IN REMEMBRANCE

Earlier this week, I went to visit a man who was very sick in the hospital. After praying from the ritual, I invited the family to tell their father words of love, and one lady there led us in praying "The Memorare," which is a prayer asking Mary to remember us.

It strikes me that November is a month of remembering. No matter how good our memories might be, they are bound by, and dependent on, the people who keep them alive. The Pixar movie, "Coco," was based on this theme. For us Christians, we believe that even when we forget others, and especially those who have died, unlike the movie, "Coco," where the dead disappear once forgotten, we believe that God remembers them, and so they do not vanish.

On November 2nd, we remembered and prayed for our loved ones who have departed from this world. Our devotion is an expression of the faith that God's remembering of them is eternal. Our belief that God remembers us is quite an expression of our faith in the resurrection, and the hope that there is no life apart from God.

Today, we remember also all veterans who have served in the United States Armed Forces. This day used to be called Armistice Day because at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, the Armistice with Germany went into effect, thus ending World War I. In 1954, it was renamed Veterans Day. Let us remember all the veterans we know, and show our appreciation and gratitude for their service.

God Bless, Fr. Carlos, O.S.A.

November 11, 2018

11 de Noviembre, 2018

Pienso que el ejemplo de ambas mujeres, nos invitan a reflexionar un poco, y nuestra reflexión puede tomar distintos trayectos, como por ejemplo podemos cuestionarnos, el dinero que ganamos con un trabajo extra, es tiempo que no le estamos dando a la familia.

Personas de muchos estudios, se dedican a pensar sobre cómo sería una economía en la que hubiera mejores oportunidades para todos, y mejores redes de apoyo para los necesitados.

Y este tipo de estudios es algo admirable, pero las viudas de las lecturas de hoy, al igual que la misionera que fue mi compañera de clase cuando estudié en Chicago, seguramente no tendrían una teoría económica, pero tuvieron una fe y esperanza total.

Ellas son ejemplo de una confianza inmensa en la providencia de Dios, que se fija en el corazón de cada quien.

De hecho, si contemplamos a Jesús, y al misterio de su vida, uno podría decir que tal vez si El hubiera durado más tiempo en la tierra, hubiera podido haber enseñado más, y haber llegado a más lugares sanando y expulsando demonios, pero el escoger haberse ido a ser crucificado a Jerusalén después de solamente 3 años, nos enseña que los planes de Dios sobrepasan nuestro entendimiento.

El nos amó sin medida. Dirían algunos de ese amor desmedido, “¡Eso es una locura!” o “¡Que falta de prudencia!”

P. Carlos Medina, OSA

Actividad en Español:

Encuentro, Conversión, Comunión, y Misión

El miércoles 14 de Noviembre el señor Jose Ernesto Gonzalez estará compartiendo unas platicas de Encuentro, Conversión, Comunión, y Misión para nuestra comunidad hispana. Jose Ernesto es el director asociado del programa del diaconado de nuestra diócesis. Este evento se realizara en el salón parroquial de 7:00 a 9:00 PM. Donación sera voluntaria.

Un Amor Desmedido

“¡Eso es una locura!” o “¡Que falta de prudencia!”

Así a veces pensamos, o por lo menos pienso yo, cuando escucho de personas que se exponen a ciertos riesgos.

Por ejemplo, así pensaba yo de una misionera que estudió conmigo en Chicago; porque ella andaba por los sectores más peligrosos de Chicago, ciudad que ciertamente en algunas áreas es muy peligrosa.

Ella se exponía a que le pasara algo malo. Ella nunca prestaba atención a mis consejos, porque experimentaba un llamado a llevar el amor de Cristo a las personas más marginadas por la sociedad.

Yo no pongo a esta misionera como ejemplo a seguir, porque pienso que se pueden hacer ambas cosas, llegar a lugares difíciles, y hacerlo de una manera segura con apoyo y logística.

Al mismo tiempo, la radicalidad de esta misionera de irse muchas veces sola arriesgando su seguridad, me deja contemplando como Jesús, en el evangelio de hoy, enaltece a aquella viuda que deposita todo lo poco que le quedaba para sustento del templo.

Tal vez, pensamos humanamente que fue algo imprudente lo que hizo la señora viuda, porque en aquella época las viudas no tenían ningún tipo de seguro social; pero aunque haya sido humanamente una imprudencia, Jesús, se fijó en aquella mujer quizás menospreciada, y seguramente ignorada por los demás, pero ella sin intención, supo cautivar la mirada de Jesús, y Jesús quedó definitivamente admirado de ella.

Una historia similar ocurre en la primera lectura entre otra viuda y el profeta Elías.

Ella era mucho más precavida, pero finalmente confía en las palabras del profeta.
