God Bless Our Catechists

Last Sunday and Monday our sacramental preparation programs started. Each year we have a large number of students in our programs, and this year is no exception.

In the previous years that I have been here at the parish, I noticed that there would be no parking left for our Mass attendants at the 11:30 AM Mass. In the Spring I asked for suggestions in order to resolve the situation. One of our parishioners gave me the idea to change catechism to Sunday afternoons after the 1:00 PM Mass and before the 5:30 PM Mass. So we are implementing the suggestion, and God willing, the adjustment will ease the traffic congestion that we used to have in the parking lot.

A large program like ours demands the organizational and relational gifts of our very committed director of religious education, Mrs. Eneida Scoby, and our several catechists who make it happen. Many thanks to Mrs. Scoby and to our catechists who once again will share the faith with our youth, as well as the adults in need of initial instruction in Catholic teaching.

Although faith is a gift from God, it comes by hearing about what God has done, and by seeing the example of sincere Christians around us. I was blessed to receive the gift of faith from the example of my parents and grandparents, and one uncle who was very patient with me when I was an inquisitive teenager.

(continues next column...)

Our catechists play a major role in the mission of our parish, in fulfilling their vocation of assisting parents and grandparents in communicating to their children the good news of God's love for us in Jesus Christ. May you continue to fall in love with God, and to seek to better understand Church teaching, so you can continue to teach others and to share the love you experience in and through Jesus Christ.

God bless,
Fr. Carlos, OSA

Prayer and Fellowship

Last Week, thanks to Fr. Max Villeneuve, OSA who presided the Eucharist on Friday evening, we hosted the Goretti Group: A local San Diego movement that promotes the virtues, especially chastity. A couple of our parishioners attended not just the Mass but the talk as well. Likewise, our Young Professionals hosted adoration and young adult leaders from St. Vincent Parish, St Joseph Cathedral, and St Columba Parish came together in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Security Update

As an experiment in increasing the safety of the gathered community, we were going to try locking the doors after the offertory at the 11:30 AM Mass. In the case someone needs to temporarily step outside, but plans to re-enter we have realized that we would need volunteers to stand by the doors in order to allow re-entrance of people in such cases. Please let me know if you would be willing to serve as porter. Also, we are strongly considering the deterrent of installing security cameras outside the doors.

Estate Planning Seminar

Thank you to everyone who attended the Estate and Legacy Planning seminar! May God bless you as you consider to leave a St Patrick's legacy by naming the parish endowment as a beneficiary in your estate plans.

Congratulations

To our Catechist Kimberli Halpin who consecrates herself to The Blessed Virgin Mary at the 5:30 PM Mass this Sunday. Let us keep her in our prayers. Kimberli is also a champion of the Dynamic Catholic Institute, and as such she will be praying for our parish, and once a month she will share free books or CDs.

Let the Countdown Begin this Week!

Join us for our annual Kickoff Cookout
Friday, September 20

beginning at 5:30 PM in the Parish parking lot.

All parishioners and families are invited to enjoy an evening of great food and entertainment. Proceeds go toward the Fall Festival.

Stop by and meet the St. Patrick School staff, enjoy some food and have fun!

Aprender de Nuestra Fe Para Transmitir La Doctrina

Ya empiezan las clases del instituto diocesano sobre el catecismo de la Iglesia que se dictaran aquí, y me alegra que los que dispongan del tiempo, hagan el sacrificio de haberse inscrito, ya que conocer nuestra fe es necesario para saber mejor el sentido de la vida. Una vez termine el curso, me gustaría pedirles su ayuda en catequizar a las familias de muchas quinceañeras que no conocen la riqueza de la Eucaristía y no saben cómo participar con las respuestas. Pienso que es una oportunidad que tenemos de catequizar a las familias.

Aprovecho para agradecer a las personas que nos van a estar ayudando como lectores en las Misas de 15 años los sábados, especialmente las que le tocan al Padre Phil. También se esta formando un grupo de personas que están reuniéndose con el Hermano Arturo para ver cómo podemos ofrecer un paquete de comida y decoración, para que celebren la fiesta en el salón, y así el evento genere más ingresos para la parroquia. Quisiera saber si padres de familia de adolescentes quisieran evangelizar a los padres de familia que vienen aquí los sábados.

P. Carlos Medina, OSA
