas de la vida real hablar sobre a quién aman durante horas.

Porque cuando decimos que amamos a alguien, que lo amamos de verdad, lo que queremos decir es que amamos su espíritu. Nos encanta lo que son. Nos encantan las cualidades que escapan a toda descripción, los atributos de los que tenemos que hablar o reducir a clichés para poder definirlos. No podemos amar solo un cuerpo. No podemos amar un nombre o una reputación. No podemos amar una historia que hemos construido en torno a una relación.

Para estar enamorado de alguien necesitas conocer su espíritu. Íntimamente. Y ese conocimiento no puede evitar cambiar todo en ti. Cambia tus objetivos, tu comprensión del mundo. Cambia la cantidad de valentía que tienes para afrontar la vida que tienes por delante. Cambia tu capacidad de ser quien Dios quiere que seas.

Los discípulos vivieron, comieron y caminaron con Jesús durante tres años completos antes de conocer realmente su espíritu. No lo sabían el Viernes Santo cuando se dispersaron, se escondieron y lloraron. No lo sabían el domingo de Pascua, cuando no podían creer lo que veían. Pensaban que lo amaban, pero cuando llegó el momento, su amor fracasó.

Pero al final de sus vidas, los discípulos conocieron la clase de amor que los sostuvo incluso ante el martirio.

¿Qué fue lo que cambió? Fue el Espíritu. Finalmente conocieron el Espíritu.

“Nadie puede llamar a Jesús ‘Señor’, si no es bajo la acción del Espíritu Santo.” — 1 Corintios 12:3

DIOCESAN SYNTHESIS REPORT_Informes de Síntesis Diocesano

Operating in Silos

The Universal Church is the largest and oldest continuous operating organization in the world. In the Diocese of San Diego, there are more than 1.3 million Catholics, and there are thousands of people employed by the diocese, the parishes, the schools, and Catholic affiliated organizations to include universities, hospitals, and non-profit organizations. All the Catholic people have the same mission to serve God and His people, and as a Church we are often fragmented and not unified simply by the organizational structures and lack of opportunities for collaboration. A staff member for the Office for Diocesan Schools writes that "our departments work in silos. There are few opportunities for collaboration or for us to strategically support one another in our efforts. We have few opportunities to work together collaboratively in intentional ways. Speaking from the schools, I believe there are opportunities for greater collaboration between different departments and schools." Synodality can be a pathway to dismantling operational silos, and likewise, dismantling silos can lead toward synodality. Organizational structures that support a collaborative leadership and work climate are necessary to move from a vertical to a horizontal model of Church. One of the principals of one of our schools, noted that 'parishes and schools often operate independently and opportunities for evangelization are missed.'

Several people in the consultation suggested that organizational structures either be established or existing structures be modified to foster more collaboration and co-responsibility. The diocesan deaneries, of which there are seven in the diocese, are one existing structure that could be a potential source for eliminating silos and nurturing more dialogue and collaboration among parishes and ministries. Similarly, structures within the parishes could be established or re-established that promote a more collective accountability and management of parish affairs.

Conclusion

The move from the hierarchical organization that has been our Church for centuries toward a synodal model of Church with co-responsibility with all faithful is a momentous paradigm shift that requires patience, understanding, formation, and education. The movement toward synodality was described by one of the participating consultants as "generational". Any organizational, cultural change takes time and resources to bear fruit. There was a general consensus that our priests, particularly the pastors, carry a very heavy-load with multi-faceted responsibilities. These heavy workloads may even "discourage collaboration" as a woman religious wrote in her response regarding impediments to moving toward a synodal Church. Synodality and co-responsible does involve work and understanding, and ideally, synodality and co-responsibility leads to a more balanced workload for priests, deacons, lay leadership, and all those faithful active in both ministry and administration in our Church. Leadership and formation for both clergy and laity are the key elements to successfully move our Church toward synodality.
